In the course of the evening the Duke of Devonshire found himself engaged in a game of baccarat with a gentleman of very distinguished appearance and polished manners, whose name he did not know. The gray streaks of morning were breaking through the windows of Almack's patable a ruined man; his opponent had not only captured all his ready cash, but he held the duke's I. O. U's to an amount that mortgaged the income of his estates for years to come. At that time the Duke of Devonshire was commander of the Cold Stream Guards, the immediate body-guard of the king. As he left Almack's he wandered about St. James' Park till it was time to report at the palace. As he entered the Bird-cage walk, he saw a tall guardsman, whose face was said : "Haven't we met before?" "We have," replied the guardsman. "Where?" asked the duke. "At Almack's," said the guard. "When?" said the duke : "Last night at baccarat." Pefore him stood the man who had swept away his magnificant fortune and almost turned him out upon the world a royal beggar. Twenty-five years ago it was difficult to sell spring wheat flour for pastry at any price. People didn't want it-they were using soft, winter wheat flour, and saw no reason for changing.

But hard wheat flour was persistently pushed and prejudice has been overcome. The women tried it, succeeded with it and appreciated it .- To-day hard wheat flour is the favorite for pastry as well as for bread.

The flour that is doing the most for the reputation of hard wheat flour is the brand known as
