A FIENDISH SENTENCE

Selby T. Jones Condemned to Drink Himself to Death. Chicago, April 19.-The Record-Herald to-day says: Condemned by court of justice to get drunk and remain so until drink killed him, Selby T. Jones, son of a former prominent wholesale hardware merchant of Kansas City, Mo., came to Chicago to obey the sentence of court. Without means last Sunday to continue the debauch judicially imposed upon him but sufficiently intoxicated to resort to any expedient to carry into effect the remarkable penalty, he stole a travelling salesman's valise that I can safely say, by 30 years' ex- sample case, and was arrested. Yes only one that will absolutely hold the terday, having been held to the grand jury for grand larceny, Jones was transferred from a police station the county jail, thoroughly sober, and for the time at least contrite and eager to start life anew, Jones' efforts to satisfy his parole by drinking himself to death have continued since March 6th, when Judge Wofford, the criminal court in Kansas City. pronounced this sentence :

"If you'll get drunk, and stay drunk I'll let you out of jail. You must leave the city. Only remember, you than your duties require, life is a burthat speaks for itself. must get drunk and stay drunk. den. and keep you there.

Next day Jones, furnished by intide him over two months, left the city that had been his home for twenty years, saying farewell to his aged mother, whose prayers, as he peered Horwas a prominent physician there, through the bars of the cell yesterday. He was killed in his room on the
