cott's Liniment Burns, Canker, Neuraleta, Rheumatism, Lame Back or Excellent Hair Restore

emodelled epaired

and 80 Brock Street Only Exclusive Fur Store

FERN DISHES re more graceful and ising than have been. FRUIT DISHES ainty designs also in demand. Phone 666 uers of Marriage Licenses in McKay ants 0,000 ring Rats ouse, 149-153 Brock Street

-NICHT

egular 25 center. Tosale 15c, each. O-Silk Cotton Hose, cial Sale of Plain elts, worth 40c. Tosale 25c. each.

bay $1.25 for. It's a e at the price and you well to see it. Mon-95c. each.

al sale of Dress Goods lay. Lustres 25c. and hmeres 39c. and up, itings 50c. and up.

MAN&SHAW

4 3 3 3

FAST DISAPPEARING BEFORE EF FORTS OF CIVILIZATION.

Established 1859

Corby's

Absolutely pure.

quality and price.

flavors, 3 pkgs.

Wheat Vigor, 2 pkgs.

Gallon Apples, cans

Olives, bottles,

Olives, bottles,

Jumbo pkes.

McLaren's Invincible Jelly Powder.

Greig's -White Swan Breakfast

Quaker Rolled Oats, Jumbo pkgs.

Eureka Minute Tapioca, pkgs.

Cooked Meats, Sausages, etc.

Pine Apples, Lemons, etc.

Phone 417.

Choice Biscuits and Cookies, 3 lbs. 25c.

Green Vegetables, Granges, Bananas,

F. W. VAN LUVE!

246 Princess Street.

SCORN REWARD.

Refuse Pay for Returning $20

May 19.-An example

rare honesty is related by the Von Mentanesa, a Santander newspaper.

Two army, sergeants named Bellons and Elena, passing through the Calle

Mendez Nunez, saw a parcel tied up in a silk handkerchief. It was found to contain bank notes valued at 100;

The soldiers passed on, and presently of distress, seemed to be looking met a woman who, with visible signs some lost object. Asking if they could he of any service, the senora gave a correct description of the package and finders a handsome reward, but they declined, having, as they said, done

no more than their duty. The bank longed to a well known Cuban family officers, who, it is hoped, will not

Have We Had Time?

And grow by true companionship

And wear the impress of His wish?

And help us walk erect, through and storm show cheer, ithin the soul sin's hidden stain

The footsteps meent for you and me

Campbell Bros., To-Night.

pounds of tea, annually pass through the hands of the merchants trading in the vicinity of Mincing-lane and

Men Restored

To Vigor

average, about 250,000,000

If you have prestatic trouble, blood poison, bladder and kidney

M State Boards of Medical Exam-on of which will be sent in order to

For children's nobby headwear.

Re sure the contacts will indure through-

Revive a thought of love for Him again, steady the steps that falter, help us see their act pass unrewarded.

by faith His face.

with Christ?

its contents, which, without more ade was thereupon handed back to her.

The delighted owners offered notes in question, it transpired,

000 pesetas ($20,000).

10c. and 15c

Condensed Mince Meat, pkgs.

Quaker Puffed Rice, pkgs.

Original Members of the Order of Crim Reduced Murder to An Art - Not Mere Vulgar Slayers of Men-Criminal Life Where Son Follows Father.

It was a happy inspiration that led the adoption of the word "thug" as very sound is suggestive of silent and sudden murder. It echoes the thug of

This, of course, is a mere coincidence the word is not English, in spite of its sound. It is Hindostanee. In England it has no newspaper currency, but retains its historical meaning, a caste of Indian stranglers. In becoming popular the term has murderers. They were religious devotees and artists in crime. De Quincey would have given them high rank among the practitioners of "Murder Considered as a Fine Art." The thugs, indeed, were under vows to Kall Devi, the black-browed consort of Siva the Destroyer. She is that terrible personage who appears in the Hindoo pantheon as a fierce but beautiful woman, riding on a tiger, or as hideous, blood-stained idol, garlanded with skulls. Banded together as caste brethren, the thugs hunted men to offer them the deity of destruction, and ecause she required a bloodless sacri-

The thugs, not being cannibals, could not live by mere murder, so they robbed their victims and divided the spoils between themselves and the temples of Kali. As a religious body they were protected by the Brahmins and by pious but impecunious rajahs, who licensed and taxed them. It was an easy way for a ruler to increase his revenue, and the victims were traveling merchants who would not be missed.

During the many centuries of war and anarchy in India Thuggee flourished mightily. Under Aurungzebe, to whom as a Moslem Kali was an abhorrent idol, it suffered a check. Hindo fanaticism supported it. The Nawab of Surat had captured a band of thugs and was about to release them for a ransom offered by certain Banians, who hoped to acquire "religious merit" by the act. The Emperor ordered the thugs to be strung up by the left hands in the jungle and left there to die. The Banians, prototypes of the sentimentalists who present notorious modern criminals with bouquets, banqueted the strangiers before the execution. These terrors of the Indian highway are now extinct, like the sabre-toothed tiger. About sixty years ago many hundreds were executed and the remainder transported or put to work at tentmaking and other peaceful trades in

It was the writer's privilege a few years back to visit one of the last of hese world famous stranglers. He had been captured young and sentenced to imprisonment for life in a central In-

In a cool corridor that overlooked the sunlit garden a venerable o. I man was weaving the pattern of a Persian carpet. Tall and erect, with snowy mustache and high caste features, he might have passed in uniform for a British colonel bronzed by years of service. He showed not a single one of the criteria of the type criminal as described by Lom-

Nadhoo, so he was called, had been so long a prisoner that he was rather cared for as a curiosity, a museum specimen, than treated as a criminal He had become an expert in weaving. and when the loom were idle was by service of the Kall. His father led him to the secret place in the jungle and there initiated him, by the weird rite of the corpse and the dagger, into the freemasonry of the brotherhood. He learned their signs, how to inter-Tulsi Ram, a notorious thug, executed long ago for his crimes, he told this

"Tulsi Ram was the right arm of Kali, and I was the right arm of Tulsi ging for permission to join his train for the sake of protection against

A twinkle in the old man's eyes be-

"Nasur was as hard as the stones he YOU PAY AFTER YOU ARE CURED he demanded for his protection was high. Then I told him that the Rajah of Mulwa had news of the approach of his carayan, and Nasur's heart became as water, for he feared the horsemen Goldberg's acceptance of a case is equivalent to a of Mulws and the toll they take.

"Nasur's heart was glad within him when he rode aside from Mulwa, and when he met Tulsi Ram merry was his Quiet merchants all, they seemed-my brothers-and Nasur's men chatted with them, as travelers, of price and grain. And as they conversed together they made a jest about the thugs so my brethren gathered around Nasur Khan and his men, two to a traveler. and when all were listening open mouthed to a story of Hatim Tal's an owl hooted twice from the jungle. That was the signal." The old man illustrated with wrist and knuckle the act of tightening th tomak a handkerchief, around the neck of the victim. He told how the travelers were buried while warm in the graves that had been prepared for them. for himself, it was his destiny to be a potter's son takes to the potter's wheal; I the coppersmith's to the tinkling ham-

Strangely enough, the veteran became himself a sacrifice to the goddess of his vows. For Kali Devi is also the patroness of that scourge of India, cholera morbus, and next hot weather the old thug passed away during an epidemic. Kall had stretched out one of her hundred hands and called her devotees

From this confession it seems that winning the confidence of their victims was the mainstay of the thug business. Theirs was not the bold overt, "Your money or your life" attack of the bandit, but the crafty approach of the criminal tactician. They reckoned on taking their man off his guard, as the 'coney catcher" did in sixteenth century London and as the bunco man does to-day in Western America. Confidence operators are as old as graft itself.

The work of suppressing thuggee was done by Col. Sleeman, one of those martyrs to exile and official duty that the Indian civil service needs and trains. In the district where he replaced blackmail and brigandage by law and order the town of Sleemanabad-Sleeman's city-stands for his monument. The long task of rounding up the thug bands was made easier by disaffection within their ranks. The powerful religious band was broken when unbelieving Moslems were admitted as members of the robber caste and rose to be leaders. The Kali worship became a mere pretext for robbery and murder, and thugof a strong executive. One is not surprised to hear of European criminals adopting methods more less like those of the thugs. If a obber can trust his pal, two heads and two pairs of hands are better than one. A skillful grasp on the throat by one man stifles the cry for help and safeguards the operations of his partner. But as no idea of religious duty would avail in court they must stop short of strangulation or risk a charge of mur-

The garrotters who infested London in the '60's choked but did not kill the late returning citizens. When ohloroform came into use in surgery the under world of crime, or at any rate its master minds, at once appreciated its value. It was paihless, it was safefor them; the victim would awake in state of mental confusion; he could give the police no clew. The drug became popular with the scientific criminals who operated on English railroad ines, where the closed compartments ecure privacy. Sometimes a subject died under chloroform by misadventure, but that might have happened at hands of a young medical practi-

In Paris, however, the tricks of Indian thuggees have been closely followed. Look over the files of the Parisian papers of recent years and you will find accounts of men found dead in lonely places with leather cords around their necks and empty pockets. They had resisted the attacks of strangler thieves. In other cases wealthy men, returning ate from the opera on foot, fell victims to the handkerchief trick. In this case the "foulard" of heavy Lyons silk took the place of the cotton "rumal" of

A robber dressed like a workman etit bourgeois would approach a belated clubman and offer him for sale a ring, ostensibly picked up from the pavement. If monsieur did not take alarm the robber's partner, who had crept behind his victim, snared his mouth and throat in a noose. Then with a quick jiu-jitsu turn the thug heaved him off the ground on to hi back, like a sack of coal, and his partner stepped up and rifled monsieur's pockets. The victim was then dropped on the pavement with force enough to stun him and the thuge made their

The French gendarmerle trace this lever and bloodless operation to the eaching of a professor who lectured in the criminal quarter of Paris some sixty ears since. About that time the thugs of India were being brought to trial and the revelations that followed excited interest in Europe. It is very ikely that the professor borrowed his ine of treatment from these published cases. But old Nadhoo of the jail would have said that the spirit of an executed thug had incarnated itself in the Frenchman in order to propagate the mystery of thuggee in the virgin soil

The thugs of India, it was said, began as devotees, but ended as brigands. Some form of brigandage, indeed, seems epidemic in Asiatic countries that are not ruled by the strong hand. Burmah is a case in point and so are the Philip-

The thugs of Burmah were called dacoits. During the first few years of the British occupation the troops were actively employed in small detachments in running down the "dakus" and laying their chiefs by the heels. It was a rough school for subalterus. The nature of the warfare is well illustrated in Kipling's "The Taking of Lungstungpen," a tale of the harrying of a dacoit stronghold by Mulvaney's detachment. But dacoity is now extinct in Burmah and the country is policed by native constabulary.

New to Him.

At a musical comedy in London from his seat in the stalls Clyde Fitch noticed a young man in one of the boxes laughing uproariously. His companion was a critic, and Mr. Fitch said to him That chap in the box seems to be enjoying himself." "He is the author." said the critic. "Well, then," said Fitch, 'I think he ought to have better taste than to laugh so loud" said the critic, "he is the author, but he never heard these jokes before. They were put in by the comedian,"

Stevenson's Samoan Residence. It is reported that the Samoan resi dence of Robert Louis Stevenson, Vail ma, will become a tourist hotel, or may be that it will be made the official residence of the German representative. A syndicate of Philadelphians is negotiating with the present owner of the villa with the tourist hotel plan in view. while the German Government is desirous of acquiring the property and contemplates making an offer.

The kind of girl with whom to go Through life, your life to bless, Nor no when you say yes.

IN ENGLISH COURTS.

Errors of Justice Will Be Less Frequent When Court Is Established.

A new principle in English law is laid down by the Lord Chancellor's bill to establish a Court of Criminal Appeal. The pressing ne'd of such a bill has een shown by the Beck case of wrongconviction. During the past few years many mem have suffered severe penalties for crimes they did not commit, and had a Court of Criminal Appeal been in existence their innocence might have been established.

The effect of the Lord Chancellor's reasure, which is a very far-reaching one, will be to give a person convicted indictment of a criminal offence an prestricted right of appeal on all ent, the convicted person's only chance of appeal rests on a technicality. Should he judge agree to this appeal it is conidered by the Court for the Consideraion of Crown Cases R served. All this is swept away by the new oill, and the appeal is allowed as the privilege of the citizen both in law and n fact. The Court of Criminal Appeal will consist of "at least three judges of the High Court." The bill affects all convictions in ordinary criminal cases tried at assizes or quarter sessions The prerogative of mercy is not interfered with, and a prisoner is to be al-owed the privilege that at present exists of appealing to the Home Secretary. That Minister can, however, regee fell before the repressive measures mit the case to the Court of Criminal Appeal if he considers it outside his dis-Appeal in cases where sentence of death has been passed is not allowed. but is permissible in every other case, whether at the assizes or quarter sesons. When it is reheard in the Court of Criminal Appeal, that body can eithed quash the conviction and direct acquittal, or quash the judgment passed at the trial and pass what other sentence they may think fit. The Criminal Appeal Court may also at the time the offence was committed and order him to be kept in custody as a criminal lunatic. Notice of the desire to appeal must be given within ten days of conviction. Should the convict exercise his privilege, the judge who has tried him shall make a report to the Appeal Court.

insider that an appellant was insane

That body, however, cannot pass a severer sentence than has been imposed at the first trial. The Criminal Appeal Court may sit either in public or with closed doors. It has the right to hear the case in the absence of the appellant, but it may assign him legal aid should his means be insufficient to obtain it for himself.

MR. BURNS' COURT SUIT.

The act does not extend to Scotland

Made by the Firm Which Supplied Hit Uniform When a Page Boy. At last the secret as to who made

John Burns' court suit has been divulged. Messrs. Hill Brothers of Old Bond street had the privilege. W. Rines, the mayor of Battersea, who is a tailor himself, tells, in Tailor and Cutter, the story of how every tailor in London wanted the order and how every pressman tried to penetrate the

Why Mr. Burns went to Hill's is question which naturally arises in many minds," he says. "We cannot do better than give Mr. Burns' own explanation, "In thinking over the matter," said

Mr. Burns, 'I thought I could not do better than patronize, as a Cabinet Minister, the firm whose workmen had made and presented me with a suit, and so made me an honorary customer of the firm, when I first entered Parliament as a private member.' "This makes the third occasion upon which Mr. Burns' career has been linked at important points with the firm. Some thirty-five years ago, when he became page-boy, the gentleman with customer of the Bond street firm, and his first uniform was made there. "This sequence of events is remarkable, to say the least of it. First as page-boy, then as plain M. P., now as a Right Honorable, with Cabinet rank. "Who shall say what the future has in store? Some day, perhaps, we shall have to chronicle the fact that Hill's Bldg., Chicago. have made his Prime Minister's uni-writing in London Opinion and To-day on the unequal talent to be found in the House of Commons, tells a story he heard of a coxcomb who was once mistaken for Bernard Shaw. He and Mr. Shaw were once in the same Turkish bath, lying on slabs, with towels over their faces. The attendant came along and touched the coxcomb on the shoul-"Ready, Mr. Shaw?" he said. The coxcomb bounded to his feet, all aglow with pleasure at being mistaken for a man of intellect. After he had been rubbed down he gave the attendant half a sovereign, for so full was he of the pride that goeth before a fall. As he turned to go he said, "Er-my man-er -what made you mistake me for Bernard Shaw?" The attendant grinned same sized feet."

Resemblance to Shaw. A. G. Hales, the war correspondent

Played Chees and Music Together. There is perhaps no sounder musician lving than Sir Watter Parratt, the master of the King's music, and it would require something of a musical genius to accomplish the feat Sir Walter performed when staying with some musical friends at Tenbury some years ago. To while away the evening chess was suggested, and Sir Waller proposed that he should sit at the plane and play friends on the chessboard at the same with his back to the board Sir Walter of age, while playing with another la sat at the piano and played Chopin and Mendelssohn, calling out his moves whenever necessary. He won the game n three-quarters of an hour.-London

England's Problem of Unamployed. If the manning of British ships with national seamen became universal in practice there would be a living found Will never say yes when you say se for 40,000 of the unemployed. Syren and Shipping daughter of Field Marshall Sir land, 14; Boston, 1.

WASHARDARAN CONTROL OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PRO THE PEOPLE'S

CONDENSED ADVERTISING

RATES secutive inscrtion thereafter 4c. a word. Minimum charge for one

Advt. 4 lines or under a wonth, $2 Everybody in Kingston Reads the WHI

HELP WANTED-MALE.

AN ACTIVE MAN, A BUTCHER PRE-As the criminal law stands at pres-TEN PAINTERS IMMEDIATELY, ON the Steamer Turbinia, at the Government Dry Dock, SMART BOY, WITH SOME KNOWledge of printing, Good opportunity. Apply Whig office. COMPOSITOR, EXPERIENCED, USED to display setting and making forms. British Whig.

MAN TO WORK ROUND GREENhouse, and make himself generally useful. Apply O. G. Johnson. HELP, THE YEAR ROUND, SITU ations vacant, domestics, hotel and factories. Department "B.," Wellington street.

BOYS OVER 14 YEARS OF AGE, Apply to J. A. Gould & Co.,

ACTIVE, RELIABLE BOY, GOOD pening and steady employment to Company, 141 Princess street.

Liberal

Cavers Bros., Galt. Out.

GENTLEMEN TO HAVE THEIR have an up-to-date suit made. Galloway's, 131 Brock street.

terms.

GENTLEMAN OF 40. WEIGHT 198 height over 6 foot, desires chance to learn some business. Full knowledge of horses. Has family and would be gin at $7 to $9 per week. Apply Box, No. 555, Whig office. MEN AND BOYS TO LEARN PLUME

ing. Plastering, Bricklaying. Special offer life scholarship fifty dollars. easy payments; position and Union guaranteed; free catalogue Bros., Trade Schools, New York, Chicago, St. Louis.

WANTED.

GIRLS AND BOYS, APPLY AT Oberndorffer's Cigar Factory Ontari DOMINION MAGAZINE"

P. O. Box 153 Toronto. UPHOLSTERING, REPAIRING, CARto-order, at Miller's. 210 Division

OD PAY FOR EARNEST WORK

samples and advertising matter. No canvassing. Cooperative Advertising Co., New York. PEOPLE TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF he splendid opportunity afforded by bookkeeper, a servant, in fact, help of any kind, a small advt. will supply it. The cost is small; the response prompt and sure PURSE CONTAINING BILLS AND Welfington, Princess or King Sts. Reward for its return to this

PERSONALS. UNG HANDSOME INTELLIGENT American woman, wealthy in her own right, also large Stock Farm containing choice farming land; immediately and will ass financially. Address Miss

ALTHY MUSINESS MAN WORTH cash $40,000 with beautiful home in city and cottage in country, desires immediately true loving wife. No objections to working girl or widow. ddress Mr. H Room 578, Ceylon

FIRE IN THE CABIN. Oakum Was Burning Briskly-Men

Hort.b

Arrested. midnight, Friday, while on his beat, on Ontario street, Police Constable Arniel saw two men board the schooner Grantham at the waterworks dock. Followed by his brother William of Booth's yard, who carried light the officer boarded the boat and dicovered the men in the cabin, a pile of onkum smoking beside them. They were both under the influence of liquor, and one was endeavoring to stamp out what promised to be blaze. Arniel had arrived in time to prevent what might have been the loss of the schooner. However, there was no proof that the two men had com-"Er-well, sir, you see, sir, you 'ave the mitted arson and they flatly denied they had set the onkum on fire. They were, however, taken into custody, and this morning appeared in court as Gordon Macdonald and Samuel Snider from Gananoque. They were

> DROWNING ACCIDENT Boy Nine Years Old Meets

days on the charge of being drunk.

Watery Grave. Morrisburg, Ont., May 19,-A time. The challenge was accepted, and Thursday, Willie Beckstend, nine years drowned. The suction of the water took him through the gates into the lume. The body was recovered in thirty minutes and every effort was made by Dr. McLaughtin to resuscitate him but without avail.

Baseball Summary National league Cincinnati, 7: Bos on, 6. Brooklyn, 7; St. Louis, A marriage has been arranged be-burg, 7; New York, 6.-

HELP WANTED-FEMALE.

KITCHEN GIRL AND DINING ROOM girl. Apply Hotel Congress, King GENERAL SERVANT. NO WASH

ing. Good wages. Apply in the even ORESSMAKER, EXPERIENCED; AL so apprentices. Apply Miss Richardson, 308 Johnston street.

GENERAL SERVANT. NO WASH ing or ironing. Apply to Mrs. E. C. Mitchell, 154 Earl street. A GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. NO Washing or troning. Apply to Mrs.

GOOD GENERAL SERVANT. NO Mrs. T. McKean Robertson, Lower Union street.

EXPERIENCED AND INEXPER enced girl to work in paper box factory. Good wages. Apply King-ston Hosiery Co., King street.

Be A Hustler.

"I was in Duluth, Minn," said Kingston man this morning, "when read the first telegram, announcing the destruction of San Francisco by earthquake. It was early in ceived a printed letter-from a publishing house, asking me to act as agent for a book descriptive of the great catastrophe. That's hastling. The up-to-date, wide-awake man he man who wins out to-day, and he is the only one who does. If you have an article to sell, a house to rent, or a want unfulfilled, you must make the facts known by the widest possible publicity. You must do it to-day. Do not wait until the other man gets the suits pressed and cleaned carefully by start of you. Put your advt. in the hand; also bring your cloth and Whig, and the number of replies will astonish you.

FOR SALE.

LADY'S CRESENT BICYCLE, IN PHAETON, ALMOST Intest style. Apply

HREE SWARMS OF BEES: ALSO Address "T. T.," Whig office.

CITY AND FARM PROPERTIES Our plan. No sale. No pay. De partment "D.," 203 Wellington St. MERICAN ENCYCLOPEDIA, NEW sixten volumes, at a discount, for special reason. Apply through Whig THE ONLY AVAILABLE FIRST class vacant lot, on Lower Union St. Beautiful view of city park. Apply 203 Wellington St., Dept. "D."

WO-STOREY, NINE-ROOMED SOLH price $1,150. Apply 203 Wellington OLID BUILT HOUSE, VERY NICE locality, western part of City rooms, large lot, fruit trees, con this column. If you want a clerk, a Apply Box 20, Whig office. RESIDENCE OF LATE DR. HERALD, 199 King St. All modern improvements, hot water heating, gas and electric light. Central location. For full information, apply to E. E. Horsey, 6 Market street. CEGANT UPRIGHT GRAND PIANO

Very slightly used. Can't be told from new. Very low price for cash. Party leaving town in a few days. For price and particulars, write at once to Box "P.," Whig office. INVESTMENT, OWNER Four, (4) good tennesments. Three (8) that rent for over $200. The fourth includes Corner Good clean locality. Good grocery trade established. No repairs heeded. Sanitary conditions, A 1.

Price, $3,400. Particulars, 203
Wellington St., Dept. "D." MEDICALS.

occupied by Dr. Ryan, corner Mon-treal and Brock streets.

TO-LET. W. G. Frost, 299 Queen street.

HOUSE, 237 QUEEN ST. POSSES alon May let. Permit for inspection Apply Steacy & Steacy.

PLEASANT WELL FURNISHED HE BRICK RESIDENCE, 95 WILL-Water heating and improvement

WELLINGS, FOR $7.50, $8, $10.50, $11, $12, $18, $19; $23 and $25; also storage for furniture. McCann's 51 Brock street.

MAY THE FIRST. A SOLID BRICK house, 431 Johnson St. All modern improvements. Heated by furnace. Apply R. Nesbitt, 337 Johnson St.

constructed brick house, 11 rooms, modern improvements, fronts north, detached, opposite Street Railway, near Baptist church, Possession next month, may sell. J. White-

FROM MAY 1ST, 1906. FINE suburban residence known as "Rose-lawn," situate on Union street West, occupied by Major Grant. Ho water heating, good out buildings garden and spacious grounds Apply to Cunningham & Lyon, 79 Clarence street, Kingston, Ont.

ARCHITECTS

WILL NEWLANDS ARCHITECT, OF store, corner Princess and Bago streets. Entrance on Bagot street.

OWER & SON, ARCHITECT, MER-chant's Bank Building, corner Brock and Wellington streets. 'Phone, 212.

ARTHUR ELLIS, ARCHITECT, OF-fice site of New Drill Hall, near cor-ner of Queen and Montreal streets.

MONEY AND RUSINESS.

VERPOOL, LONDON AND GLOBE nsurance Company, Available assets $61,187,215. In addition to the policy holders have for the unlimited liability of all the stockholders. Farm and city pro-perty insured at lowest possible rates. Before renewing old or giving new business set rates from Strange & Strange. Agents.

OUR POLICIES COVER MORE ON

BOARD AND ROOMS

without board ; reference known. Address "H. T.," care Whig PRIVATE BOARD AND ROOMS, AT 428 Princess street, Vaughn Torrace FOR SALE OR TO-LET. EDGEWOOD HOME 169 UNION ST il modern conveniences; exceller ocation; large grounds. Possession May 1st. Also two building Apply to R. W. Anglin. Essex, Out.

LOST OR STOLEN. BEAGLE DOG, BLACK, WHITE AND tan, answers to the name "Tuck, Information requested by Cart. W. S. Hughes, 132 King street.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ARTICLES FOR SALE DUNLOP COVERS, $2.85

Manufacturer's Sacrifice

> The Somerville Co. have been ordered by the makers to introduce their goods. To do so means to sell not more than four pairs of the "EXCELDA" STOCK-INGS at 20c. per pair for the 25c Stockings, and 40c. per pair for the 50c. Stock-

Also Superior Stocking Supports at Bargain

GRAHAM IN NEW YORK.

Was Chief Speaker at Canadian

New York, May 19.-The Canadian club, of New York, gave its second cessfully. It was a false notion, h annual banquet at the Hotel Astor, said, to believe the French-Canadian with George P. Graham, Brockville, was not loval to the government. On Ont., as the principal speaker. Bis subject was "The Canadian Parlia | are the most loyal citizens we have ment," and, in speaking of that body, They have given to Canada some of e said : "It is like the British par- the brightest intellects in the iament, yet unlike it. Our parliament minion. has less power than the governor, In France, out of every 1,000 inhabitants 123 are more than sixty years old, as against 73 in England and 79 tween Captain Ivor Currie, R.A., son American league—Chicago, 10; Washitants 123 are more than sixty years old, as against 73 in England and 79 tween Captain Ivor Currie, R.A., son American league—Chicago, 10; Washitants 123 are more than sixty years old, as against 73 in England and 79 tween Captain Ivor Currie, R.A., son American league—Chicago, 10; Washitants 123 are more than sixty years of Major General Fendall Currie, and ington, 0. Philadelphia, 4; Detroit, 3, and 1, while your congress has greater power one of the greatest men of the age. the rate of four a squadron.

The speaker referred to the failur ment of Canada, and expressed the opinion that the British government was the only one that could have carried out the work of colonization suc the contrary, he went on to say, they

Be sure you are right, and then take George White, of White Hall, Bally- Eastern league-Rochester, 3; Jersey Personally I like him because he is Don't court trouble unless you want mount, City, 0. Buffalo, 12; Newark, 3.

orains, Strains, Chilble Large bottle, 25 cents. nd Scalp Cleanser for sale at your drugwist, it yes be procured at James B.

ow is o Have urs ilver Pieces are to-day. uming more art and decy in construction than rced. Burnished Raw it Dishes, Poke Bonnet ther style Fruit Dishes, y Finish, with rich e borderings in relief, MITH BROS. ewelers :: Opticians dered Turnover Colrth roc. and 15c., for Embroidered Colen work pattern, with can buy neat pattern dy of them all, cele-Hermsdorf dye, seam-, perfectly tast colors, izes. Extra value at ill sell a large size 11 wilt for 95c. that you harged as cured, it will be a permanent ember he is willing to wait for his pay inals Were Religious Devotees Who suffered some degradation, for the thugs of India were no vulgar sluggers and fice they killed their victim by suffo-

strict confinement

just arrived from Havana, who were staying at the principal hotel in Santander. As the men steadfastly refuse no means unwilling to talk of his exto accept money, the case has been periences as a thug. He had been born brought to the notice of their superior in the caste, and devoted early to the > pret the omen of the owl, the patter of the "ramawsi"-the secret language of the craft. Being a precocious youth, as he said, he was selected to play the part of "talker," or confidence man. He was ostensibly a traveler on the Delhi road where the Indian Midland Railway now runs, for his brother, who dealt in silks and cotton goods in a Deccan city. Of his exploits as talker of the band of Ram: It was I who decoyed Nasur Khan, the rich jeweler, with coaxing words, as men take carp from a pond by tickling their sides. "Nasur was journeying to Delhi with gems from Mysore and a caravan laden with silks in bales and rich brocades. I came before him as a poor trader, beg-