Queen's made themselves favorites with the Ottawa public at once, as they started into the match with all the vim college teams are noted for, and the conclusion of playing time found them battling just as hard for the final goals. The visitors showed good goal-tend in Mills, and in Macdonnell, their point man, they have a long rangy player who at times did spectacular work. Sutherland at cover is not so good as his mates, while on combination which secured Ottawas the the forward line Walsh and Richardson carried off the honors. He saved many a goal this way and Meldrum had to warn him. Once he went to the fence for kneeling in his net and stop ping a sure goal. Mills has signed to catch for the New York Giants the coming season. He will make good right off the bat. The way he dropped his stick and speared those shots from Alf. Smith's club stamps him as a backstop of the Schrickengost order.

The Ottawa correspondent of the Montreal Star makes this comment upon the first match : The students dayed a good game, and have any amount of ability, as the fact that they were able to tally seven times against the cup holders proves. Where they were beaten was only in experi nce and condition. Many times durmg the match they were brilliant to a degree, but they, after all, were sim ply a team of clever boys playing them much, they had all the ardor of the university man, and never seemed to be aware that they were beaten. Right to the end they pegged away and were rewarded by two goals, when the match appeared to be fiorts, but it was evident that in close quarters they were out of They looked too young and are not destined to become famous as a hockey player, and if they can keep that team together for a couple of years the Stanley cup may yet find a hockey. The puck was ever too far in front of them, and they lost it repeatedly through this."
