A BIG CANNON
 Speaker's Birthday Starter For Big Boom.

HIS SEVENTY YEARS
 SIT LIGHTLY ON A WASHINGTON GUN.

The Only Man for the Republican Party—Signs of Radicalism and Revolt in Political Atmosphere.

WASHINGTON, D.C., May 7.—Speaker Cannon, of the House of Representatives, is seventy years old, today, and his birthday will be made the starting point of a big political boom, the object of which is the nomination of Mr. Cannon for the presidency of the United States. The friends, personal—as well as political, have arranged a big "reception and dinner in honor of Speaker Cannon's birthday and it will be at the dinner to-night that the boom will be formally launched.

Notwithstanding his seventy years, Speaker Cannon is still hale and strong and shows none of the fallings concomitant to old age. The proposition of starting a Cannon boom was suggested some time last year and since then it has been thoroughly discussed by the friends of Mr. Cannon and many of the political leaders who are not themselves aspirants to the nomination. It is believed by many friends of Mr. Cannon that, leaving President Roosevelt out of consideration, Speaker Cannon is the only man who can save the republic from falling into the hands of the party from defeat in the next presidential election.

The party leaders have been much worried by the signs of radicalism and revolt in the political atmosphere and the chances of a Bryan, a Hearst or a Bailey riding the popular wave for some time "close to the people." They say "Root" will not do. Fairbanks is out of the question. Even Taft is now doubtful, and the chances for Roosevelt's re-election to the supreme court bench. The Illinois delegation in the house is, naturally, for Cannon to a man. Illinois is his state. The Indiana members of the house are in an embarrassing position. There is scarcely a man of them whose heart is not with Cannon, but so long as they are members of the Fairbanks machine, they feel that they cannot officially line up their state with Cannon until Fairbanks withdraws. There is a movement on foot to bring about this result.

The Ohio members of the house do not feel at liberty to declare for Cannon at this time. The obstacle is Senator Foraker, who has the presidential lion in his home, and who it is almost a foregone conclusion that his nomination would lead to a terrible defeat for the republican party. Foraker has gone out on a campaign, however, and that will probably tip the hands of the Ohio members.

Speaker Cannon holds the age record for speakers. When he took his seat as speaker the first time, Mr. Cannon was sixty-seven years old. Even at that age he was two years older than his oldest predecessor at the time, William Pennington, of New Jersey, who was speaker of the thirty-sixth congress, from 1859 to 1861, was sixty-five years old when he stepped down. He died the following year.

The tendency of late years seems to have been toward selecting older speakers. Previous to the Civil war of twenty-three speakers, only Pennington, Jonathan Trumbull, who was fifty-one, and John Vanmum, who was fifty-seven, were over fifty years when they were elected, and there were a number of rather youthful presiding officers.

Counting Galusha A. Grow, who presided during the struggle, three years later, also, speakers since the war, and all were men well advanced in life, except Grow, who was only thirty-eight, when elected. Schuyler Colfax was forty when he took the chief seat, and forty-six when he resigned. Blaine was forty-five when he retired; Kerr, forty-nine; Keifer, forty-seven; Carlisle, fifty-four; Reed was fifty, when he was elected, and just ten years older when he retired; Crisp was forty-nine when he retired and Henderson, sixty-three, at the end of his second term.

The only speaker who was under thirty when he was elected, was Robert M. E. Hunter, of Virginia, who was speaker of the twenty-sixth congress and was thirty years old when he was elected.

BOMB'S WORK
 Moscow's Governor Has Foot Blown Off.

ASSASSIN KILLED
 TOGETHER WITH ADJUTANT, POLICEMAN AND BOY.

Governor of Caucasus Assassinated Because of Cruelty of His Repressive Measures—Hid the Bomb in a Bunch of Violets.

St. Petersburg, May 7.—While Vice-Admiral Douhaoff, governor of Moscow, was returning yesterday, to his residence from a church service, a young man threw a bomb at him. The missile exploded, and blew off one of the governor's feet, and severely wounded him in the head.

It is feared that the latter would have been killed, as the governor's adjutant, Col. Kokometzki, a policeman, who was standing outside the church, and a boy.

The assassin was dressed in the uniform of a naval officer.

The bomb was hidden in a bunch of violets that was thrown into the governor's carriage.

It is recalled that Governor Douhaoff directed the repressive measures in the Moscow outbreaks in the autumn, since when the revolutionists have hated him.

Another Assassination.

St. Petersburg, May 7.—News was received at the session of the constitutional democratic congress, last night, of the assassination of the governor of Elizabetopol, in revenge for his savage repressions in the Caucasus.

The Turkish Council is Called Together.

Constantinople, May 7.—An extraordinary meeting of the council of ministers has been summoned for to-day, to consider the British note.

The sultan attempted to re-open discussion regarding the Tabah affair, but the British ambassador declined to do so. It is reported that the sultan wishes to submit the question to the Hague.

Going To The Front.

Valletta, Island of Malta, May 7.—Three torpedo boat destroyers sailed from here to-day, to join the British fleet at Piraeus, Greece. The transport Dilwara is embarking the Western Shire regiment, which will sail for Alexandria.

Britain's Ultimatum.

The territory in dispute between Great Britain and Turkey is what is known as the Sinaitic peninsula, lying between the gulf of Suez and the gulf of Akabah. The boundaries between Arabia and Egypt are somewhat vague, but it is generally held that some map should give the Suez canal as the eastern boundary of Egypt. To suppose that that country can only exercise sovereignty on one bank of the canal, is not reasonable, however. The only question, therefore, is how much farther east does the boundary extend. Most British and American cartographers assign the whole peninsula to Egypt. The fact Britain will choose the sea for its operations, and there endeavor to convince the sultan that his claim is ill-founded. It is not at all probable that he will prove obstinate. He can have no desire to see a British fleet forcing its way through the Bosphorus towards the Bosphorus.

On the last occasion when a European Great fleet contented itself with besetting Mytilene. This may be resorted to again, should it be necessary, and as a preliminary to a demonstration in front of Constantinople itself.

Murders Wife Because of Love.

Long Branch, N.J., May 7.—Thaddeus Burch, who came here from Virginia in search of his wife, who left him some time ago, met the woman on the street, last night, and after a few words shot her dead. He was arrested, and declared his love for his wife, impelled the deed.

 Insanity Due to Overwork at Fire.

San Francisco, May 7.—Capt. F. B. Webster, of the 20th Infantry, thirty-nine years old, attempted to end his life yesterday by cutting his throat with a bayonet from a rifle. He was taken to the Presidio hospital. The physicians say he will recover. The attempt at suicide was apparently the result of an unbalanced mind, due to overwork. He had been on duty in the burned area since the earthquake.

MAY GET OFFICE.

Changes Said to Be in Arrangement.

Ottawa, May 7.—An interesting rumor going the rounds is that Sir Elzevir Taschereau is to be appointed lieutenant-governor of Quebec. Coupled with the rumor is that Chief Justice Lacoste, Quebec, will resume practice and Sir Louis Jette take the justiceship, this, of course, being part of the move by which Mr. Fitzpatrick ascends the supreme court bench here.

Standard's Secret Rate.

Indianapolis, May 7.—The charge in the report of Commissioner of Corporations Garfield, that the Standard Oil company had a secret rate for shipment of oil from its refinery at Whiting to Evansville, and that it paid $10,000 a year less to railroads than could have been the case if open rate had been charged, is to be the subject of an investigation by the attorney-general of Indiana under the law prohibiting discriminations against shippers within the state.

Clergyman in Cells.

Waterloo, N.Y., May 7.—Residents of Waterloo, especially those who had intended hearing services in the Church of Christ, were shocked by the announcement that Rev. C. Stuart Bain instead of occupying the pulpit was in jail on a charge of arson in the third degree. Mr. Bain is pastor of the First Baptist congregation. He is accused of setting fire to his church, which was burned on March 6th last. He declares that if the charge is true, he set the fire in a period of mental irresponsibility.

Goll, former assistant cashier of the First National Bank, of this city, convicted on ninety-nine counts in the United States district court a week ago, of misappropriating funds of the bank, was denied a new trial and sentenced to ten years in the military prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan. Goll will be allowed to remain in Milwaukee a few days before being taken to prison.

Not Yet Suppressed.

Berlin, May 7.—The latest news received from Germany East Africa completely contradicts the official announcement of February 28th that the local Anjoerger Her-Ex-Sultan, who is resident in a cablegram gives reports of a series of engagements extending from March 13th to April 26th, in which he says the natives lost over 400 men.
