DIED ON MONDAY.

William Corbett Passed Away After Brief Illness. One of Kingston's oldest and most respected citizens, passed away at his home, 411 Princess street, at an early hour on Monday morning, after two months' illness. Mr. Corbett, was born in this city sixty-eight years ago, and has lived here since. Some years ago he conducted a hardware business

Shoes Stolen.

Several cases of shoes stolen have been reported within the past week, where skaters on the lake have left only to return to find them gone. It is no joke to have to walk home on one's skates! The police have been trying to nab the culprits, thought to be youngsters, but as yet have not succeeded in their efforts.
