A despatch from Novominsk, in Russian Poland, states that Prefect Jukovskitch was assassinated, yesterday, while driving in a sleigh from the railway station. His little daughter who was sitting by his side, was wounded.

Marital law was yesterday declared at Ekaterinodar, South Russia; Sumiy, in the government of Kharkoff; Novorossisk, on the east coast of the Black Sea; Yuzovka, on the north shore of the sea of Azov, and Smila in the government of Kiev. The personal escort of the emperor has been increased by a squadron of Cossacks, composed of 600 men chosen from the entire force throughout the empire.

SLEEPING SICKNESS.

Dr. Koch to Investigate the Dread Disease. London, Jan. 10.—Dr. Koch is about to take charge of an expedition to investigate sleeping sickness in German East Africa.

He will remain in the infected territory for eighteen months, and will be helped so far as is possible by the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine, which has already spent £50,000 and lost one of its professors in his efforts to find a means of fighting this terrible plague.

It was authoritatively stated in Liverpool yesterday that the German Colonial Department had collected £50,000 towards the expenses of Dr. Koch's expedition.

SLAUGHTER!

Massacres Of Armenians By Tartars.

CLERGY EXPELLED FROM MANY CHURCHES IN THE BALTIC PROVINCES.

Lutheranism Predominant Religion There—Revolutionists Appoint Judges—Premier Assassinated in Russian Poland—Czar's Cossack Body Guard Largely Increased.

London, Jan. 10.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Telegraph says that the revolutionists, in the Baltic provinces have appointed judges over the rural districts, including a woman in each canton. They have expelled the clergy from most of the parishes. Where the priests have been allowed to remain they are forbidden to preach about the last judgment, which the revolutionists criticize as silly twaddle. Socialists frequently occupy the pulpits, from which they propagate their political views. They also conduct weddings, marrying the couples beneath red flags, and making political speeches, instead of delivering sermons. Lutheranism is the predominant religion in the Baltic provinces.

Massacres Of Armenians.

Constantinople, Jan. 10.—The situation at Tiflis, the capital of Russian Transcaucasia, is again most serious. The Russian artillery have bombarded the city, and the rebels met a Cossack attack with bombs. Complete anarchy prevails at Elizabetpol, a city of about 17,000, ninety miles south-east of Tiflis. There have been terrible massacres of Armenians by the Tartars there.

A Premier Assassinated.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 10.—Count Von Vorstoff-Bashkoff, viceroy of the Caucasus, in a telegram to the emperor, dated January 7th, says: "Owing to the interruption of communication, and spreading of false reports by the revolutionaries, the movement of the latter is on the increase. The revolutionaries have seized the railroads, which they are using for their own purposes. They are organizing general strikes, and are endeavoring to influence the employees of the government. The district of Tiflis has been declared in a state of siege. At many of the railway depots bombs have been discovered. Several agitators have been arrested. Tartars and Armenians are in conflict in Baku, Erivan and Daghestan."

Death At Windsor.

Windsor, Ont., Jan. 10.—John Watson, known among his acquaintances as Uncle John Watson, one of the best known formerly for thirty-eight years a customs officer, died last night. He was nearly eighty-three years of age. He was born on the banks of the Detroit river, in Sandwich, and nearly all his life was spent in Windsor. His father was the late Lieut.-Col. John Gowie Watson, Sandwich, who served with the British troops in the year of 1812, and the rebellion of 1837-38.

Federal Government Will Make An Increase.

Ottawa, Jan. 10.—A prominent politician here, discussing the tariff revision of the coming session, is authority for the statement that the government is likely to accede to the general demand of manufacturers and material increase the tariff against the United States. In view of public sentiment such a course, it is thought, would be very unpopular. A high tariff bill, it is urged, would drive American manufacturers to establish branches in Canada and thus tend to the country's industrial development, otherwise the tariff is likely to make their competition very unprofitable.

WINNIPEG TO EDMONTON.

New Line to Be Commenced Next Spring.

Montreal, Jan. 10.—A new line on the C.P.R., from Winnipeg to Edmonton, will be commenced next year as a result of the entry of the C.N.R. into that field. This will make four trunk lines from Winnipeg to Edmonton, two of the C.P.R., the C.N.R., and the G.T.P. This was announced this morning by Vice-President Whyte, of the C.P.R., who arrived here from the west to confer with Sir Thomas Shaughnessy regarding section extensions of the road during the coming year. The new extension will give the C.P.R. a direct line from Winnipeg to Schobo, via Wabeskiwin, on the Edmonton and Calgary line, opening up a country not served by any other road. Mr. Whyte stated that next year the C.P.R. would spend from six to seven millions on construction work in the west.

GOOD MAN GONE WRONG.

He Won Fame Years Ago By His Speech.

Marion, Ind., Jan. 10.—A. F. Norton has been arrested and charged with passing a worthless cheque and is declared to be insolvent with liabilities of $40,000 and assets of $10,000. If these charges are true they mark the downfall of one of the most picturesque business men in Indiana—or, in the United States, for that matter. Norton is the man whose fame sprang from fat and rich because of his land office "business" from the start. He carried grain sacks filled with money to the banks, and appeared to be distressingly prosperous.

MARRIED AT BROCKVILLE.

A Daughter of the Late Senator Weds.

Brockville, Ont., Jan. 10.—"Fulford Place" was the scene of a quiet, but pretty, wedding, this morning, when Miss Martha Fulford, daughter of the late Senator Fulford, and George A. Shirreff, son of Charles J. Shirreff, Brockville, were united in marriage. One of his kind was that of an officiating clergyman. The bride was given away by her uncle, John H. Fulford. She was unattended and only a few intimate friends and near relatives were present. A few days ago by the death of the bride's father, at the return from an extended wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Shirreff will reside in Brockville.

Married At Ottawa.

Ottawa, Jan. 10.—Miss Rona King, the youngest daughter of the late Justice King, of the supreme court, was married in Dominion Methodist church, this afternoon, to David Gilmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gilmore, "Tralfalg House." The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Rose, Hamilton, and was a well so society affair. The bride was attended by Miss Ethel Jones and Miss Elsie Ritchie and the groom by Felton Gilmore. The bridal party left this afternoon for Quebec and New York.

TARIFF AGAINST STATES.

Federal Government Will Make An Increase.

Ottawa, Jan. 10.—A prominent politician here, discussing the tariff revision of the coming session, is authority for the statement that the government is likely to accede to the general demand of manufacturers and material increase the tariff against the United States. In view of public sentiment such a course, it is thought, would be very unpopular. SENT TO JAIL

A Dowdette Leader Got Into Trouble.

HIS SERIOUS WORK

SCATHINGLY REBUKED BY THE JUDGE.

Elder Brooks Was Sentenced to Six Months' Hard Labor for Aiding in Fatal Neglect of Mrs. Harmon—A Husband's Sentence.

Whitby, Jan. 10.—For aiding, counselling and abetting one Marshall Harmon, of Victoria Carriers, township of Brock, in neglect in securing medical assistance during his wife's illness, Eugene Brooks, of Toronto, a Dowdette leader, was yesterday, sentenced by Judge McCrimmon to six months in the Central prison with hard labor.

Harmon's wife died last summer of acute dropsy after confinement. Harmon would not let the neighbors help her, but sent for High Apostle Brooks from Toronto. Brooks prayed for a while with the unfortunate woman and was then driven to the station ten miles distant by Harmon, the woman being left alone in the meantime. While Harmon was absent Mrs. Harmon's brother and sister came to visit her. They at once sent for a doctor, but it was too late.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

Honoring An Aged Couple in Lindsay.

Lindsay, Ont., Jan. 10.—A most interesting event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Knowlson, Russell street, last evening, it being the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Every living direct descendant with their husbands, wives and children, were present, forty-three in all, to do honor to their parents. The aged couple were the recipients of many joyous messages from absent friends and relatives, in England and the United States and Canada, and many tokens of love and appreciation from those present: J. A. Bucknell and family, New York; E. L. Fortt and wife, Kingston, Ont.; R. J. Matchett and family, P. M. Leggett and family, Lindsay; A. Knowlson, New York; Herbert Knowlson, New York; F. Knowlson, Detroit; J. M. Knowlson, Lindsay; J. B. Knowlson, Jr., Lindsay; Miss Alexander, New York.

A YEAR IN CENTRAL.

The Sentence Given a Good Young Man.

Port Hope, Ont., Jan. 10.—This morning, Thomas Dalton, St. Thomas, a railway man, was convicted of being concerned, with a companion who is not yet arrested, in the recent burglary at Ben, Oliver & Co's. clothing store. He pleaded guilty. Letters from the mayor of St. Thomas and others were produced testifying to his previous good character and he was sentenced to one year in Central prison. The prisoner left behind in the store, on the night of the burglary, a vest containing a card of membership in Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and belonging to his brother, which led to his arrest.

Enormous Immigration Figures.

New York, Jan. 10.—The official figures given out today by the bureau of statistics on Ellis Island, show that the immigration during the year 1905 was enormous. It was far greater than in 1904. The grand total is nearly up to the million mark. There was a substantial increase in the number of persons travelling in the cabins of the liners reached enormous proportions.

Wanted For Forgery.

Port William, Ont., Jan. 10.—Pinkerton detectives are here searching for "Major" A. J. Smith, formerly C.P.R. train dispatcher here, but who later has been living with a wealthy woman of bad reputation. He is wanted on a charge of forging a check for a thousand dollars in a town near Chicago. He skipped out recently, and it is reported here that he has been located in Kansas City.

COOK ALMOST KILLED

By An Assistant, Whom He Had Discharged.

Montreal, Jan. 10.—William Reinhardt, cook at the L'Orleans hotel, near the Bonaventure C.T.R. station, was almost killed, this morning, by his assistant Jones, an Englishman. For some time past there has been bad blood between the two, and this was intensified a few days ago by Reinhardt's discharging Jones. The latter evidently had his mind made up to kill Reinhardt. Early this morning he went to Reinhardt's room, and cracked his skull with a bar of iron, which he (Jones) had evidently kept hidden away in his room for some time past. He then made his escape, and cannot be found, although an alarm was at once given. Reinhardt still lives, but is in a serious condition.

Parisian At Liverpool.

Montreal, Jan. 10.—The Allan liner R.M. steamer Parisian, from St. John, N.B., and Halifax, for Mexico and Liverpool, arrived at Liverpool at 10 p.m., on the 9th.

SUIT MAY FOLLOW

Young Canadian Failed to Marry Either.

Oswego, N.Y., Jan. 10.—A tale of love's entanglements with the promise of a breach of promise suit is stirring the residents of the Sixth Ward. According to the reports, a young man from Canada, who some years ago worked in this city, came here a short time ago to marry a young woman of the Sixth Ward. Everything, it is said, was arranged and one morning they started out to have the knot tied. The particular clergyman whom they desired to officiate happened to be out when they called and so they returned home, intending to make another attempt soon.

The young man in the meantime went to visit some of his friends and before the visit was ended a marriage with the daughter of another house is alleged to have been arranged. The couple, accordingly, went to a nearby hamlet with the girl's father, but here again the clergyman was not at home. According to the story told, the young woman balked at this point and declared the negotiations null and void.

The young man and the latter girl's father next decided upon a trip to New York at the expense of the former.

The young man's first love waited long and in vain for him to return and lead her to the altar. When she learned of his subsequent actions she became wroth and is said to have threatened to sue him for breach of promise.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 10.—(10 a.m.)—Fair, gradually rising temperature, Thursday, fine and milder.

Steacy's Great Pre-Inventory Sale

As we write the great Pre-Inventory Sale is filling every aisle in this store. We surprised our customers—giving them cause to believe our trade statements, for never in all our past years of selling Dry Goods—have we fulfilled the promises more fully than now. The "mark down" has been thorough—the goods affected are found in every department under the roof—the reductions are radical and exceptional—the opportunities to save on each purchase are decisive—SO DON'T LET ANOTHER DAY PASS WITHOUT A VISIT TO THIS STORE.
