LIKE A RIVER

Supplies Pour In To San Francisco.

NO OUTSIDE HELP IS NEEDED IN DISTRIBUTION.

As Best Tradesmen of California Are Available—Japan Votes $100,000 for Relief of Sufferers.

San Francisco, Cal., April 27.—A veritable river of supplies is now pouring into San Francisco. Up to yesterday 377 cars had been received in the city, via the Southern Pacific. There are forty loaded cars in Oakland in addition to those that have been unloaded for distribution at the latter point. There are 203 cars of fruit and 150 express cars en route west of Omaha. Arrangements are complete to handle these supplies as rapidly as they arrive. Systematizing of relief is rapidly being perfected. There is no need at present for workers from a distance, as the best tradesmen of Oakland, San Francisco and Berkeley are available.

Five hundred teams are drawing supplies to the six odd relief depots. There is still a scarcity of sugar and coffee and an urgent pressing need for more blankets, coats and tents.

The main street yesterday, destroyed a considerable quantity of liquors in that section of the city in which they hold sway. This branch of the navy controls and polices the best portion of the residence district, and although they have ruled with an iron hand their authority has been exercised with such good judgment and discretion that not a single complaint has been made.

Restoration of the telephone system among many necessities that is making good progress. The Dairy men's association has announced that it will furnish milk free to the relief associations until May 1st.

Wednesday's quake, caused trepidation among many residents, to a high state of excitement by the happenings of the last week, but quiet and assurance were soon restored.

It was a day of optimistic reports. "Conditions improving," was the happy expression from those who have charge of caring for their fellow townsmen.

The citizens of San Francisco have turned their attention to details of the reconstruction of their business. Retail stores were instructed to re-open and the municipal government has established a scale of prices for important commodities. Any effort to charge exorbitant prices will result in summary action.

Morning and evening meals are picturesque sights. In front of every house there is an improvised cook stove. Some servants remain faithful but it is no unusual thing to see waves of men who were possessors of fortunes, stirring porridge or manipulating bacon and eggs.

San Francisco grows to bed at nightfall. Reports have been made during the last few days of shots fired into houses that showed a light and few are disposed to take chances.

Responsible citizens have been stopped and shots fired at persons who had a right to go anywhere they pleased. It was one of these so-called "vigilance committees" that is held responsible for the death of Major Tilden. The police have been ordered to disarm them.

The state militia has not been withdrawn. There is nothing but praise for the work of the United States army, navy and police. They have acted with reason at all times.

Everywhere sanitary conditions are satisfactory. There has been less sickness at the Presidio than at any other camp.

Expert accountants have been engaged, an auditing and supervising committee appointed, and every dollar of the relief will be accounted for.

The San Francisco Labor Council, on behalf of 106 affiliated unions, has announced that wages will remain the same as before the fire.

Must Not Make Contribution. Buffalo, April 27.—The appropriation of $25,000 made by the board of relief for the San Francisco relief fund has been declared illegal by the corporation counsel. In making the announcement Mayor Adams requested the citizens of the city to add $25,000 to the $25,000 already secured by individual subscription.

Japan Sends Aid. Tokio, April 27.—The emperor of Japan has donated $100,000 for the relief of the people of San Francisco, and the business men at Tokio and Osaka have contributed a like sum.

A NAIL STORY. Thirty Thousand Kegs Go West to Winnipeg.

Fort William, Ont., April 27.—The steamer Ames has just finished discharging a cargo of thirty thousand kegs of nails, consigned by the Imperial Steel and Wire company, of Collingwood, to Winnipeg. Loading houses. This is the largest consignment of nails ever unloaded here. It would take 127 cars to carry this cargo to its destination. The kegs, if placed end to end, would reach a distance of twelve miles. The magnitude of the consignment will give some idea of the vast growth of the Canadian North-West.

One Dollar Hats. The best values in Kingston at Campbell Bros., the popular hat store.

35c. net $1 for Wa-Ho Tonic, at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store. It cures rheumatism.

LEASED FOR FIFTY YEARS.

Historic Old Home in Northamptonshire.

London, April 27.—Among the most notable young Americans in English society this season will be Miss Mary Van Alen of New York, according to a weekly paper which is recognized as an authority on such matters.

This announcement is accompanied by the rather inconsequent remark that "Miss Van Alen, who is Mrs. William Astor's granddaughter, and therefore, a second cousin of William Waldorf Astor, is remarkable for her beautiful long hair, and she dresses admirably."

Her father, James Van Alen, has leased for fifty years Rushton Hall, in Northamptonshire, the historic home of the Trehamms, and has contrived to bring it up to date without altering its characteristic architectural features.

Miss Van Alen will be hostess in this magnificent old Tudor mansion.

AN ONTARIO YOUTH

With An Aversion to Clothes, Rules Islanders.

Ottawa, Ont., April 27.—A strange story has just come to light about a young Ontario boy, and it is to the effect that he has become a king among the South Sea Islanders. His name is Thomas Darling, and he is the son of a small farmer at Sparta, Ont. It seems that he had a fancy for going about without any clothes, although sane and rational upon every other subject. He was transferred from there to San Francisco on account of this fad. He was a student at Stanford University for a while, and was known there as "Harefoot Bill," and when he was expelled from the university on account of his queer antics about clothing he went to Tahiti and has now become a virtual king among the South Sea Islanders.

A TEXAN TORNADO

Kills Eleven, and Leaves Town in Ruins.

Bellevue, Texas, April 27.—A tornado which swept through this place, last night, destroyed everything in its path, and as a result practically the entire town is a mass of ruins. Only three buildings are now standing, and at least eleven persons are dead; and a number are injured. The tornado was followed by fire which consumed the wreckage. The town consisted of over 200 houses. The whole business section of the town and large stocks of merchandise were destroyed. The tornado, was a mauling and travelled the length of the town, blowing up, ruining crops and destroying all farm houses and buildings in the way.

THE EGYPTIAN GARRISON

Will Be Reinforced, Owing to Unrest There.

London, April 27.—In the House of Commons, yesterday, George Peabody Gooch, liberal, asked what increase was contemplated in the strength of the garrison in Egypt, and whether it was to be permanent or only temporary. Sir Edward Grey, secretary of state for the colonies, replied that Lord Curzon considered that the existing force there, due to frontier troubles, necessitated reinforcements. It was impossible to say for how long it would be necessary for them to remain in Egypt.

SULTAN OF TURKEY

Replies Unfavorably to Khedive's Suggestions.

Cairo, April 27.—The Sultan of Egypt has replied unfavorably to the Khedive's suggestions regarding the Tabah boundary questions. The matter will now be handed over to the British government and the port for settlement.

Missionaries To Marry.

Toronto, April 27.—Miss Jean V. Sinclair, of Indore, Central India, has resigned the position she has held since 1889 as missionary of the Presbyterian church, in view of her approaching marriage to Rev. J. S. Mackay, another member of the Canadian staff in India. Miss Sinclair had the distinction of being the first woman in Canada to deliver an address to the Presbyterian general assembly. Her home is in Madoc, Ont. Rev. J. S. Mackay belongs to Oxford College. He was appointed to the Central India mission staff in 1904.

Payments Of Annuities.

Ottawa, April 26.—Mr. Fielding gave W. F. Maclean the following list of payments of annuities to ex-convicts under the statute of last year: Sir Hector Lanouette, $2,446; Sir Charles Tupper, $2,797; Sir Mackenzie Bowell, $2,795; Sir Adolphe Caron, $2,446; Sir John Carling, $2,446; Sir Hibbert Tupper, $2,154; Hon. John Costigan, $2,446; Hon. G. E. Foster, $2,446; Hon. John Hazenart, $2,446; Hon. J. I. Tarte, $2,154; Hon. A. G. Blair, $2,446; Hon. Clifford Sifton, $2,446; Sir Hibbert Tupper and Mr. Tarte, not been paid to February 28th, and the others to the end of March.

Two Heirs Found.

Watertown, N.Y., April 27.—Under the terms of the will of Thomas Burgh, formerly a resident of this city, and who recently died in New York, his estate of $10,000 is bequeathed to a church in that city in the event of the heirs of the late George Adams and Harriet Adams not being found.

The Britannic's Intentions.

Detroit, Mich., April 27.—It is announced that the passenger and freight steamer Britannic, of the Northern Navigation company, Collingwood, will make Detroit a port of call this season, beginning July 1st. The Britannic will run as far as Kincaidine.

King Falls From Horse.

Belgrade, Serbia, April 27.—King Peter while out riding, fell off his horse and injured his ankle.

PUT TO A TEST

The French Alliance With Russia.

CZAR'S DEMANDS

WANTS EXTRADITION OF NOVELIST FOR BLASPHEMY.

Thousands of Refugees Will Be Affected by Case—Russian Students in Paris Who Cannot Be Extradited for Political Offenses May Be Forced on New Grounds to Return Home.

Paris, April 27.—Holy Russia has succeeded at last in putting under the dog France in a most embarrassing position by demanding the extradition of a fugitive subject against whom there is a charge of blasphemy—Antheauroff, a revolutionary novelist and journalist.

Antheauroff is now in Paris, but long before his arrival here he succeeded in bringing down the wrath of the czar on his head by the publication of the novel entitled, "The Romanoffs," which the government recognized at once as a thin mask for the most scathing and satirical attack on the Russian bureaucracy carried him an eighteen months' stay in Siberia.

Now that he is out of the bounds of Russia the writer has signed quite as grievously by publishing some biting, satirical verses in the House. Government agents hunted through the jungles for some hidden political office, but their search was fruitless. The most they could accomplish was to discover what they regarded as expressions showing contempt for things that are sacred to Russia, and blasphemy in that country is a serious offence.

These were pointed upon as an excuse for punishing the offender, and France was notified that the writer of the verses must be extradited. The Russian contention is that the offence does not come under the political head, and that the offender is therefore amenable to the extradition treaty existing between the two nations.

Should France be forced to accept this interpretation of the case, all the Russian refugees in France would be practically doomed to long terms of exile in Siberia.

But this is not the only peril that now confronts the 1,000 Russian students who are living here in the Latin quarter, fugitives from their own country. Now that the reasons for their flight from Russia have lost their freshness, the public is becoming indifferent to their case, and as they are all on the brink of starvation.

They have become pale and pinched in appearance, and they actually present a most pathetic object for charity. Many of them are forced to live on allowances of fifty to sixty cents a week, and that means that they can have no more than a few musty loaves from the baker, and the indispensable tea. Under these trying conditions not a few of the fugitives have returned to Russia, preferring to indulge in their underground campaign there even at the risk of Siberian exile, rather than to stay here and die ignominiously of starvation.

SERIOUS CHARGES MADE

Against Partners in a Rutherford Firm.

Rathven, Ont., April 27.—T. D. Norman, of the firm of Norman, Dawson & Co., makes serious charges against George W. Irwin and the latter's daughter, Bertha Irwin, in answering the petition filed by Irwin, asking for the dissolution of the firm of which Norman is the senior partner. Norman alleges that Irwin and his daughter converted book accounts of the firm into notes, and then refused to pay the firm's bills. Irwin was the company of Norman, Dawson & Co. Hugh McSwen, Leamington, has been appointed receiver of the business.

Gigantic Tunnel Plans.

New York, April 27.—The Brooklyn Rapid Transit company has evolved plans for solving the traffic question, which, if carried out, will enable the street railway lines to carry annually 200,000,000 more persons a year by 1910 than are carried now across the river every year. In a general way it is the intention of the company, to do away with terminals, where no one's journey naturally terminates, and to substitute subway loops.

Child Admits Starting Fire at Brockville.

Brockville, Ont., April 27.—Chief Burke made an investigation concerning the origin of the fire in the shed in the rear of T. Brown's grocery, on Tuesday evening, and found that the contention that it was the work of an incendiary was quite correct. A child named Dunn, six years of age, confessed the deed, but owing to his tender years, the chief could do nothing more than report the matter to the crown attorney.

SIX-YEAR-OLD INCENDIARY.

Chicago, April 27.—John Alexander Dowie is said to be suffering from myocarditis, or inflammation of the muscles of the heart, and his condition is considered grave.

WOMAN WHO CROSSED AFRICA

She Had But a Small Negro Guard.

London, April 27.—Miss Mary Hall, who has just arrived here, is the only woman who has made the complete journey from one end of Africa to the other. She started at Ching on the coast of Portuguese East Africa, in June last year and reached Cairo about six weeks ago. She had previously journeyed from the Cape to Victoria Falls. During the whole of this nine months' journey she had a guard of only thirty negroes.

For weeks at a time she saw no white men and had to subsist on jam, rice, corn flour, porridge and cocoa. She crossed districts where no white woman and only two white men had ever travelled. She was carried in hammock by reliefs of four and for several weeks travelled up rivers in pirochets, camping out on the banks at night. Often on pitching camp she heard lions and hippopotami all about her, and she made her guards build fires all around her tent. Only once, when near the borders of German South-West Africa, did she have trouble with the natives and that only on account of the high-handed action of two German soldiers, who had been detailed as her escort.
