STOMACH ON THE BRAIN.

What if a Man Gain the Whole World, and Lose His Appetite?

The man with a well-behaved stomach never thinks about it. He eats what he likes and likes what he eats. He knows he enjoys it, because he knows he has a stomach that will easily digest it. All things look good to him; he will sit close to the table, and with a merry twinkle in his eye and a world-peace expression, he will "start" on the delicious meal before him.

But the man with the bad, brash, gurgly stomach, is the man who is always thinking about it. He can seldom eat what he most likes, and seldom likes what he eats. His stomach worries him before meals, after meals and between meals. It is on his brain. It robs him of his cheer and interest with his daily work. Around him is a dark spirit which presses itself forward in his thoughts, crying: "I am agony. I am disgust. I am nausea. I am sickness, languor, worry. I am convulsed in quick lurches and pappy feet, and nourished by gully meals. I rob brains of their force and bodies of their life. I steal away nerve and vim. I bring heart disease and apoplexy. I make the world a pit of weariness and darkness. I am woe, I am death. I am dyspepsia. But yet, I bring also hope, light and future gifts, because by my gloomy presence I give you warning and a chance to escape me."

This is a bad dream, but it is the daily dream of the dyspeptic. If it were not for the white we couldn't tell the black. If it were not for the dyspepsia, we couldn't know the joy, the happiness of a well-ordered digestion. All the world looks bright to a man of good health, and good health is impossible without a good, hardy stomach. And any sick or weak stomach can be made a good, strong one by just taking something which will digest your food for you, instead of letting your tired stomach do it. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the most effective little tablets in the world for this very thing. If you feel bloated after eating, or you have nausea, aversion of food, brash, irritable, sour stomach, heartburn or dyspepsia, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will stop it, because one grain of an ingredient of these tablets will digest 3,000 grains of food.

Your stomach is overworked. Let it take a rest. You're not yourself when you have a bad stomach. These tablets will do the work that the stomach has to do and make you feel bright, think clearly and give you ambition and power to concentrate your attention on your work. You'll feel good. You should always have a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets on your dining table. They will make you get all the good possible out of everything you eat, and you'll enjoy it.

Is Not Dictating.

Washington, Feb. 5.—President Roosevelt is not trying to dictate to the congress what it shall do or not do regarding railroad rate legislation. He has not delivered to the senate or to the house any sort of an ultimatum on the subjects of legislation and has not held over the head of congress the "threat of an extraordinary session," if he does not obtain the legislation for which he is hoping.

DEATH THEIR FATE!

HIGH BORN WOMEN BREAK MOSLEM LAW.

Flee From Constantinople—Elder Whitened Her Hair and Traveled as the Mother of Her Sister.

Belgrade, Feb. 5.—A sensation has been caused in Belgrade by an attempt that is being made to force two beautiful Turkish women, who have arrived there to return to Constantinople.

Their father is Nouri Bey, the well known Turkish foreign secretary, and they fled from his house so that the elder of the two, who is suffering from phthisis, might enter a sanitarium.

The elder daughter whitened her hair, and accompanied by a French governess, travelled as the mother of her sister. They intended to reach Vienna, but when their flight was noticed their father telegraphed to Belgrade, and they were obliged by the Ottoman representative in the Serbian capital to leave the train on arriving there.

At present they are lodged in the Grand Hotel, and they declare that their surrender to the Turkish authorities would mean certain death, as they have broken the Moslem laws.

A number of prominent Serbian ladies have started a lively agitation in their behalf. The fugitives are accomplished girls, speaking English, French, and German, and are excellent musicians.

What To Teach Your Daughter.

Teach her that 100 cents make one dollar.

Teach her how to wear a simple, modest dress and to wear it like a queen.

Teach her how to sew on buttons, darn stockings and mend gloves.

Teach her to dress for health and comfort, as well as for appearance.

Teach her to arrange the parlor and library.

Teach her to love and cultivate flowers.

Teach her to have a place for everything and to put everything in its place.

Teach her to say no and mean it, and to say yes and to stick to it.

Teach her to have nothing to do with intemperate and dissolute young men.

Teach her to pay regard to the character of those she would associate with and not to how much money they have.

Safeguard the Children!

Against Croup and Colds by Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine

Always Keeping at Hand

There are some reasons why Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is the most suitable treatment obtainable for croup.

It is pleasant to the taste, and children like to take it.

It is composed of simple ingredients of proven value in the cure of throat and lung troubles.

It is positively free from anything of an injurious nature, and can be used with perfect safety with the smallest child, so long as directions are followed.

It promptly relieves even the most severe chest colds and brings about a thorough cure.

You are not experimenting when you use Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, for it is the standby in thousands of homes, where time and again it has proven its exceptional worth.

When you make up your mind to safeguard your children by keeping Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine in the home, do not allow your dealer to persuade you into taking something on which he has a larger profit.

Mrs. Wm. Ball, Bracebridge, Ont.: "My three youngest boys had the whooping cough this winter and we could get nothing to help them until I sent for Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It arrested the coughs at once and they kept right on improving until they were cured at the cost of one dollar. That was not a large bill for so dangerous and distressing an ailment."

In the hour of emergency, when croup or colds seize your child, the cheap substitutes will fail you, but Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine never disappoints. 25c. a bottle, at all dealers.
