In an interview in London, John Harp expressed himself as being sanguine about the future of an English endowed theatre, which, as he says, from being a thing of ridicule, has now become a matter under serious consideration.

The need for a playhouse, permanent and artistic, whose aim will be entirely uncommercial, is what Mr. Harp voices. State aid would not in his opinion, be possible in England, where the bulk of the taxpayers persist in regarding the theatre as a means of amusement, but the necessity of some interested millionaire is necessary to put such theatre on its feet.

In Mr. Harp's opinion, in such a theatre, where the bulk of the taxpayers persist in regarding the theatre as a means of amusement, but the necessity of some interested millionaire is necessary to put such theatre on its feet.

It ought to be possible to establish traditions, produce classics, and create a "school" of the drama. Such a theatre would attract the great minority of cultivated people, who never go to the theatre and the people who go to the theatre in Paris, but will not take the London theatre seriously.

The Plain Truth About Twenty-seven Automobiles

What about an Auto at such Prices as These? Here is a terse, plain, honest description of 27 automobiles. Any one is great big value for the price. Every one is a good make, in good running order - - - most of them are actually in first-rate new condition.

The Biggest Bargain of the Whole List is This No. 1

- No. 1-Rambler Touring Car. 1905 Model, 18 h.p., double opposed cylinders. Car seats five with comfort. Side entrance, tonneau (same as newest high priced cars). Complete with acetylene gas generator and searchlights, side and tail lamps, horn, etc. First-class condition. Same style sold last year for $1,750. Price to quick $1,000.
- No. 2-Packard, 4-cylinder car, 1903 model, with plate glass windshield, cape car top, and everything complete, for a first-class high grade touring car. Will seat five people comfortably. Fitted with Diamond tires in fine condition, as is indeed the whole car. Body beautifully finished in rich, dark green; price includes acetylene gas outfit and five high-grade lamps, side baskets and, in fact, everything that ought to go with a car of this class. Absolutely as good a purchase as any automobile buyer can possibly consider. Really worth fully $600 more than our price, $3,000.
- No. 3-Packard, 4-cylinder car, Model "L." With canopy top and side baskets. Good tires throughout and one extra tire. Is $2,200 very low at $1,300.
- No. 4-Hayne 1905 Runabout, 18 h.p., Folding front seat, leather hood, 4 in. high grade tires. A splendid car for physician's use. Big value at $1,300.
- No. 5-Russell Model A Touring Car, complete with top, searchlights, lamps, etc. Car seats five, and is fitted with all 1905 improvements - strictly up-to-date machine in practically new condition. A bargain at a special price of $1,125.
- No. 6-Russell Model A, with all 1905 improvements especially fitted to it, 12 h.p. Double opposed cylinders, no vibration. Shaft drive. Sliding gear transmission, 3 speeds and reverse. Strictly up-to-date. Will climb any hill. Quite worth $1,300. To a quick $1,000.
- No. 7-Russell 1905 Car, 12 h.p. Shaft drive and sliding gear transmission. A fine car. Used but little during one season. $1,000.
- No. 8-Rambler 1905 Touring Car, 18 h.p. Extra large tonneau. Fitted with searchlights, lamps, etc. In fine condition. Special value at $1,000.
- No. 9-Pope Hartford Light Touring Car 1905 Model, 10 H.P. Seats four. Has never been used. Absolutely beautiful car at any price and notable value at our price. $850.
- No. 10-Stevens Duryea Runabout with folding front seat, full leather top. Good car for physician's use. Condition first-rate. Excellent value at $800.
- No. 11-Autocar-12 H.P. Touring Car. Engines up-to-date - placed in front. Sliding gear transmission. 3 speeds and reverse. This car is in good condition and is a sound investment. $725 which is at the special price of $725.
