

Can't Eat Enough of Mooney's Perfection Cream Sodas

Appetite comes with eating and each square of crisp deliciousness seems to make room for more.

Mooney's Perfection Cream Sodas are different from any other cracker. Nothing heavy or doughy about them but so light and crisp that they are transparent.

Diamonds! Diamonds! We are headquarters for the king of gems.

Among precious stones none are better to own and as they are likely to be more costly in the future, a gift of Diamonds is the rule with those of good judgment.

FOOLED THE WIDOW

SHE RETALIATED BY CUTTING CLOTHING.

She Wasn't Made Love to With Impunity—The Insurance Commission Will Be Finished Work in About Six Weeks.

Ottawa, May 15.—Mrs. O'Leary, aged about fifty years, a buxom widow, hailing from Toronto, was fined $30 and costs in police court, here, to-day, for entering the room of James Grant in Ottawa young man, boarding on Slater street and cutting his clothing. This was done for revenge, the allegation being that Grant was an amorous boarder with Mrs. O'Leary, in Toronto, that he promised to take her to San Francisco to start a restaurant together, and on the strength of this she sold her furniture and gave up her Toronto home.

Repeated letters from Grant, delaying matters, caused her to form suspicions, and coming to Ottawa, she got into his boarding house, took possession of his room, and cut his clothing. She paid the fine, but in view of the treatment accorded her, the magistrate did not assess her for damages to the clothes, saying Grant could claim it in some other court if he wanted to.

The first case heard in the supreme court, to-day, was that of Sutherland vs. the Sux Holding company, vs. the Ontario court of appeal. The appellant, Sutherland, of Winnipeg, purchased 400 shares of Dominion Coal company stock through Ames & Co., Toronto. The shares were bought at 90¢, and appellant paid $8,000 cash.

The brokers advanced the balance, charging interest against the appellant and taking the shares as security. The stock afterwards went up to 130, and the brokers advanced $12,000 more to the appellant. They then began to decline, and Sutherland was asked to protect his margin. He failed to do so, and the brokers sold at $7,000 less than their claim for which they sued. All the courts below ruled in favor of Ames & Co., and the case reached the supreme court, with the present respondents as plaintiffs, after the failure of Ames & Co.

Judge McTavish expects that the insurance commission will complete its work in about six weeks. The commission will resume in Toronto, next Monday, and he said finish in two weeks. There will be a sitting for a few days in Montreal, and the work will be completed in Ottawa, after which the work will be completed at once.

A GAS EXPLOSION In a Colliery Imprisons Sixteen Men. Shenandoah, Penn., May 15.—An explosion of gas occurred at the Shenandoah city colliery of the Philadelphia and Reading company to-day. Sixteen men were in the mine at the time of the explosion. It is not known if any of them were killed. Fire boss, Samuel Powell, was the first person to be taken from the mine. He is so terribly burned that he will probably die. The mine is surrounded by several hundred men, women and children.

It is believed that between twenty and thirty men are imprisoned on the first lift of the colliery. The black vents, following the explosion, prevented prompt rescue. Two men are dead at the bottom of the slope.

THE LATE THOMAS HILTON. The death occurred at an early hour this morning, after but a few days' illness, of a well-known townsmen, Thomas Hilton, at his residence, 386 Princess street. Deceased was born in Kingston seventy years ago and during the later years of his life followed his trade as harness and trunk maker. He was married forty-five years ago to Miss Isabel Shaw, who survives him, beside one daughter, Mrs. G. McArthur, of East Barre, Vt., and one son, Samuel, in Ottawa. Mr. Hilton, in politics, was an ardent liberal and though not a member of any church, was an attendant at St. Stephen's Street Methodist church. The funeral will be on Friday morning.

Fosterville Notes. Fosterville, May 14.—Some of the farmers have finished seeding, others have just commenced, while the housewives are busily engaged in housecleaning. Our mine is in running order, and a large number of men are employed, with A. Last, Elgin, as foreman. Mrs. Dennis Mahoney has been laid up with her daughter, Mrs. P. Davis, who is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. James Kenny have again removed to the lock. Mr. Kenny is going to resume his duties as lock laborer. Captain W. Fleming has returned to his home in Ottawa. Miss L. Murphy, Delta Lake, Miss E. McFarland, and Mr. Griffith, Perth, visited P. Murphy's on Monday.

Inspection at Portmouth. Councillors Baiden, Simmonds and Kennedy made a tour of inspection of the Portmouth streets, last evening, and found that some well-considerable macadam. The plank walk repairs are not done to their satisfaction, and the contractor engaged in his contract revoked. Some of the drains and culverts need opening up and will receive attention. A large basswood tree on Union street, will be cut down, as it is quite rotten, and in a very dangerous condition.

Died in Mexico. William J. Rees, a former Kingstonian, died on May 2nd, at Fort Stanton, New Mexico, whether he had gone for the benefit of his health. For a number of years he had resided with his sister in Philadelphia, Pa., and his health had been gradually failing. Death was due to lung trouble. The deceased was a brother-in-law of C. A. Van Arman, Clergy street, and a cousin of A. J. and Frederick Rees, this city. He left Kingston over five years ago. The late Mr. Rees was at one time an employe of Gunn's wholesale house.

Bans Smoking. Recently the Italian government issued an order that there was to be no more smoking in business hours by officials whose duties brought them into contact with the public. For those whose duties do not it is left to the discretion of heads of departments to allow or to forbid smoking. But their discretion is limited to the cigar and the cigarette. No pipes are to be allowed.

HIS SUSPENSION. Rochester, N.Y., May 15. The verdict in the Dr. Crapsey, heresy case was made public, this morning.

By a four to one vote Dr. Crapsey is convicted and his suspension is recommended.

Died This Morning. One of the city's most respected citizens, a man of quiet and unostentatious manner, living in Kingston for the past twenty-three years following his trade as shoemaker, Henry Angrove, died at eight o'clock, this morning, at his home on Queen street after an illness extending over the greater part of four months.

Mr. Angrove was born in Cornwall, England, sixty-eight years ago, and was married forty-seven years, his widow surviving him. He was a member of St. Stephen's Street Methodist church. He leaves to survive him, eight sons, John, Henry, Thomas, James, Samuel, George, William, and Charles, and one daughter, Mrs. Alfred Horsfall, of the city.

The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon, burial in Cataract cemetery.

Lumbering And Frog Concerts. Plinton, May 14.—The post office has been removed to Beatty's grocery. Mr. Alcornbrack is going to the North-West, where he intends homesteading. We wish him well. If he improves land, he will be the post office business, he will be a great benefit to the community. He proved a careful and efficient man with the post office and telephone. There are two camps added to the gang on the river from other places, as men seem to be filled with the idea of homesteading. Philip Bowler has bought the old Leonard homestead, and moved there on, it being one of the oldest cleared farms in the country. Bullfrogs are the order of the day, the swamps seem to be filled with them. There are a few old fellows howling, "Go run, go run," all day long. The cold weather and frost during the past week, don't seem to have hurt anything. Fruit trees will soon be loaded with blossoms and everything is growing nicely. Grass seems to be the only thing that does not advance on account of the cold nights. The big canoe has come, with chains and anchors, to be fitted to the lake. It is a load in itself, and will carry about twenty men, with their pole poles. Fishing for black suckers is about done. Many went to Loon and back lakes for them, and came back well-rejoiced to find that the Plinton cheese factory is not doing a very rushing business on account of the scarcity of milk. We suppose Rev. Mr. Garbutt, will soon be removed as he has been here three years.

Surplus of Stock. Sharpton, May 14.—Stock of all kinds have been returned on the pastures except working horses. There is a large surplus of last year's hay left over. The city of Sharpton, through the Mohan's, Mr. Garrison, Colbrook, who is drilling wells in the vicinity, passed through here. Israel Ballock has moved into Mr. Maine's house. An auctioneer will sell some of the road. Miss M. Smith of the city, is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. Somerville. D. Parks has gone to work in Dexter, N.Y. Mrs. J. Koen is visiting her mother, Mrs. Drumm, Belleville.

AN ARMED MANHOOD

WOULD ORGANIZE WITH A VIEW TO EFFICIENCY.

While Not in Direction of Compulsory Adult Service Would Train Youth to Military Discipline and in Use of the Rifle.

London, May 15.—In a discussion in the House of Lords of compulsory service in the militia for home defence Earl Dundas said that a school of thought had arisen which realized that the empire was but a paper empire unless it was defended by an armed and organized manhood. It was a school of thought which would insist on the government organizing the manhood of the nation, not in the direction of militarism, but in the direction of common-sense efficiency.

While it was not necessary to institute compulsory adult service, he considered it wise to compulsorily train the youth to military discipline and knowledge of the rifle. He hoped the government would put forward a scheme for the defence of the empire by its armed manhood.

THE GREATEST NEED. President Roosevelt Would Say, Clean Men.

Delmar, Del. June. If I were to go to the president of the United States and ask him to name the country's greatest need he would answer in his quick, conclusive way, "Clean men." I know, Smart men there are by thousands; rich men abound more than in any other age of the world; able men are found in every state and township, but even from a population of eighty millions the chief executive has difficulty in finding the man of exceptional character for a post which requires a square and flawless morality. It is to his credit that he misses no opportunity to preach clean manhood. But neither presidents nor preachers nor teachers can do the work of fathers except in their own families. We do not mean to underestimate the marvelous influence of the mother. In most lands men who reach success give their mothers the credit. "All that I am I owe to my mother," said Lincoln. "It was you who taught me to write so. You really did, dear mother," said Carlyle. We get our moral qualities from our mothers, our mental from our fathers, say the physiologists, and as we look back, we find this maternal affection the loveliest thing on earth. But isn't there a conviction down deep in our souls that we should have done much better if our fathers had taken time and trouble to share our confidences in the years that counted most?

HOW ABOUT LACE CURTAINS?

Our Lace Curtains have this year been of such exceptionally good quality and designs, and marked at such low pleasing prices (because we bought our assortment direct from the makers) that selling has been easy. Merely a matter of a customer finding it a little difficult to choose a design from such a large assortment that will satisfy her taste for several seasons—for all customers seem to know and fully appreciate the fact that our curtains will wear and wash, and wear and wash again, over and over. But a design is always chosen and we've heard no complaints.

In Nottingham Lace Curtains the range of prices seems almost endless—and there's generally more than one design at a price. For a bed-room or out-of-the-way window, either our 25c. or 35c. a pair curtains will be found quite appropriate. Continuing we have better curtains, per pair, 49, 65, 75, 90c., 1.00, 1.15, 1.25, 1.45, 1.50, 1.69, 1.75, 1.85, 1.95, 2.00, 2.25, 2.50, 2.75, 2.90, 2.99, and 3.50, and in lovely Swiss Nets from 2.75 to 7.50 a pair; but what we consider our greatest values are the following two specials:—

No. 462, Nottingham Lace Curtains, full 3 1/2 yards long, in one of the prettiest and most popular patterns of this season, excellent regular value at 2.50 a pair, which we got same as the other special and will sell to-morrow (ask for No. 472), per pair, only 1.99.
