Yesterday a man suspected of crime was accested. His name is Rodridgue Desautels, a hunter and trapper. The motive for the horrible crime is posed to have been vengeance. He had lived with the Gendreau family last Thursday, when as a result of an altercation with the husband and the wife he was obliged to leave. He did so with many threats. He is supposed to have met his victim as she was driving to town, on Friday night, and to have strangled her to death. Five of the six government appointees on the harbor board have now tendered their resignations, the latest to take this step being the president, Hon. Robert Mackay. Resignations are now in the hands of the government from Messrs, Bickerdike, Lemay Racine, Penny and Senator Mackay. Mr. Doran remains the one member, appointed by the government, who has not as yet resigned. The senator has handed in his resignation on the same ground as have the others-to allow the minister of marine and fisheries a free hand in the contempla ted re-organization of the board.
