Thousands of women suffer untold miseries every day with aching backs that really have no business to ache. A woman's back wasn't made to ache. Under ordinary enditions it ought to be strong and ready to help her bear the burdens of life.

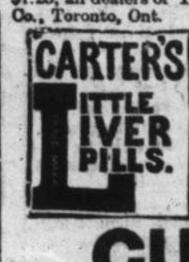

It is hard to do housework with an ach ng back. Hours of misery at leisure or at work. If women only knew the cause. Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause in

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it's not to be wondered that they get out of order. Backache is simply their cry for help.

BUT FAILED TO GET NECES SARY FOURTH FALL

Within the Hour-O'Connell, of Watertown, Put Ellerbeck Down Three Times-The Contest Was a Good One.

Put your money on the "kid"-the 'kid' wins! As a result of a recent challenge in the Whig, Samuel O'Connell, Watertown, N.Y., and Kussell Ellerbeck, Glenvale, wrestled in the Grand Opera House, Saturday night, before a fair-sized crowd of the sterner sex, O'Connell agreed to throw Efferbeck four times within an hour or forfeit $100. The "kid" was thrown three times within the time limit, no means a disappointment over two matches this year, in which Mc-Bride figured with the Glenvale boy. der. Each was apparently the equal of the other in quick work, but O'Connell displayed a greater knowledge in seemed unfamiliar, and which but for his cel-like slipperyness might have

O'Connell got his first throw 20:05 minutes, by a half Nelson, after fast strenuous work, during which time the crowd twice had a faint sus picion of a strangle hold, but the referee failed to rule. The man from across the line worked fiercely in the second bout, and again the half-Nelson worked to his favor in 13.20 min-

wholly defensive; O'Connell tried every ruse and worked the crotch hold seven times almost to his benefit, finally throwing Ellerbeck in 21 minutes by standing him on his head, and forcing his shoulders down to the mat. Just previous to stepping on the mat for the final attempt to be done in 5.32, O'Connell was asked if hethought he would win. "Many a man whirlwind work of the catch-as-catchcan order, and O'Connell was out to agility of the Glenvale boy served to advantage, and 'O'Connell failed to
