

Dyeing-Day
Is no longer an affliction to the hands.
Nor a weariness to the cleaner of the kettles.
For there is a stainless dye obtainable in the new home dye, DY-O-LA.
Of its sixteen colors, fourteen leave no stain on the hand or boiler. Green and purple are the only ones that do. Mrs. D. H. Chisholm, St. Andrew's, N.S., writes: "Dy-o-la is brighter and cleaner than other dyes and so little work." Mrs. G. A. Larmour, Iroquois, Ont., says: "Dy-o-la is easier to use, and does not soil the hands."
Ask your druggist for a package. As Miss G. Dorgan, Nail Pond, P.E.I., says in a recent letter: "Dy-o-la is the best dye on the market." She adds: "I have dyed mixed goods with entire satisfaction. Not a spot or streak in goods when dyed."
One package—to dye silk, wool, anything—costs 10c.

THE STANLEY CUP
HISTORY OF THE STRUGGLES FOR IT.
Queen's and Montreal Were the First to Contend For It—Ottawa Has Held It Success-fully For Three Years.

Toronto Telegram. The Stanley cup by the Ottawas against Queen's University will be the eighth time for the champions to defend the trophy since they came into possession of it on March 10th, 1903.
In defence of the trophy, Ottawa has had to do battle with seven different teams, each the champion of its respective league, and that in the fifteen games played only twice have the capital's representatives encountered defeat.
Ottawa came into possession of the trophy through the winning of the championship of the Canadian Amateur Hockey League series of two deciding matches with Montreal Victorias in the spring of 1896. Ottawa won the championship of the league from the Vics with a total of nine goals to one. The Stanley cup, which had been held by the Montreal Hockey Club, going with it. These matches were played on March 7th and 10th.
The first challenge considered by the trustees was that of the Portage Thistles, champions of the Manitoba and North-Western Hockey League. On March 12th and 16th Rat Portage met defeat by scores of 6-2 and 4-2 respectively.
The following winter the hockey season in the capital was opened with a Stanley cup series, the Winnipeg Hockey Club being the challenging team on this season. The visitors were defeated in the first match on December 30th, 9-1, but in the second attempt they turned the tables, the "score" being 6-2. In the decisive battle Ottawa was again victorious in a close, hard fight, 2-0.
Toronto Marlboros were the next. Having won out in the O.H.A. cham-pionship race, they went east, and on February 23rd and 25th were defeated by Ottawa 6-3 and 11-2.
When Ottawa left the C.A.H.L. and entered the Federal Hockey League, the Stanley cup went with them, and it was arranged that the Wanderers and Ottawa should play off for the league championship and the trophy. Only one match was played in Mon-treal, on March 2nd, and a draw, 5-5, was the result. Owing to differences arising between the respective clubs, the remaining games of the series were not played.
The final challenge for 1904 was re-ceived from Brandon. Brandon was defeated in successive games, March 9th and 11th, the scores being 6-2 and 9-3.
Then came the farcical games with Dawson City early last year. The Klondikers, after the most exten-sive and unique trip ever made, were routed on January 13th and 16th by the most decisive scores ever recorded in an attempt to lift the cup, 9-2 and 22-2.
Probably the greatest bid ever made for the coveted silverware took place last March, when Rat Portage This-les came down from the west. The first game was played March 7th, when the Ottawas were skating clean off their feet and defeated 9-2. It looked a fifty-to-one chance the cup would leave Ottawa. On March 9th the sec-ond game was played. Frank McGee and "Billy" Gilmour filled the vacan-cy on the line, and the Ottawas won a great victory, 4-2. The final game was played Saturday, the 14th. It was the greatest struggle ever seen on ice, and not till three minutes from full time did the Ottawas nose out win-ners, 5-4.
The total goals scored in each series are as follows: Ottawa 10, Rat Por-tage 4; Ottawa 13, Winnipeg 7; Ot-tawa 17, Marlboros 5; Ottawa 5, Wan-dorers 5; Ottawa 15, Brandon 6; Ot-tawa 32, Dawson 4; Ottawa 11, Rat Por-tage 15. Totals, Ottawa 103, chal-lengers 46.

Thus in the twelve games which have been played in its defence since winning the trophy, Ottawa has won 13 and lost 2. The overwhelming total of 103 goals have been scored against its opponents, while the team has been scored on but 46 times.
The cup was presented in 1893, by Lord Stanley, then Governor-General, to the Montreal team, then cham-pions of the Canadian Amateur Hockey League. In 1894, Osgoode Hall chal-lenged, but before the C.A.H.A. quad-ruplet tie was decided, there was no left so there was no game. In 1895 a similar issue threatened, so the trustees ordered Montreal, who had held the cup since 1893, to defend it against Queen's College. This was the first match for the cup.

Up to 1897 a single game decided the play. Since then it has been the best in three.
The early struggles for the trophy are briefly noted in the following list:
1890, defenders, Montreal, 6; chal-lengers, Queen's, 1.
1896, defenders, Montreal, 6; chal-lengers, Winnipeg Vics, 5.
1897, defenders, Montreal Vics, 6; challengers, Ottawa, 2.
1899, defenders, Montreal Vics, 2; challengers, Winnipeg Vics, 1.
1899, defenders, Shamrocks, 6; chal-lengers, Queen's, 2.
1900, defenders, Shamrocks, 11; chal-lengers, Winnipeg Vics, 10.
1900, defenders, Shamrocks, 21; chal-lengers, Halifax, 2.
1901, defenders, Shamrocks, 4; chal-lengers, Winnipeg Vics, 6.
1902, defenders, Winnipeg Vics, 10; challengers, Toronto Wellingtons, 6.
1902, defenders, Winnipeg Vics, 2; challengers, Montreal, 7.
1903, defenders, Montreal, 16; chal-lengers, Winnipeg, 8.

Won By The Wanderers.
Wanderers, 7; Aberdens, 1.
In the City League game at the cover-est rink, last night, in one of the best hockey matches of the season, before a crowd of some three hundred spectators, the Wanderers ran all over the Aberdens by a full score of seven to one. Ultimately with the Wanderer victory, the league ac-complished its object—to bring out Kingston men of the calibre to play on a senior O.H.A. team.
The first half was too much in the winning team's favor to prove excit-ing and when the time sounded the green and red had scored but one goal, Williams doing the trick in a swift, clean shot from the defence line. For the blue and white, Ashley shot two in goal, Vanhorn one, and Ains-ley, two. The score stood five to one for the Wanderers.
The Aberdens got things in the sec-ond half, and came off the defence line keeping the game more in the centre of the ice, and from then until the last five minutes, the play was close and fast. The losing aggregation put up hard fighting, and Williams was playing in goal, and keeping the puck out of the net in a skillful way, but two minutes before the finish, Ainsley shot a goal, closely followed by a repetition of the trick by Potter. The ice was in good condition. The line up was:
Aberdens—Lumb, goal; Dumphy, point; Williams, cover; Bernier, rover; Monriell, centre; Hackett, Derry, wings.
Referee—Marty Walsh, proved satis-factory.
Ainsley put up a fine hockey game for a beginner, it being his first match in the covered rink. He is a strong player, and everyone predicts a bright hockey future for him.
For the "winners," Vanhorn, "Sen-ator" Powell, and Cowworthy, old time and well-known puck chasers were at their best, and Bernier, Williams and Hackett, shone out as the star players for the Aberdens.

THE SPORT REVIEW
LINE-UP OF THE QUEEN'S AND OTTAWA TEAMS.
This is Queen's Third Challenge for the Stanley Cup—General Notes on Various Sports.
The Queen's and Ottawa hockey teams that will meet in Ottawa to-night in the first of the Stanley cup matches will be as follows:
By way of comparison, Count, the goal-keepers equal, though Mills is the most experienced. At point McGee is heavy, but no quicker or trickier than Macdonnell. Palford at cover-point is a better player than Sutherland, but the latter can be depended upon to do steady work. McGee is an old ex-perienced player and faster than Crawford, who is but a youth. Walsh is a better player than Westwick, or any other rover that Ottawa has. Richardson has nothing to learn from Alf Smith in speed or stick handling and Holson should be able to stay with the other Smith.
Queen's is a purely intercollegiate team, which could be strengthened by the addition of a couple of Kingston players, but it will stand or fall with its present seven as defenders.
In Ottawa, the general feeling is that the Ottawas will double the score in the two matches. Queen's support-ers will likely be looking for such offers.

This is the third time Queen's have challenged for the Stanley cup. In 1895 they were the first challengers and were defeated in Montreal by the champion Montreal team by 5 goals to 1. In 1899, Queen's again chal-lenged, and lost to the Shamrocks in Montreal by 6 to 2. In both those matches, Queen's had to play under Quebec rules, which were different from those of the O.H.A.
The Whig has a member of its staff in Ottawa to cover the matches, and will give full reports.

McBride Challenges Ellerbeck.
Buffalo, N.Y., Feb. 25.—(To the Sporting Editor of the Whig.) I will write, and I would like to arrange an-other match with Ellerbeck, on the same conditions as before. I am will-ing to back myself that I can throw him three times within an hour. I am leaving now for the west and will be back about the 1st of April. I would like to wrestle him or any other Canadian wrestler then. I will wrestle any of them. If they take me up please drop me a line by return mail. I will you my forfeit by return mail. I will be in good shape then, as I intend to have several matches when I am west. I am willing to wrestle in the Grand Opera House on a percentage or for a purse and a side bet. If there is any thing "doing," please let me know.—JOHN McBRIDE.

General Notes On Sports.
Two mighty men are coming from Paris to wrestle anyone in America, Karabounaf (a Russian) and Rouman-gin (a native Parisian).
In the last four years the number of English thoroughbred stallions im-porting into Italy has increased from forty-four to seventy-five, the number of pure Arabs from four to nine, and the number of English mares from 274 to 350.
The town of Yarmouth, England, holds race meetings of its own, and in two years the sum of $9,500 has been cleared over and above all ex-penses; betterments, etc. It was de-cided a few days ago to apply $2,800 to the race fund.
The Canadian friends of Noah Brus-so, the former Galt lacrosse player, who has adopted the ring name of "Tommy" Burns, will be pleased to learn of his success in California, where he decisively beat Marty Hart, to whom Jim Jeffries handed the heavyweight championship.
Hockey and lacrosse are pastimes that continue to grow in favor at the universities. The Cantabs recent-ly beat the Southgate hockey team 2-0, while Oxford drew 2-2, when in opposition to Southampton. At lacrosse, however, Oxford failed, when visiting Hampden by a score of 7 and Lee defeated the Cantabs 7 goals to 4.
Before the season is finished the circuit-makers have arranged a new layout for the professional league for next year. The Canadian Soo, Calumet and Pittsburg are not calculated on for next season, and Chicago, Du-luth and St. Paul are declared to be the places where new teams will be established. The Canadian Soo has run behind several thousands of dol-lars in its brief career in the hockey world, and demonstrated that was a foregone conclusion that the game could not possibly be made a profit-able venture there.

Wanderers, 7; Aberdens, 1.
In the City League game at the cover-est rink, last night, in one of the best hockey matches of the season, before a crowd of some three hundred spectators, the Wanderers ran all over the Aberdens by a full score of seven to one. Ultimately with the Wanderer victory, the league ac-complished its object—to bring out Kingston men of the calibre to play on a senior O.H.A. team.
The first half was too much in the winning team's favor to prove excit-ing and when the time sounded the green and red had scored but one goal, Williams doing the trick in a swift, clean shot from the defence line. For the blue and white, Ashley shot two in goal, Vanhorn one, and Ains-ley, two. The score stood five to one for the Wanderers.
The Aberdens got things in the sec-ond half, and came off the defence line keeping the game more in the centre of the ice, and from then until the last five minutes, the play was close and fast. The losing aggregation put up hard fighting, and Williams was playing in goal, and keeping the puck out of the net in a skillful way, but two minutes before the finish, Ainsley shot a goal, closely followed by a repetition of the trick by Potter. The ice was in good condition. The line up was:
Aberdens—Lumb, goal; Dumphy, point; Williams, cover; Bernier, rover; Monriell, centre; Hackett, Derry, wings.
Referee—Marty Walsh, proved satis-factory.
Ainsley put up a fine hockey game for a beginner, it being his first match in the covered rink. He is a strong player, and everyone predicts a bright hockey future for him.
For the "winners," Vanhorn, "Sen-ator" Powell, and Cowworthy, old time and well-known puck chasers were at their best, and Bernier, Williams and Hackett, shone out as the star players for the Aberdens.
