No woman can be strong and healthy unless the kidneys are well, and regular in their action. When the kidneys are il the whole body is ill, for the poisons which the kidneys ought to have filtered out of the blood are left in the system.

The female constitution is naturally more subject to kidney disease than a man's; and what is more, a women's work

How many women have you heard say: "My, how my back aches!" Do you know that backache is one of the first signs of kidney trouble? It is, and should be attended to immediately. Other symptoms are frequent thirst, scanty, thick, cloudy or highly colored urine, burning sensation when urinating, frequent urination, puffing under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, floating specks before the eyes, etc. These symptoms if not taken in time and cured at once, will cause years of terrible kidney suffering. All these symptoms, and in fact, these diseases may be cured by the

If you will look over that list you will see that six of the eleven wardens have been back men, so that according to Mr. Pringle, the honor should go to the front if the understanding, which he says, existed, is to be carried out. Another thing I want to point out is that the township of Pittsburg, which is I think the second largest in Frontenac, has not had the honor of the wardenship since the time of the late Peter Graham, that is for nearly thirty-five years, and the township of Hinchinbrooke, in which Mr. Black resides, had the wardenship in 1901. It is to be expected that bye-elections, where the is a fairly even division of party strength, will go to the government of the day. The Whitney government made a desperate effort to win, the day-four cabinet ministers were brought in to address the electors-the influence of the government institution was used, and the proposal, as a bait, of two educational institutions, was held out to encourage the electors to support the candidate of the powers that be. SINGER KILLS HOTEL MAN

Ordered From Place, She Stabs. . Him in Heart. Paris, Feb. 1.-There was a tragic scene in a hotel in the Rue Lebouteux this week. Among the guests were Louise de Vaucoux, a cafe concert singer, who had arrived from Rio de Janeiro with valuable jewels. Louise's conduct did not commend itself to the other people staying in the hotel. Complaints were lodged against her by the other guests. The climax came portant place that the overdress fills Thursday evening. The singer returned and arrested her. She pretended that she had no recollection of what had happened; but the knife with which she had stabbed the unfortunate hotel keeper was found under the bed and seized as a proof of her crime. This cafe concert singer has, it appears, a sufficiently dramatic history It is related that a Swiss, through love of her, flung himself over the Pont de l'Europe and that she was the cause of two Brazilians attempting to commit suicide. Finally she attempted to kul a banker at Rio Janeiro. Apparently he is of a very forgiving disposition, for he recently sent money to her to enable her to return to South America. The anvil used by John Bunyan at his trade at Elstow was sold in London recently for £255. It bears the inscription cut into its side, "J. Bunyan, Helstow, 1647."
