SIGNORINA SACCHI MAY BE

ELECTED TO PARLIAMENT.

Advocates of Feminine Rights Hope for a Great Stride for Their Pet Idea-Here's the

New York, April 3.-Rome cables say the question of woman suffrage has assumed large and amusing proportions in Italy. Last year the idea of women voting was regarded as a urely academic one, while twelve months later it is looming so large hat many "mere men" are rushing into print for the purpose of proving he inferiority of women.

Signor Sacchi, who applied to the proper authorities to be allowed to vote, on the ground that it is not forbidden by Italian law, was benevolently listened to, and her name insertin the voting list, her example beng followed by many others. But-and here is the rub- the lists must be ubmitted to a higher authority, and he may, and probably will refuse, the desired permission. Meanwhile, a constituency has fallen vacant, and its enterprising electors have invited Sig norina Sacchi to stand, the idea being to make her a deputy before the electoral lists are revised! Thus she stands a very fair chance of going down to posterity as the first woman deputy n Europe, and of having attained this triumph of "feminism" in a coan try centuries behind others in such ideas, and where woman is still re-

LOOK OUT FOR NUMBER ONE. Churchman's Magazine

"Take care of number one." This is the word for me; Is it? Then all will shun thy selfish company. If all should say the same, whose would the orphan be, The blind, the sick the lame? They must, not come to thee. A churl is "Number One" He loves to stand alone Into a corner run, and there to "pick his bone." Poor number One! How small! how very small thou art! So thin! So straight! So tall! Thou hast no room for heart. Give up thy selfish pride! Join hearts for common weal; Press close to others' side, and learn with them to feel! Take care of "Number One;" but think of two and three; There's work which must be done; that work has need of thee.
