WOMEN WHO CHARM

HEALTH IS THE FIRST ESSENTIAL
It Helps Women to Win and Hold Men's Admiration, Respect and Love

Woman's greatest gift is the power to inspire admiration, respect, and love. There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature.

Mrs. T.E. Gillis
To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study. At the first indication of ill-health, painful or irregular menstruation, headache or backache, secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin its use.

Mrs. T. E. Gillis, Windsor, N. S., describes her illness and cures, in the following letter:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
When I commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was suffering with weakness and womb troubles, headaches, backaches, and that worst-of-all feeling, I have only taken the Vegetable Compound a few short weeks, and it has made me well, strong and robust. I believe that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is without equal for female troubles.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, or nervous prostration may be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Surely you cannot wish to remain sick, weak and discouraged, when you might so easily be cured. The medicine which has made so many other women well will cure you also.

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women

They are the prescription of a specialist.
This is an age of specialists—men who give all their time, study, and practice to some particular branch of medicine. There are specialists of the eye, specialists in diseases of the lungs, specialists in diseases of women. It costs something to get a prescription from a specialist, but it is worth all it costs, when you get it.
Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women are the prescription of Dr. Hugo, of Paris, a specialist of forty years' experience in diseases of women.
It embraces the latest medical discoveries of the other skilled physicians in the world. It might be called a compound prescription of the world's best specialists.
No ordinary physician can prescribe such a remedy. The better the physician, the nearer will be his prescription to that of Dr. Hugo.
Thousands of women in Europe have paid $50 for a consultation with Dr. Hugo and got the same remedy. Considering the benefit they received from it, it was worth $50, but it costs women now only 50c for six dozen tablets—enough for an extended treatment.
It is a compound remedy containing all the tonics and alteratives that any woman can need, no matter what her condition. For women suffering from a run-down condition, or any weakness peculiar to her sex, it is now acknowledged to be beyond doubt or question the best remedy available to-day. It makes healthy women.

GOOD WRESTLING

BIG FELLOWS HAD A STIRRING TIME.

The Little Fellows Gave a Better Exhibition For the Benefit of the Spectators—A Swede's First Appearance.

Montreal, Jan. 20.—Alexander Samson, Swedish wrestler, made his first appearance in America, last night, at Sohier Park, where he met Ponderous Apollo and tugged at him for an hour without fall. Samson, who weighs about 215 pounds, made a good impression. He was not able to do much with the massive Apollo, but he kept the big fellow on the mat a good part of six, ten-minute rounds.

Daniel McLeod defeated Emil Maupas in mixed style contest, which was more interesting from a spectator's standpoint, than the tussle between the big fellows. Maupas won the first fall at Grasso-Roman, in thirty-seven minutes, but McLeod turned over the Frenchman twice at catch-as-catch-can. The choice of style for the third fall was decided on the flip of a coin, McLeod being lucky man. Maupas showed surprising form at catch-as-catch-can and gave McLeod the hardest kind of a tussle. It took the young Canadian thirty-seven and one-half minutes to get the first fall, but in the decisive turn he pinned his opponent to the mat in seventeen minutes.

SATURDAY MARKET.

Good Attendance, Mild Weather, Normal Prices.

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather conditions the market, this morning, was a good one. Both on the square and in the butter market attendance was large. The continued mild weather is responsible for a drop in the price of eggs to 20c and 25c for new laid eggs, and 25c to 30c for fall eggs, and the high price of fowl, chickens, 75c to 81 a pair; fowl, 81 a pair; turkeys, 11c a lb.; geese, 81 each. Eggs were very plentiful, the hens laying well under the spring-like weather conditions. Butter was offered in large quantities at 22c to 25c a lb., principally at the latter price. The housekeeper had a wide selection in nearly all lines from which to choose for market purposes. Outside the prices were about the same as the past few weeks. With meat, pork has slightly advanced from 8c and 9c to 9c and 10c; mutton, 7c to 8c. The vegetable market remains good and steady in price.

Sold A Farm.

Inventory, Jan. 20.—James Shepherd has disposed of his farm to Byrd Bros., Hartington, for $6,500. He has rented W. J. Arthur's house for the summer, and will move his family there while he goes out west. Amos Ferguson has purchased the residence of the late Hugh Spring in the village. A large number attended the sale at Wesley Ferguson's on Tuesday. Cows brought a high figure realizing from $30 to $37. Rev. S. J. Jolley is absent attending church in Niagara. Visitors: Misses Jennie Dillon, and Freeman and James Dillon, Westbrooke, at Thomas Thompson's; Mrs. Sarah Dixon at her son's, James Dixon; Dr. Byron Gamble, Montreal, at 86, 200; Ferdinand Holmes, Mrs. Knapp and Florence at George Arkroyd's; Ivy Haggadore and friend, Odessa, at W. R. Tull's; Miss Eitta Rutledge, at W. Duff's.

Benefits This Winter.

Such a winter as we have been having means money in the city coffers. The city has been at comparatively no expense as regards corporation work from heavy snow falls and the other accessories of King Winter's bombardment. Not more than six days have as yet been required to fight the season, as compared with last year, when about this time for a stretch of three weeks one hundred men and twenty teams of horses were necessary to dig the old limestone out of the street and make traffic possible. The street railway company has also been glad of the mild weather, but one does not see the coal men wearing that beaming smile, which is usual with them at this time of the year.

Junior Basket-Ball At Y.M.C.A.

The junior basketballers had a game at the Y.M.C.A., this morning, in which the Royals won from the Beavers by a score of 17 to 11. The game was fast and close at one time, in the second half, the score being equal. The line-up: Gratton, Fleming, forwards; Mueckler, centre; Marshall, defence. Beavers—Goodard, Parkhill, forwards; Lee, centre; Macdonnell, defence. Referee—H. Béal.

A Creditable Number.

The January number of the Real Estate Bulletin is an exceedingly creditable production. This popular local monthly is evidently working its way into the good graces of the citizens generally. Its list of properties for sale is constantly increasing, and its career is bound to be most beneficial to all, particularly so to property holders.

TOLD IN THE TWILIGHT.

(See also Page 7.)

Mrs. Joseph Power gave a very delightful musicale, last night, in honor of Mrs. Dignam. Miss Gertrude Fortescue and Miss Muriel King played very beautifully, and Miss Ada Bates, and Miss Mildred Macerone sang. The Woman's Art is desirous of promoting the handicrafts as well as the arts, among Canadian women, and Dignam showed some very beautiful lace, made in Canada. Amongst it was a bit made by the fingers of an old woman of eighty-five, who lives in Moncton, N.B., and who was one of those entrusted with the making of the lace for the queen's wedding robe. Among Mrs. Powers' guests were Miss Machar, Miss Drummond, Mrs. and Miss Mowat, Mrs. and Mrs. Etta Richmond, Mrs. James Hendrie, Mrs. Hiram Calvin, Mrs. W. B. Casey, Mrs. C. gave a very jolly social evening to about twenty of her daughter's, Miss Helen Sands, young friends, at her home on Queen street. Games and music were enjoyed.

ISLAND "PRINCESS" WEDS.

Father Rules Kingdom, Which Has No Money.
London, Jan. 20.—"Princess Mabel," of the delectable Cocoa-Keepling Islands, otherwise Miss Mabel Clunies-Ross, has been married at Nelson, New Zealand, to Harold Kempthorne.

Her father is the ruler, under the British flag, of the group of twenty beautiful islets in the East Indian Archipelago occupied by his ancestor, Capt. Ross, the Scottish master and owner of a merchant vessel, in 1823.

He makes his own laws, governs without a single policeman and supplies all goods to the islanders, who are without shops and without money. In the drawback to the complete happiness of the men, the women have been forbidden to fog their wives, the women have obtained undue moral influence over them.

Harper Memorial Library.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—Sentiment favoring the erection of a library, instead of a chapel, as a memorial to President W. R. Harper, has grown among the University of Chicago professors, students and alumni in the last few days, and it is believed now that a library, building to cost at least $1,500,000 will be constructed.

"A great library would be more fitting to the memory of president than a chapel," said Dr. T. W. Goodspeed, secretary of the board of trustees, and registrar of the university, yesterday. "It is likely that a popular subscription will be started, and I have no doubt that the necessary funds will be donated quickly."

Wilkinson Estate Sold.

The H. J. Wilkinson block, corner of Princess and Montreal streets, was sold by John H. Mills at auction, today. The bidders were: John Gaskin, J. S. Henderson, R. Waldron, H. D. Bixby, W. J. McKee and was finally sold to A. J. Macdonell, manager of the Ontario bank, for $7,900.

Excursion To Toronto.

Limit of Human Agony.

It is often reached with comical foolishness, because "Putnam's" Corn Extract cures in twenty-four hours. Don't put it off—get "Putnam's" to-day—five years in use—painless and sure.

STANDS FOR TRIAL

GOODMAN PUT IN JAIL WITHOUT BAIL.

Some $3,000 Worth of Goods Recovered Since His Arrest—Asking For a Superannuation Scheme For Teachers.

Toronto, Jan. 20.—Charles Goodman, the wealthy second hand dealer, who has been nearly three weeks in jail, on charges of receiving stolen goods, was arraigned, today, on the charge of receiving goods the property of Denham, Caldecott & Co. He pleaded not guilty, elected to be tried by jury, and was remanded, bail being refused. Since Goodman's arrest, property of nearly three thousand dollars in value, the proceeds of several robberies, has been recovered.

A deputation from the Ontario Educational Association, headed by Chancellor Burwash, waited upon Hon. Mr. Matheson, provincial treasurer, this morning, and submitted a scheme for the superannuation of teachers in the province, in which both teachers and government will bear a share of the costs. Col. Matheson said he would submit the scheme to an actuary to see if it was feasible.

De Sheard has discovered a case of small-pox, on Saunders avenue, in the west end of the city. The patient is a man and the medical health officer thinks the disease was contracted through Chinamen.

The patient, vaccinated, has been removed to the Swiss cottage hospital and the house placed under quarantine.

Mrs. McDougall and Miss McDougall, widow and daughter of the late Alfred McDougall, solicitor to the provincial treasury, are suing the Ontario government to recover $10,000, the amount of the insurance policy on the life of Mr. McDougall. This morning the files, affidavits, at Osgoode Hall, setting forth that they made assignments of the policies to the late government, on the understanding that Mr. McDougall would not be prosecuted for the alleged defalcations.

THE KING WELL.

Has Gone Up to London From Sandringham.

London, Jan. 20.—King Edward journeyed from Sandringham to London, yesterday, and went to a theatre last evening. He will go to Windsor, today. His majesty appeared to be in good health and spirits.

Marshall Field's Humble Start.

Marshall Field's first employer, Davis, a merchant in Pittsfield, Mass., pronounced the man who became the greatest of merchants, and one of the city's richest men, a flat failure, and discharged him from his service when a boy of seventeen.

Marshall Field, nevertheless, was always proud of his experience in Pittsfield as salesman, and the mistake judgment of John Davis made Field a careful man in judging other men.

Field's first job was small in the common eyes of the world as compared with his later work, but he was wise enough always to know that it was the most important thing he had to do at that time.

And as he did that well he moulded his character, opened his life to opportunity, and made himself master of fate.

WEALTH UNEARTHED.

Had Money Aggregating Over $3,000.

London, Jan. 20.—Curious facts were brought to light at three inquests yesterday on persons who had been thought to be poverty-stricken, but were found to possess considerable sums of money.

At Balcombe, Sussex, a bachelor named Stedman, who had been thought to be poverty-stricken, was found to have $45 hidden away in his room and $630 in the bank.

A Grimby pavement artist, who had travelled about the streets on crutches and presented a pitiable appearance, died in the Louth workhouse, and eighty sovereigns were discovered in various parts of the old suit he wore.

Ann Laws, a Sutherland old maid, who had frequently accepted charitable help from her neighbors, was found to have bank and building deposit receipts worth $2,000 stowed away in her room.

Daniel Gallery's Vindication.

Montreal, Jan. 20.—The other day Hon. Judges Davidson and Robidoux declared that Alderman Daniel Gallery, M.P., for St. Ann's, was guilty of corrupt practices and deprived him of federal political rights for seven years. On Friday the alderman had his revenge, as he publishes a splendid requisition, headed by Sir George A. Drummond, with Sir Hugh Montagu Allan, who declares they will support Alderman Gallery for another term at the City hall.

Friday evening the staff of the Eastern Ontario Dairy School, presented to J. F. Singleton, an instrument of milk testing, who has been lately married, with a handsome marble clock, James Stonehouse read an appropriate address and J. H. Echlin made the presentation.

VERY UNFORTUNATE!

But the Whig Kept Very Quiet About It.

Carleton Place Canadian.
A Kingston editor, as you have seen in ten thousand papers, was robbed, last week, of $16. It was the most sensational item appearing in many a day. There is not an editor in the land who has not sat up each night ever since with one eye and two ears on guard. It was unfortunate that such a revelation should have been made into the resources of the editorial kingdom, but we beg to assure all burglars that this is an exceptional case, the Kingston man having good fortune away beyond even the most glib-edged aspirations of his contemporaries.

The Sympathies of Editors.

This is how the editors sought to assuage the grief of a fellow-sufferer: Brockville Recorder Kingstons has the meaneast kind of thieves. They broke into the house of Managing Editor Elcott, of the Whig, and stole $16. A note in this could not find the amount of money in any Brockville editor's house could certainly qualify without difficulty in the occult science.

Pieton Gazette: A report is current that a great editor of Kingston was robbed of $16. Service him right. Newspaper men, grip or tory, have no business to have so large an amount of money concealed on their person.

St. Catharines Standard: The managing editor of the Kingston Whig was robbed of $16 a few nights ago. The question has been aptly asked, "Where did he get it all?"

Hamilton Spectator: A newspaper man in Kingston was robbed of $16 real money. The editor of the Kingston Whig has been robbed of $16, "Where did the money come from?"

Ottawa Citizen: A shameless lack of consideration by Kingston burglars. Hamilton Spectator: After all that talk of a pure election in Kingston, somebody started a grit editor for $16 to bribe the constituency. Luckily it was stolen from him before he got his work done.

Brockville Recorder: That respectably formed anti-corruption tribunal of Kingston's should at once investigate the story of the editor who says he was robbed of $16. If the case were not sub-judice, the Recorder would be inclined to say the yarn is preposterous.

The fire and light committee visited the fire station, Friday afternoon, and found everything in a satisfactory condition.
