CLEARS WAY FOR WEDDING

Vatican Secretary of State May Perform Ceremony. Rome, Feb. 20.-Pope Pius X just sent a letter to the King England in which he approves King Alfonso's choice of a bride, hanks the English royal family their ready consent for the princess' conversion to the Church of Rome. This letter shows that all the obstacles to Ena's conversion, have now been removed. Some fear was felt here that the English Imperial Pro- Announcement in Crawford Street testant Federation's protest to the king would hamper the negotiations with the vatican, but it is now thought that the pope's letter will prevent any further opposition. The pope will be represented at the royal marriage by his own secretar; of state, whose dignity will add much to the solemnity of the occasion, especially if, as is proposed, he conducts the marriage ceremony in the name of the pope. But the papal nuncio at Madrid and the primate of Spain both claim the right to perform the ceremony, and the pope has left it to the Spanish king to choose Pius X will give the couple a mag niticent present.
