MANY VIEWS

Given As To Tide Of Liberal Victories.

SEVEN LIBERALS

ELECTED YESTERDAY OUT OF EIGHT CONTESTS.

Counties as Well as Boroughs Join "Flowing Tide"—Eleven Members of Former Ministry Follow Balfour to Defeat.

EARL CARRINGTON.
President of the Agricultural Board of England. Already his administration of his Department is gaining for the new ministry confidence and praise.

London, Jan. 20.—Out of the eight returns of yesterday's voting, received up to two o'clock, this morning, seven were Liberal gains. The other seat already was held by a Liberal, whose majority is increased from 817 to 2,810. Thus the counties, with even greater unanimity than the boroughs, are joining what has become known as the "flowing tide." In all forty-three seats were decided, but the eight o'clock closing hour renders it impossible to get returns until today.

Liberal gains now aggregate 121, and labor seats, which are offset by only four conservative gains.

One bright spot in the conservative returns was the announcement, early in the evening, that Austin Chamberlain had resigned his seat in the House of Commons, and had been elected by a majority of twenty-four over Sir Michael Foster, Liberal, who had held the seat for 883 majority.

Last night's returns record the fall of another former minister, Sir R. Finlay, former attorney-general, who was defeated in Inverness by 558 majority. He is the eleventh member of the ministry to follow his leader, Mr. Balfour, to defeat. In fact, Arnold Foster occupies the splendid isolation of being the only member of the late ministry yet returned. Monday will decide the fate of Chamberlain against whom a strong onslaught is being made in Worcestershire. Mr. Chamberlain has a majority of 2,594 but has been ill during most of the campaign.

One of the big turn-overs of yesterday's vote was in Middlesex where a conservative majority of 5,268, was changed to a Liberal majority of 2,716. In Nottinghamshire Sir Frederick Milner had himself by having written eleven thousand letters to his constituents. He was defeated by 531 majority.

The returns up to midnight show the standing of the parties to be as follows: Liberals, 22; Unionists, 8; Nationalists, 2; Laborites, 37.

On the vexed question of what has been the real cause of it all, interesting opinions have been expressed by candidates. Of sixty-four successful Liberal or labor candidates thirty-six affirm that free trade, or "the fear of food taxation," as they describe it, is the first cause. Twenty-four others give the chief credit to a desire for social reform, and disgust with the late government.

FAMILY POISONED
With Food Eaten at Their Breakfast.

Canyon City, Colo., Jan. 20.—Former Governor James H. Peabody, his wife and their daughter were poisoned by food eaten at breakfast yesterday and the daughter, Miss Cora Peabody, is in a critical condition. Mr. and Mrs. Peabody, although ill, for several hours, recovered later. An air of mystery surrounds the affair. Enough was gleaned from friends of the family to show that there is a belief that an attempt was made to destroy the family by poison.

Alleged Triple Murder.
Dayton, Ohio, Jan. 20.—Dr. Oliver O. Haug, the accused slayer of his father, mother and brother by the administration of hyoscyne, a deadly poison, was formally charged with this crime by the grand jury, which returned three indictments against the prisoner last night. The tragedy was enacted on the night of November 4th last, at the farm house of the Haug family, eight miles north of this city.

Fifty Years in Jail.
Agrani, Hungary, Jan. 20.—Ivan Palonenk, who is 143 years old, was released from prison, yesterday, after fifty years' confinement. He protested tearfully against his release, but in vain, and he immediately committed another crime in order to be re-imprisoned.

SHE BEAT BURGLAR

DEFENDS TILL AND FACES REVOLVER.

Police Were Called and the Desperado Made Good His Escape—A Suspect Has Since Been Arrested.

Guelph, Ont., Jan. 20.—The pluckiness of a fourteen-year-old girl, cashier in the grocery of Mrs. C. F. Lee, queen street, prevented a robbery on Thursday night.

A young man entered the store, and after asking for change drew a revolver and pointing it at the girl demanded the contents of the till.

Upon being refused the man grabbed a heavy knife and endeavored to intimidate her with it. Still the girl bravely defended the till until Mrs. Lee came upon the scene and telephoned for the police.

Even then the man persisted, and turning his revolver at the woman, threatened to shoot her.

The ringing of the telephone bell probably frightened the would-be robber, for he ran out of the store and disappeared in the darkness.

Mrs. Lee says she had a woman accomplice waiting for him outside the store.

The police on Friday arrested a young man named Edwards, who committed the attempted robbery.
