we blessed with eight children, five girls and three boys, all of whom are living, except one girl, Mabel, who died when quite young. The children are Mrs. Jonas Garrison, of Parma; Mrs. T. A. Chouteau, of Woodville; John A. of Thorpe; Hiram, of Assiniboia, N. W.T.; Stewart L. of Sarnia, and two daughters, Ethel and Eva at home. He was a Presbyterian in faith, and for some time previous had said that all was well with him, and somewhat exceptionally bright, and his mind was as firm as it was for years though he was the ripe age of eighty-two years and nine months. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. Boyce, B. A., M.D., of Conway, on Thursday, March 16th, at St. Lawrence church, and were largely attended. The remains were taken to Naperville, and placed in the Eastern vault to await interment when the burial will take place in the old family plot in the McDevall Presbyterian cemetery at Sandhurst.

DON'T NEGLECT A COLD. Neglected Colds Lead to Consumption.

MISS LILLIAN POWELL, Aurora, Ind.

Miss Lillian Powell, Aurora, Ind., writes: "Last spring I caught a severe cold from getting my feet wet and being out in the rain, and in a day I had a most miserable cold, but I neglected it, thinking it would soon leave me. But it hung to me for two weeks, when I felt something must be done, as my condition was serious. I had heard so much about Pe-ru-na and in its praise that I bought a bottle and began taking it regularly. I was gratified to find that in a week the cold and cough was broken up, and three weeks' treatment completely restored my usual good health." -Lillian Powell.

How Consumption Develops.

Nine cases of consumption out of ten occur in this way: A person catches cold. The cold is not properly cured, and another cold is caught. This cold is dilly-dallied with, either by no treatment whatever or some treatment that is ineffectual, and the cold continues. Then another cold is caught and a cough develops. Cough syrups are resorted to, but they give only temporary relief. By and by the patient gets tired of taking medicines and cough syrups and gives up in despair. The cold continues to develop and the cough grows worse. Then the doctor is called in, only to discover that the patient is in the first stages of consumption. It was just in this way that Miss Powell, of Aurora, Ind., became sick. She caught a cold, and not considering it serious, neglected it, thinking as many others do, that it would "wear off." However, it clung to her tenaciously, and in two weeks she found her health in a serious condition. Fortunately, Peruna had been brought to her notice, and she took a course of this remedy before it was too late. In a week the cough and cold were broken, and a three weeks' treatment completely restored her to health. This is what Peruna is doing all the while. Not a day, and probably not an hour passes in which some one does not have a similar experience with Peruna. Cure the Slight Colds and Avoid Consumption. The first step toward consumption is a cold. The next step is a failure to cure it promptly. The third step is the development of catarrh, which gradually becomes chronic. The fourth step, the catarrh begins to spread from the head to the throat, then to the bronchial tubes, and finally into the lungs. It is then consumption in the first stage. At any time during the progress of catarrh, from the first onset of the cold to its final settlement in the lungs, Peruna can be relied upon to stop the disease. If you have taken a cold, but Peruna without delay. One bottle in the beginning will do more good than a half dozen bottles after the catarrh has fastened itself on the lungs. Thousands of Testimonials. We have on file thousands of testimonials from people who have been cured of catarrh of the lungs by Peruna. We can give you a dozen, which are a glimpse of the vast array of unalloyed endorsements we are receiving every month. No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Peruna.

GIVING THE NEWS

Is But telling the Experiences of the World. National Printer-Journalist. Giving the news is but the telling of the experiences of the world. News that is misleading is not news, but falsehood of perverted truth. It may be that with the great newspaper man Charles A. Dana, an editor should be so bold that "there is nothing which God permits to occur that he fears, or that is not good enough for him to print," but it all depends on the method of printing and telling. News may easily be told so as to be misleading, or in a manner to corrupt, to demoralize and to ruin. If every sin has its punishment, the greatest punishment should come to the editor who resorts through the columns of his paper.

Persians Dine Backwards.

Persian dinners are very much like ours, only turned the wrong way round. The feast is preceded by pipes, while "tea" is served afterwards. Then the servants of the house appear, bringing in a long leather sheet, which they spread in the middle of the floor, and the guests squat round the table. The men all are seated, a flat loaf of bread is placed before every one, and the hand then commences to play. The various dishes are brought in on trays and arranged round the leather sheet at intervals. The "host" says "Bismillah" ("In the name of God"), and without another word they fall to.

Wanted His 'Lasses First.

An Alabama negro, who had spent several years as a servant in a New York family, returning to his home attempted to instruct the members of his family in correct usage, especially in their language. One day at the table his brother said to him: "Gimme some 'lasses, Sam, corrupt." "You mustn't say 'lasses," corrected Sam. "You must say 'molasses." "What is you talking 'bout?" granted his brother. "How I gwine to say 'lasses when I ain't had none yet?"

The Real Definition.

"The legitimate drama" said the playwright, scornfully, as Manager Fiasco handed him back his rejected manuscript. "I hear nothing but the legitimate drama. What is the legitimate drama, anyway?" "The legitimate drama," said Manager Fiasco, coldly, "comprises all those plays, which, their authors be they dead, are produced without the payment of royalties."

THE FRAME HOUSES SAID NOT TO CONFORM WITH THE BY-LAW.

Adopted by the City Council—The Plea of "Not Guilty" Was Changed—Fine Imposed on a Defendant—Bonner Absent. Police court matters were run off in a speedy but effective manner this morning. The case of infraction of the city-by-law against Christopher J. Graham, for erecting steps over the boulevard, was first handled. H. I. Lyons appeared for Graham and asked for a week's adjournment. John McIntyre appeared for the city solicitor. The case was adjourned until March 24th. In the meantime there is to be no work done. Robert J. Reid was also summoned to answer the charge of infraction of city-by-law, in erecting a wooden building, not conforming to the fire regulations. The case was given a week's adjournment. The assault case on Warden Franklin against Robert Jamieson and Thomas Bonner, adjourned from Wednesday, was quite apparently the cause of the big crowd of interested spectators. J. McD. Mowat acted for the plaintiff, T. J. Rigney for the defendant, Robert Jamieson said, "We have changed the plea to guilty, inasmuch as we have no money to bring the witnesses necessary, for our side. We feel it will be less expensive to do this than bring the three witnesses." The magistrate then said to Jamieson, "You have pleaded guilty to this assault and apparently there is no desire on the plaintiff's part to push the case. He was prepared to drop the case against Bonner. 'Dismissed,' declared the court. One of those "rejected men" creatures, a vagrant, was called. "Joseph Maulhoff, you are charged with being a vagrant." "What are you doing?" asked the court. "Nothing," came the disgruntled reply. "A gentleman! As a gentleman you are entitled to pass on the railway as far as Belleville," were Magistrate Farrell's final words.

SATURDAY MARKET.

Usual Big Week End Turn-Out on Square. In the St. Patrick's day market there was nothing especially appropos of the day; it was the usual big week end turnout of farmers, market-gardeners and butchers, with a bustling crowd of housewives to buy the produce offered. In the butter market buying was unusually brisk but in the square there was little demand for the offerings. There is little or no market for meat, with no change in the prices. Potatoes remain 90c. and 81c. bag; oats were 80c. a bag. Apples are not quite so plentiful, but remain at the steady prices of the winter. In the butter market eggs were very plentiful, and the farmers, who say the hens are laying well. Butter was a good supply at 25c. a lb., with a few asking 23c. A lb. of fowl is very dear and scarce, but in great demand. There was a ready sale at 81.50 a pair.

Taught By Rev. Robert Laird.

The Catholic Register notes that the late Archbishop O'Brien, of Halifax, received his early education under Rev. Robert Laird, retired Presbyterian minister, of Kingston. In 1873 when then Father O'Brien was appointed parish priest of Prince County, P.E.I., he became the neighbor of his former teacher, Mr. Laird, who was Presbyterian minister near Indian River in that province. The two resumed their earlier friendship. Rev. Prof. Alexander Laird, of the Royal Military College, says that one of his boyhood remembrances is a lecture on temperance to young men, given by Father O'Brien in the Presbyterian church on the invitation of his father.

LATE SOCIAL NOTES.

Mrs. W. G. Hurlman, Ottawa, was the hostess at a charming tea on Thursday afternoon, in honor of her guest, Miss Jessie McCann. Mrs. Hurlman was beautifully gowned in white silk costume, encrusted with lace. Miss McCann wore a dainty gown of blue crepe de chine. In the tea room the table was covered by silver candelabra, shaded with red with bowls of Miss Rosey's valley on either side, red tulips were placed about the room and the drawing-room was decorated with quantities of lovely pink roses and carnations. An orchestra discoursed sweet music throughout the afternoon. Mrs. Matheson poured the tea. Mrs. King the coffee and Mrs. Curie served the ices. Those assisting were: Miss Campbell, Miss Inglis, Miss Beatrice Hurlman, Miss Mar'orie Pomock. Among the guests were: Mrs. Killam, of Winnipeg; Mrs. Finlay, Mrs. and Miss Dawson; Mrs. Thomas Birkett, Mrs. Gommill, Mrs. Frank Oliver, the Misses Oliver, Miss Amy Rosey, Mrs. Julia Horsey, of Kingston; Mrs. Eshlin; Mrs. Emory, Miss Birch, of Kingston; Mrs. Bogart. A number of people who were at the meeting at Mrs. Victor Williams' yesterday stayed for a cup of tea. There was a little dinner party at "Sunnyside," last night for Mrs. Arthur Vankoughnet whose enthusiasm and winning presentation of her object led many to enter heartily into the order's formation. Mrs. A. P. Chown is giving a St. Patrick's day party, to-night, for her little daughter. Mr. Oliver Cotter is back in town from the North-West. Miss Eleanor Malloch, left yesterday, for Brockville, to visit her aunt, Mrs. Reynolds. Mrs. Carman is again with Mrs. D. Stewart Robertson. Mrs. R. E. Sparks will give a party for Master Leslie Sparks, on Monday evening. Miss Lillian McCormack asked about a dozen married ladies, all of whom had been friends of Miss Edith Mills' mother, to come to tea, and bring their work, and say "good-by" to the little bride of next week, her niece. An interesting feature of the afternoon was the showing of the "wedding garments" of the grandfather and grandmother of the bride-to-be, and of some of the quaint and beautiful things with which they began housekeeping. Tea at quartette tables completed the afternoon. A few little bridges and quiet dinners have centred, this week, round Mrs. Busby, who is with Mrs. J. B. Carruthers, at "Annadale."

Mrs. Harry Betts has an unpleasant week of it, with la grippe, but to-day sat up for a short time, her friends were glad to hear.

Country Hospitality.

Inverary, March 14—James Shepherd has not disposed of his farm, as reported, but will remain on it himself. The public school is filled to its utmost capacity. The teacher, William Shales, is giving perfect satisfaction. W. Holder has moved to his farm in Pittsburg. David O'Keefe is expected to soon begin operations in Model factory. W. J. Arthur, after serving as bailiff for nineteen years, has resigned. F. Deanes will take his place. Miss Nettie Gibson is spending a week with friends in Pittsburg. Miss Mabel Richards, Queen's College, spent Sunday under the parental roof. Miss Ethel Simpson, nurse-in-training at general hospital, is at home, suffering from a disabled foot. A few from here attended the Masses-Harris demonstration on the 15th. Thomas Arthur was the heaviest purchaser, he having secured a lumber wagon, a binder, and a steel truck. He also was successful in carrying off second prize, Mr. and Mrs. Ebbert Lake and Miss Pearl Thompson, spent Sunday at J. E. Storm's, Florida. The most pleasant party of the season was held at the residence of W. R. Tolly, on the evening of the 14th, when his only daughter, Miss Luva, entertained a number of her friends from Odessa, Westbrook and Florida, reinforced by the select young people of this place. Music, games and dancing were indulged in until a late hour, when all departed, feeling it was an evening indeed well spent. Mrs. W. Bruce entertained her friends, last week, and to-night will entertain her Inverary friends. Miss Jennie and Ellen Connor, Gannous, recently visited at Thomas Arthur's.

AN IMPERIAL ORDER DAUGHTERS OF THE EMPIRE ORGANIZE IN KINGSTON.

The Order Knows Neither Creed Nor Politics Nor Class, But Stands for Love and Help of Our Mighty Empire. A very representative gathering of Kingston's women met at Mrs. Victor Williams' residence, "Sunnyside," on Friday, to hear an address from Mrs. Arthur Vankoughnet, the honorary organizing secretary of that great organization, "The Daughters of the Empire." A municipal chapter for Kingston was formed, with Mrs. E. T. Taylor as regent; Mrs. John Bell Carruthers, first vice-regent; Mrs. Ramsay Duff, second vice-regent; Mrs. W. S. Hughes, secretary; Miss Marion Calvert, treasurer; Miss Eleanor Macdonnell, standard-bearer, and a council of ten. Mrs. Vankoughnet is a charming speaker, and full of enthusiasm for the order, which is truly imperial, knowing neither creed, nor politics, nor class. It has banded together the empire's women for the betterment of that empire, and all within its vast bounds. Formed in 1900, when news of the first reverses to the British arms, in South Africa, was heard, it has grown in size and strength, under the leadership of Mrs. Nordheimer, of "Glendethy," Toronto. Eighty chapters there are now, and their work is varied. Chapters have undertaken hospital work, the welcoming of immigrants to our shores, the encouragement by prizes, and by every possible means, the spirit of patriotism in our public schools. A fund for the care of the graves of Canada's dead, in South Africa, has been formed, and will guarantee their remembrance forever. Six beds (with all necessary for the occupants), for consumptive children, have been endowed at Weston. Monuments to the late queen, and to some of the heroes of the Boer war, have been put up in Canada, and the Berlin chapter will erect a statue of King Edward. Germany will have a hospital as a result of the order's work, and the Edmonton chapter will preserve the fort there, and present an ambulance to the town. Shortly classes for physical culture and domestic science will be formed in India, and every Indian girl entering the school will become a "Daughter," and be taught to lead a practical life. Many devote their efforts to aid the deep sea fishermen, and a great work is the furtherance of the "made in Canada" stalls at exhibitions, that all may learn how many things of use and beauty are made in our own fair dominion. The order encourages art, distributes literature in the North-West, and endows reading rooms for the poor. Emigrants ill in hospital are visited—in short, the order exists that every woman, be she high or be she lowly, who acknowledges allegiance to Britain's throne and its flag, may have a channel through which to get her country, be it in never so simple and unostentatious a way. A meeting will be held here, shortly, to consider ways in which the Kingston chapter may best fulfill the order's blessed objects.

A MARINE PETITION.

Being Circulated to Retain Gas in Welland Canal. Capt. Jenkins, secretary of the St. Catharines branch of the Masters and Mates' Association, is in town for the purpose of circulating among the local marine men, a petition to the government to retain the gas pipes in the Welland canal. Electricity is now being installed in the canal and it is proposed to take out the gas pipes. Sailors and transportation men feel this is a bad idea for, should, at any time the electricity give out, the gas pressure being turned off, the canal would be in darkness. This happened last year, at Soulanges canal, and navigation was somewhat hindered. This movement is meeting with great favor in Kingston and the petition has been largely signed.

Orange Hall Damaged.

About two weeks ago, several panes of glass were broken in the L.O.L. No. 1289 hall at Dufferin. It appears as if buxshot had been fired through the windows, on one side of the building, and going directly through the interior, break up windows on the opposite side. The Orangemen are on the qui vive for the guilty party, who if caught, will be "initiated" in true style.

Distinguished Heads To Mount.

Fireman H. Stratford has also received for mounting the head and feet of Lord Dundonald's despatch horse, used in the South African campaign. A few days ago, he received from Lord Grey, the governor-general, the head of a South African animal to mount.

Women

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets Hit the Right Spot.

When a woman gets all run down, feels tired and out of sorts it is pretty hard to tell what sort of her peculiar organism is causing the trouble. She takes different medicines, but they do her little good. They don't hit the right spot. It is useless, for example, taking a stimulant to lead inflammation or correct an irregularity. What the exception of Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women, no emporium remedy for the female sex exists to-day. By compound remedy we mean one containing: the alterative and tonic medicinal ingredients necessary to regulate and strengthen every organ of the female system. And that is just what these tablets do. In taking the ordinary remedies you may rule the very ingredients your system requires. These tablets contain every ingredient. They go to the weak spot wherever it may be. It is not necessary to guess at the cause of the trouble and perhaps take the wrong medicine half a dozen times. It is not necessary to even know exactly the cause of the trouble. Dr. Hugo's remedy contains something for every organ of the female system; something for the stomach to help indigestion—for the bowels to cure constipation—for the nervous system to tone up the nerves—for the liver and kidneys to make them active in carrying off impurities—something for the uterine system to stop all drains, allay inflammation, and make women regular. The tablets are sure to go to the right spot and get there the first time. The remedy is now recognized beyond doubt or question as the best adapted to the special needs of sick and run-down women, no matter what the cause. 50c. at dealers or by mail postpaid, B. N. A BALD NEWSPAPER MAN.

Getting a New Crop of Hair, and Has No More Dandruff. Everybody in the North-West knows Col. Daniel Searles, the veteran journalist and publisher of Butte, Jan. 10th, 1906, the colored review "I used a couple of bottles of Newstead's Herpicide with marvellous results. The dandruff disappeared; a new crop of hair has taken root, and the bald spot is rapidly being covered." Herpicide is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ that digs up the scalp in scales as it burrows its way to the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out. Kill the dandruff germ, with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. G. W. Mahood, special agent.
