WHAT WHIG CORRESPONDENTS TELL US.

The Tidings From Various Points In Eastern Ontario — What People Are Doing And What They Are Saying.

Long Point Notes.

Every morning first of all Mother comes and gives her call: — "John-ne-e-e-e!" Then that I know I can snore For a half an hour more, Till brother comes to bring my door. For fifteen minutes more I lie, Waiting for my sister's cry: — "John-ne-e-e-e!" Then dad backs out, but I keep still, And on and on I snooze until I can hear the coffee mill.

Oh, how good that coffee smells! Talk about your breakfast bells, For Johnny!

Quick I slip my pants on, You can always look for John 'Fore that Chase & Sanborn's gone.

Guess I'm lazy! Pa says so. Ma says, "So tormented slow Is Johnny!"

But 'tis Johnny-on-the-spot, Johnny for the coffee pot, When that CHASE & SANBORN'S hot.

— Prestonvale Points.

Prestonvale, Jan. 10.—Oh, young people intend taking in the entertainments given by Miss Pauline Johnson, in the Orange Hall, Drummond Centre, on Monday evening. George Horning, Bishop's Mills, called on friends here recently. W. McLaren, Sault Ste. Marie, is spending his vacation at his home here. Miss Lena McNaughton of the P.C.I., spent Sunday at her home here. Mrs. R. D. Halpenny has been spending sometime visiting her parents in Carleton Place. Thomas Sturgeon is busily engaged hauling hay to his farm which he recently purchased from George Richards. Mr. and Miss Green, Armagh, Arnprior, visited W. Tenant recently.

Westport Waits.

Westport, Jan. 16.—The sleighing is better now than at any time last year. Our ice races were a grand success, this year, as the weather was ideal and fine. There was a large crowd from Brockville and other parts attended them. Wood is quite plentiful now and prices are coming down. We are glad to see T. K. McCann around again with his 1906 samples of wall paper. Mrs. Joseph Kenoe, who has been seriously ill for the past week is slowly recovering. Alexander Blair, of the firm of Goodellow & Blair, is in Gananoque for a few days. This week, Mrs. M. J. White, who has been ill for the past few weeks, is improving, so also Mrs. J. McCann around again with his 1906 samples of wall paper. Canadiana, so ably presented by Speagle, Mrs. Johanna Connors, who has been the guest of her mother for the past few weeks, returned to her home in Stella last week. Our town is slowly recovering from the shock of the sad news passed from house to house telling of the sudden death of John Whelan, one of the oldest residents of the town. The funeral was the largest ever held in St. Edward's church. Our town will miss him very much in business matters and we extend our sympathy to his wife and family.
