Cushendall Items.

Cushendall, Jan. 1.—Considerable excitement prevailed over the elections, John A. McFarlane, the popular young reeve, was re-elected by acclamation. School reopens on January 8th, with Miss S. Ethel Young again as teacher. Beginning a third year term. She has given every satisfaction, and is much appreciated as a teacher. Alexander Martin, Jr., of the G.T.R., Brockville, is spending a few days under the parental roof. T. Weir with his daughter and nephew, Monymore, Cut, is visiting his brother, J. S. Weir, Mrs. McCleymont, St. Ottawa, is visiting at St. Wood's. Samuel Sparks, Napanee, has returned home from visiting his sister, Mrs. William Miller, Mr. and Mrs. R. Simpson, Howe Island, spent a few days at J. Martin's. Mrs. William Henderson and daughter, Collin's Bay, visited her mother Mrs. Ward last week. H. Ward, Kingston, was at his home last week.

Meeting Great Success.

Barriefield, Dec. 29.—A wedding took place at St. Mark's church on Wednesday last, the groom being a well-known and popular young man of Barriefield, William Blake, during the last season mate of the steamer "Picton," and the young lady a resident of Toronto. At the school meeting, on Friday evening Joseph Woods and Herbert Murray were elected as trustees, in place of W. Allen and W. Toner, retiring. James Eford argued for a good salary to keep a good teacher, and all agreed. The present teacher was thoroughly satisfactory, and all wish to retain Mr. Fegg. The children have improved in every way since he has taken charge. He, Tisdale, Mr. and Miss McCaugherty, Toronto; at Mr. Hutton's; Sidney Turner, at Mr. Toner's; Mr. Bennett and family spent Christmas at Napanee, with his mother, John Ballie, who quite ill, left for home on Wednesday. The meeting of St. Mark's congregation, at town hall regarding the building fund, was a great success on Thursday night.

Pleasant Christmas Tree.

Colebrook, Dec. 27.—The Christmas tree entertainments held in the church on Christmas night, was a decided success. The church was more than full; many that came last could not get in, and had to return to their homes. The entertainment was pronounced by the pastor, and the proceeds amounted to $54. The annual school meeting passed off quietly. William Jackson was elected trustee. Miss Eva B. Griffith, Swedenham, was engaged as teacher for the ensuing year. A. S. Saury has moved into his new house, Andrew Galbraith is now convalescent after several days' illness. Nelson Walker has returned from the Northwest, looking hale and hearty. Miss Florence Warner spent a few days in Kingston. George Warton entertained a few friends from Harrowsmith and Kingston on Wednesday evening. Miss Edna Coudy is home from Montreal to spend the holidays, and entertained the choir on Saturday evening. Mrs. Wellington Brown spent Christmas at her former home in Roblin. Mrs. Hicks Ball has returned after attending the funeral of her mother at Crofton. James Condy has his home in Kingston.
