The Holy City. Announcements of "The Holy City" interest all classes of theatre-goers, The great Biblical drama, its sumptuous production, the strength of the l acting company, the music and grand f spectacle with which the play abounds, furnish dramatic satisfaction and scenic pleasure so complete that performances are featured in all columns containing theatrical news. Seldom has a play been so noticed, be cause seldom has one play so many distinguished points. In the thrilling story of the Apostle John the studious will find occasions for much following thought, those who are more gratified by brilliant dressing and wonderful stage effects, will be held by lavish preparation and perfect execution. None need fear that this Biblical drama is not for them, there is not a moment during the play's duration that superior stagecraft is not in evidence, or that accomplished acting may not be seen.
