GREAT VICTORY

Mr. Pense Elected by an Increased Majority—Speeches in Ontario Hall—A Big Procession—Greatest Victory in Ontario.

After one of the most remarkable political campaigns ever waged in the province of Ontario, Mr. Pense was yesterday, re-elected as member for Kingston in the legislature. To win a bye-election against a strong government, in a close constituency like Kingston, was considered by outside politicians as a high impossibility, but that is what Mr. Pense has done, and the election goes on record as the most remarkable in the annals of Ontario politics.

Returns By Subdivisions. The following are the official returns as announced by Returning Officer Dawson: Subdivisions. McIntyre Pense desire Mr. Pense as their representative at Toronto.

The total vote polled was just 300 less than at the general election a year ago. As the manhood suffrage registration was over that numberless, the vote was remarkably large, and showed that most of the voters went to the polls, although there was no organized system for conveying them in vehicles.

An analysis of the vote of yesterday as compared with that of a year ago shows that Mr. Pense lost five votes in Sydenham ward; lost seventeen in Ontario; gained ten in St. Lawrence; gained five in Cataract; gained five in Frontenac; lost eleven in Victoria; and lost twenty-two in Portsmouth. Mr. McIntyre's gains and losses can be figured from the above statement.

Both sides seemed confident of victory all day, and it became difficult to form an unbiased opinion. The vote came in slower than usual, and it was thought it would be small, but between four and five o'clock, there was a constant stream of voters into the polling booths of several wards. The size of the vote was quite a surprise, but most satisfactory.

There was, perhaps, never so large a crowd gathered in and around the Whig office between five and six o'clock, to hear the returns. The first poll to respond was No. 6, which gave Pense a majority of twenty-one. When all but No. 10 Cataract and No. 2 Sydenham had been heard from, Pense was fifteen ahead. It was thought, that No. 10 would surely give McIntyre a big majority, as it did the last time, but, instead, he got only seven. Then came No. 2, with a majority of twenty-eight for Pense, and the election was won. The office rang with the cheers of the joyful crowd. Both inside and outside there were scenes of tremendous enthusiasm over the victory snatched from the Whitney government candidate, with all the influences working in his favor. Inside, when the cheering began to subside,

RECALL THE PAST.

Honor the Memory of King Charles I.

London, Jan. 30.—Two hundred and fifty years ago, to-day, King Charles I was executed, and, as customary, the various Legitimist and Jacobite leagues and orders celebrated the anniversary by holding memorial meetings and depositing flowers at the foot of the statue of Charles I. on Trafalgar Square. A largely attended service was held in the morning in St. Margaret Patten, Rood Lane. The officiating clergy was attired in red vestments, this being symbolical of the blood of the martyr. The service was almost identical with that of the Roman Catholic church, except that the prayers and responses were in English instead of Latin.

As has been the custom for several years, ever since the too ardent admirer of the martyr king had placed a wreath with an inscription, containing seditious sentiments, at the foot of the statue, the wreaths and other floral gifts were first submitted for approval to the commissioner of woods and forests. As in former years there was a wreath from Edinburgh, bearing the inscription: "Sacred to the memory of King Charles the First, beloved by his rebellious subjects at Whitehall, January 30th, 1649." Among the wreaths and other floral gifts sent in commemoration of the day were such from the Royal Oak Club, Edinburgh; the Parliament Club, the Legitimist Order of St. Germain; the Order of the White Rose; the Thames Valley Legitimist Club; the White Cockade Legitimist Club, Holywell, Huntingdonshire; and other societies.

THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT. Will Not Assemble Before 19th—Court Mourning.

London, Jan. 30.—In consequence of the death of the king of Denmark, the British Parliament, the official and other engagements in which the British court is concerned, will be postponed or cancelled, although nothing affecting their arrangements has yet been given out.

It is said that the opening of parliament cannot take place February 19th, according to the original programme, but it may be opened by a royal commission, as in the latter years of Queen Victoria's reign.

DIED IN ITS MOTHER'S ARMS. A Sad Sight Meets a Welcoming Father.

Toronto, Jan. 30.—Frederick Templeman met the C.P.R. train from Montreal, last night, to welcome his wife and six children on their arrival. When he was horrified to see confronted with the body of his ten-month-old daughter. The child had died, in her mother's arms, a few minutes before the train reached the city. Templeman has been in Toronto only a few months, and is employed at the woman as baggage-man.

Woman Killed By Ex-Coachman. Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 29.—Mrs. C. A. Canfield, wife of a millionaire oil operator and prominent in society circles of Los Angeles, was shot and most instantly killed last night, while sitting upon the front porch of her home, by Morris Buck, a former family coachman, who is in custody. According to his story, Buck demanded the payment of a large sum of money, which she said was due him for services. She ordered him off the porch and a servant started toward him. Buck then drew a pistol. Mrs. Canfield seized the weapon and attempted to wrest it from Buck. During the scuffle, the trigger was pulled and the bullet struck Mrs. Canfield in the breast, and she fell back on the porch.

Anniversary of Rudolf's Death. Vienna, Jan. 30.—The seventeenth anniversary of the mysterious and tragic death of Crown Prince Rudolf was observed, to-day, by masses in the palace chapel and in the Capuchin church in the vault of which the emperor and the members of the imperial royal family visited the tomb and deposited flowers on the sarcophagus. Floral gifts were sent from several of the European courts, among them a beautiful wreath from Emperor William.

Banwell To Be Extradited. Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 27.—Edwin St. George Banwell, the defaulting Toronto bank teller, who was arrested here January 11th, after a long chase, was brought up before the court, to-day. The presiding magistrate granted the application for the prisoner's extradition to Canada. Under the law he is granted fifteen days' grace, during which the governor will sign the warrant for his removal.

IS A DEAD ISSUE

MANCHESTER MANUFACTURER ON CHAMBERLAINISM.

Edward Chiswell, Although a Preference Protectionist, Thinks the Election Has Settled the Question—Cause of Balfour's Defeat.

Montreal, Jan. 30.—Edward Chiswell of Manchester, a director of Middleton, Jones & Co., the greatest manufacturer of cotton velvets in the world, in an interview here said that the cause of Balfour's defeat was "primarily the fiscal issue unquestionably." "It is impossible," he said, "to induce the workingman in Great Britain to see that protection is not going to do him harm. I believe the Chamberlain movement to have been killed by the elections, and that it is now as dead as the silver issue in the United States after Mr. Bryan's last defeat."

Mr. Chiswell is himself a preference protection man.

CHARGES AGAINST BASTEDO. Look Rather Bad at the Present Time.

Toronto, Jan. 30.—The investigation into the charges brought against S. T. Bastedo, deputy minister of fisheries, was continued, to-day, when more instances were brought to light of pages removed from the office letter book. In some cases the pages were entirely missing, others were found in Mr. Bastedo's private letter book. Another charge was that Mr. Bastedo had made an improper use of his power to issue licenses, in the interests of the liberal party, and a number of letters were quoted in support of this. It was charged, also, that the deputy minister had authorized and illegal payments, one of these being the payment of two days additional pay, $3 to Guardian C. H. Curtis. It came out in course of enquiry, this morning, that Duncan Bole was a defaulter to the department, since 1899, when he collected $40 for angling permits, and failed to remit.

DOMINION MILLS COMPANY. Ordered Wound Up By Justice Anglin.

Toronto, Jan. 30.—The Dominion Mills company, Bracebridge, of which Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, M.P.E., was president, was ordered to be wound up by Justice Anglin, on an order given at one o'clock, this afternoon. The company had assigned yesterday, to Ewan McKenzie, the winding-up order, and presented on the application of the Guelph Carpet Mills company. The assets are placed at $75,000 to $80,000 on plant and material, and $25,000 in unpaid stock. The liabilities are $140,000, principally owing to the Crown Bank on secured paper and $30,000 to unsecured creditors. The object of the winding-up order is to endeavor to sell the property as a going concern.

FARMER'S HEAVY LOSS. By Fire Two Miles From Mountain Station.

Mountain, Ont., Jan. 30.—Fire which broke out on the premises of Thomas Robinson, about two miles from Mountain Station, destroyed all out-buildings, together with thirteen cows, eleven hogs, one horse, his entire supply of hay and grain, wagons, sleighs and farm machinery, not a thing being saved. Mr. Robinson was visiting a neighbor when the fire broke out. It is understood that there was no insurance.

TORREY AND ALEXANDER. Will Try to Convert the Capital.

Toronto, Jan. 30.—A few weeks ago it was announced that the work of Torrey and Mr. Alexander, in Canada, would be limited to Toronto. A pressing invitation has been received from Ottawa, for the month of June, and it is now likely that the swamplands will spend a couple of weeks in that city.

Lives Lost In Wreck. Spokane, Wn., Jan. 30.—Great Northern Oriental Limited, No. 11 west-bound passenger train, No. 2, east-bound, collided one mile west of Columbia Falls, Mont., last night. Superintendent O'Neill has gone to the scene of the wreck, from Great Falls, with a wrecking outfit and physicians. It is known that at least four lives were lost including a fireman on each train.

During the month of February there will be a big sale of hot water bottles and fountain syringes, face bags and bulb syringes at wholesale prices at Gibson's Red Cross drug store.
