isiness men of Gananoque, the name of Hugh Wilson appears well up at and the surprise of the physician. the top of the list. Mr. Wilson was born at McCrone's Corners, about four " miles east of Gananoque, in 1852, his father being a farmer in that section. At a very early age Mr. Wilson entered into the business when about twenty years of age, of blacksmthing and farming. started to sell machinery at McCrone's Corners, in which position he displayed that keen business tact and ability to look after "number one," which has characterized him during his sojourn in Gananoque, to which place he removed about fifteen years ago. He at once entered into the agricultural implement business, and best, if not the very largest, business of the kind in Eastern Cntario. Within the past few months he has acquired the Taylor and Green pro perty, on King street, which is being rapidly refitted for office and warerooms throughout the three flats, and made ready for the opening on the 19th of May. Connected by means of an electric elevator, it will furnish him with an establishment second to none in Ontario.

Mr. Wilson's fall sale of live stock attracts blivers from all over the country, and his spring parade is one of the events looked forward to by the farmers of the adjacent town-Personally, Mr. Wilson is one of the best known men in county. A mar of sterling integrity, a staunch temperance supporter, and one of charitable disposition, whenever a worthy cause presents itself. As a citizen he for several years sat at the council board, where his keen business ability was ever used for the furtherance nunicipal interests. Politically, he i liberal of the first water, and of the front rank, and has several times been strongly urged to contest South Leeds, in the interests of the liberal party. However, as yet, he has been unable to see his way clear to accept such honors.

As a churchman Mr. Wilson has been lifelong methodist, and has for many ears past filled a prominent official position on the board of Grace church. During his fifteen years in Gananoque as a man, as a merchant, as a councillor, and in every capacity, he has made many staunch and earnest Pretty Model friends, who wish him every success or the future.

Associated with him in the business of H. Wilson & Son, is his only son, W. J. Wilson, the present mayor of Gananoque, possibly the youngest man who has ever attained to the chief magistracy in this, or any municipality in the dominion. A position too, which he, though young in years, has filled in a most creditable manner. Mr. Wilson has also been a reader of the Whig continuously for more than thirty years.

NEWBORO NEWS.

James Whaley,

Newboro, May 14 .- Another old pioneer in the person of James Whaley passed to his reward last week, aged eighty-four years, after a lingering iliness. Deceased was a native of Ireland and emigrated to this country over fifty years ago, and for many years followed the occupation of plasterer. He married Miss Agnes Baker, of Crosby, who, with five children, survive : William H., Newboro; George, Winnipeg; R. J. and J. E., Westport, and Miss Annie E., of this place. He was a life long member of St. Mary's church, at which the funeral service was conducted by Rev. J.
