AUCTION SALE

OF VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY situated in the Township of Pittsburg, on SATURDAY, the 26th day of May, at eleven o'clock forenoon, on Brock street, Market Square, Kingston.

I have received instructions from Shortall Brothers to offer for sale by auction their farm, situate near Jervisville in the Sixth Concession in the Township of Pittsburg.

The farm consists of 275 acres, more or less, all of which, with the exception of about 200 acres, is more or less wooded. There is a good dwelling house, three barns, wood shed, granary, drive house, cow stable, milk house and windmill on the premises; plenty of good water in the farm yard all the year round.

There are about 60 acres at present mowed.

The terms of sale, which are reasonable, will be made known at the time of the auction, or may be had by applying to the undersigned.

THE AMNESTY

In Russia, Will Be Proclaimed May 27th.

MEASURE LIMITED

CONSTITUTIONAL DEMOCRATS VERY GRUDDING.

Act of Grace From Which Terrorists Are Excluded—Convicts Being Released, by Hundreds, in the Provinces.

St. Petersburg, May 23.—The long awaited political amnesty, it is learned from a government source, will be proclaimed on May 27th, the anniversary of the coronation of Emperor Nicholas II. The measure, as anticipated, will be limited, but it is authoritatively stated that the constitutional democratic party is prepared, though grudgingly, to accept the act of grace from which terrorists are excluded.

The administration daily is cutting down the number of prisoners, who may be affected by the amnesty; releasing convicts by hundreds in the provinces; while among those released in St. Petersburg are twenty-seven members of the council of workmen's delegates, who drew up the famous manifesto, protesting a raid on the government's gold reserves.

Premier Gorevsky has been summoned to go to Petrohof, to-day, for a conference with the czar to put the final touches to the speech which the premier will deliver, unless unforeseen contingencies prevent, in the lower house of parliament, on Friday, setting forth the government's position on the various points in the house's address in reply to the speech from the throne.

TWO PREMIERS RESIGN.

But King Asks Them For Reconsideration.

Budapest, Hungary, May 23.—It is reported that Dr. Alexander Wekerle, the Hungarian premier and minister of finance, and Prince Conrad, Hohenlohe Schillingherst, the Austrian premier and minister of the interior, have tendered their resignations, but that the emperor, King Francis Joseph, instructed them to, upon further negotiations with a view of reaching an agreement on the vexed question of a customs convention between the two countries.

Fire At Bancroft.

Belleville, Ont., May 22.—A disastrous fire occurred in the village of Bancroft, in the northern part of the county, at an early hour this morning, when the newly erected George block was totally destroyed by fire with a loss estimated at $10,000. The burned out were: Weiss, jeweler; Dr. Lovitt, Dr. Embury's drug store; Mr. Lean, dentist; Mr. Ray, who resided upstairs, lost everything. The recently dedicated Masonic hall was also totally destroyed. Building owned by Elvin George; insured for $1,500.

HER PREDICTIONS

Have Caused Interest Owing to Success.

TOD TRUTH

A Criminal Who Had This Peculiarity.

WAS A BAD THIEF

ONE OF THE MOST CURIOUS POLICE MET.

He Started Life Under Very Favorable Auspices When He Learned That a Beautiful Girl Had Deceived Him He Went to the Bad, But Retained His Truthfulness.

London, May 23.—Among the many types of criminals perhaps one of the strangest and most interesting is Frank Russell, better known as "Truthful Frank," who has just been sentenced at Clerkenwell sessions to two years' penal servitude as a railway thief. The name "Truthful Frank" was given to Russell by the police themselves, because through his long career of crime, when once fairly caught, he has always, as a sort of religion, strictly confined his statements to the truth. Time after time the police have tested in every detail the truth of his confessions and found them borne out in every particular.

These confessions, it must be understood, were not voluntary, but if he was asked any questions relating to the particular crime for which he had been laid by the law, nothing would induce him to jeopardize the reputation which he had gained, of never having told a lie. The police, in giving him his title hold him as one of the most curious of the many curious human documents which have passed through their hands.

Frank Russell is not the real name of this extraordinary criminal. His real name is that of a well-known Scotch of England family, which is held in the highest esteem, a name which Frank Russell has always had the good feeling and consideration of never assuming or actually himself disclosing. Interwoven with his early life is an unhappy romance, which, though common enough in ordinary life, would seem to account much for the wayward paths of this undoubted clever criminal.

He started life under the brightest and most promising auspices and received an excellent education, intending to become a medical specialist. At one of the hospitals he became acquainted with a beautiful girl, and formed a strong attachment for her. When he discovered that she had deceived him and that her parents were by no means of the character that she had represented to him, he was not heard again, until more than a year later, when he was first convicted of horse stealing. Since then he has continued his career of crime, confining himself especially to horse stealing and railway thefts.

RARE DISHES; RARE PRICES.

Sharks' Fins, and Bird's-Nest Soup.

London, May 23.—Smart London hotels catering to wealthy gourmets are supplying rare dishes at rare prices. "Turtles' fins at five shillings, sharks' fins at ten shillings, a cut from a young kangaroo ten to fifteen shillings, and Chinese bird's nest soup at five shillings a plate are among the costly rarities.

Quail de Rothschild is a choice dish. Its ingredients are quail stuffed with orelan, pate de foie gras, truffles and other delicacies. A dish for eight persons can be obtained for about $40.

"Trite au bleu" is another exquisite morsel. It is essentially of the last extremity of flavor is to be secured that the trout for this dish be put alive in boiling water. The best trout for the purpose can only be procured in Scotland. As soon as they are caught they are transferred to a special tank car and shipped by rail to London. During the whole journey a man has to aerate the water to keep the fish lively, and by the time a dish of perhaps six fish reaches the table it will cost $100.

MAN DIES OF GLANDERS.

Wife and Neighbor Also Ill With Disease.

Morden, Man., May 23.—Frederick Hall, a farmer, living near here, died Sunday night, from glanders and was buried next morning. Some weeks ago he was attacked with glanders and died of the disease. Later a veterinary declared it glanders, and the animals were destroyed. Two weeks ago the unfortunate man developed glanders and died. His wife took ill a few days ago; also a neighbor named McCormick, who had been a faithful attendant on the deceased, and it is feared that both will develop the awful disease. No person has been permitted to enter the house, except those absolutely necessary to remove the corpse, and the building will be burned.

FEW WILL SEE WEDDING.

Church Chosen for Spanish Ceremony is Small.

Madrid, May 23.—The Spanish capital is on the tiptoe of expectation over the marriage of the king on May 31st, and the week of celebration. Decorations and arches are slowly going up both at the country place at El Pardo, and at the Royal Palace at Madrid. Very few persons will see the actual wedding, for the Church of St. Geronimo is very small, a nave with dark side chapels and only the slightest of transepts. Last week thousands of persons in picturesque costume swarmed into Madrid for the great festival of San Isidro, the patron saint of Madrid. A fair was opened on the meadows by the Manzanares, and will go on until after the wedding.

LONG HAIR OUT OF STYLE.

Thence, May 23.—Long hair is no longer fashionable among Cornell College students. The real fashionable, up-to-date style is a closely clipped pate.

It is said that the fashion started in a bet. A club wagered its hair against that of another club on a baseball game of the intercollegiate series. The winning club took the short locks and had them stuffed into a commemorative pillow. Then the losers started out to persuade others to join them in shedding their hair.

Visitors from Auburn are said to feel uncomfortable in the streets of Ithaca since the custom has obtained vague.

DARBY AND JOAN.

London, May 23.—Mr. and Mrs. William Woodless, of Lambeth, near Gainsborough, have celebrated the seventieth anniversary of their wedding day. They were married at Lambeth on April 20th, 1836, and have lived in the same cottage for more than sixty-five years. They have seventy-three descendants.

It cools the blood, Saline Laxative, "Red Cross Brand," sold only at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. Take no other.

SING WHILE THEY FLEE.

Make Hole Through Four Thicknesses of Wall.

Newport, Vt., May 23.—Singing and shouting hoisterously to cover up the noise of their operations, three federal prisoners, John Jenkins, Joseph McDonald and William Irving, awaiting trial on the charge of robbing the post-office at Norton's Mills, April 21st, broke through four thicknesses of brick walls with a window weight, and escaped from the Orleans county jail, yesterday, in broad daylight. A few minutes after the prisoners had crawled out of their cell they were seen spluttering down the main street. An alarm was immediately given, whereupon the men dropped their leisurely manner and soon had passed out of sight in the woods on the outskirts of the town.

HAIR EMBROIDERY.

Children's Locks to Be Used to Beautify Altar Cloth.

Children's hair will be used to embroider an altar cloth which Miss Sheffield, the well-known embroiderer of ecclesiastical work, has been commissioned to design.

The hair, four tresses of which will be used, has been cut from the heads of four little girls, the children of a Roman Catholic lady who has given the amount of the commission.

The design on the cloth will represent a flaming heart, having at the corners four angels in adoration. It is to be embroidered the heads of these angels that the hair—the colors of which range from the darkest auburn to the palest gold—will be used.

NIAGARA FALLS.

Congress to Meet Demands of Chicago Canal.

Washington, May 23.—The house committee on rivers and harbors has agreed to an amendment to the bill for the preservation of Niagara Falls, calculated to meet the demands of the Chicago drainage canal. The amendment establishes the principle that the United States government reserves the right to be the sole judge in dealing with other nations as to the amount of water that may be taken from the great lakes, for sanitary or domestic purposes, in various states.

BIAS BLEW A HOLE IN JOURNAL OFFICE WALL.

Gananoque, May 23.—The Wanderers defeated the Wharf Rats at baseball by 7 to 1. William Knight umpired. The Bachelors were defeated by the Crescents by 6 to 2.

With the pressure on the water mains for test, yesterday, the result was very satisfactory, no breakages appearing. Last evening the local fire brigade was out for practice, and did good work, throwing a solid column of water well up to the peak of the spire of Grace church.

George Whitmarsh had a pleasure party out in his launch, the Laura B. Last evening, in honor of his cousin, Miss Maggie Cronk, of Deseronto.

LAWYER A COUNTERFEITER.

Profession Did Not Yield Sufficient for Requirements.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 23.—William B. Schwartz, a member of the local bar, was arrested by federal officers on a charge of counterfeiting. Schwartz confessed to the officers and surrendered the dies he was making the spurious coins. His law practice, he said, did not yield a sufficient income for the support of his sick wife.

Garf Rescues Kittens At Fire.

Hartford City, Ind., May 23.—During the fire in the Tynor block, here, there was an unusual exhibition of fine instinct.

While the flames and smoke filled the room a cat, which had a family of four in the rear of the store, made use of the fire-escape in rescuing her family. She carried two kittens across counters and shelves to reach a window. Here she left them and went after the other two.

The mother cat was drenched on her return trip, but safely carried the third to the landing. The firemen, noting her efforts, rescued the fourth.

One-Legged Bride Wanted.

Bristol, May 23.—The following advertisement appears in a Bristol paper: "Widower, living retired, without circumstances, would like to correspond with lady about forty, with small means, with one leg preferred, with a view to an early marriage."

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

Toronto, Ont., May 23.—(10 a.m.)—Moderate variable winds, fair and warm, with local thunder storms Thursday, easterly winds, cooler and unsettled.
