COAL

COAL

The "Quality"

Counts in coal bins in America just the same as "quality" counts among people "down south" and among European nations—counts everywhere for that matter. We guarantee coal quality to travel with every ton leaving our yard, because the finest mines in the country are back of us, because we're careful as to cleaning and delivering.

Especially For Women

FRUIT-A-TIVES are the finest medicine in the world for women.

As a mild and gentle laxative—as a positive and speedy cure for Constipation and Biliousness—as the only cure for weak and irritated kidneys and especially for "that pain in the back"—as a positive cure for headaches—and as a general tonic to build up and invigorate the whole system—FRUIT-A-TIVES stand supreme.

In cases of irritated Ovaries, Ovarian Pains, Vaginal Catarrh, Excessive and Scanty Menstruation, Ulcerations, Bearing Down Pains—and all those troubles peculiar to women—have the most remarkable effect. Ninety-nine cases out of a hundred of Female Troubles are due to neglected bowels become constipated—kidneys irregular—skin neglected—and the poisons of the body, which should be carried off by these important organs, are taken up by the blood, carried to the female organs and poison them, thus starting up a train of female troubles.

Fruit-a-tives

OR "FRUIT LIVER TABLETS"

FRUIT-A-TIVES are made from fruits and by their remarkable action on bowels, kidneys and skin, rid the system of poisons, purify the blood, and restore the delicate organs of generation to new vigor and health.

No woman, who suffers, should ever be without them. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50, at your druggist's or sent postpaid by FRUIT-A-TIVES LIMITED - OTTAWA.

The Well-made Skirt means everything in graceful gowning.

The least dip or raping at the waist behind will ruin the best of gowns.

"MINERYA"

Adjustable Band Dress Skirt is the surest preventive of gaping plackets that has ever been devised.

The back gore is drawn up firmly and fastened around the waist. The plackets cannot be exposed.

Two Memorable Days.

This is Empire day, so called by those who, keeping in mind the wisdom of promoting a patriotic feeling among the young, selected May 23rd for suggestive observances. We do not make enough of the patriotic idea. We do not cultivate it sufficiently. Speech and song are means to an end, and that end the laudation of all things Canadian. But the true patriotic spirit is inborn and inbred and finds expression in the every-day life of the individual. The tradition, that the soul of the man swells within him as he remembers that he is an Englishman, points to the emotions that should actuate one as he recalls that he is a Canadian. This pride of nationality and country is not something which is offensive in display. It makes one a better citizen and whatever conduces to this result is to be commended.

The proceedings of Empire day very properly precede those which mark another anniversary, not any longer the birthday of a queen, but the memorial of her greatness. The 24th of May has been so long observed as a day of rejoicing that it would now be missed, and hence it has been decided to perpetuate it. It is a day of reflection, of thanksgiving, of gratitude for the comfort, independence and safety vouchsafed to British subjects. The empire reached its greatest supremacy in the reign of Queen Victoria, and it is fitting that there should be an annual reminder of this fact. The king sees in the anniversary that which merits his most grateful appreciation.

An Evidence Of Wrong?

Why are the names of the members of the North Atlantic Trading company so carefully guarded? Is it because the government fears that some member of the Interior department will be found in a false or faulty position? Assuredly not. It had been insinuated, and in a way which showed the animus that lay behind it, that an ex-minister had an interest in the business, but that has been denied. And Mr. Sifton took the only position he could do safely, and challenged Mr. Foster, or any associate of his, to make specific charges.

Mr. Smart, formerly deputy minister of the interior and now an officer of the North Atlantic Trading company, explained why he could not divulge its membership. It was illegal to enter some countries on the continent and hold out any inducement to their people to emigrate. The better class of immigrants are not the discontents who move out of any nation because they will not submit to its laws and customs. These are not sought by the United States, and they should not be sought by Canada.

The Canadian government was not at liberty to push its publication of facts relating to the soil and its advantages in certain centres, and so it accepted the work of booking agents whether they operated singly or in companies. It is contended that the North Atlantic Trading company put in the way of going to Canada over a hundred thousand men who would not have headed for it without their influence, and there ought to be some way of checking the returns and establishing the facts.

So far there has been a great deal said that does not bear upon the case. The quarrel among the immigrant agents is a side issue. The question is, Has the country been defrauded out of any money by the use that has been made of the North Atlantic company in promoting immigration? Was the company paid any more for its service than was paid to other booking agents? If not—and there has been no grafting on the part of the government official—what is all the row about? If actual wrong doing there has not yet been any exposure.

The Red Cross society was the outcome of a convention which met at Geneva in 1863.

Jumping Jim Crow.

The attitude of the opposition on the Arctic enquiry is open to question. When, in the excess of their abuse, they insinuated fraud, alleging that the vessel had not capacity for the "lush" that was said to have been aboard of her, the premier announced that he would have the charge examined.

When the motion for this reference came before the house the conservatives objected because it was not comprehensive enough. Mr. Borden wanted to know why there could not be something in the Arctic and other cases quite as injudicious as that now in progress upon insurance.

This recalls the attitude of the Ontario opposition to the judicial enquiry in the Gamey case. It was alleged that the investigation should not be taken out of the legislature, and there is a vivid remembrance of the manner in which the opposition stormed because they could not have their way. Indeed the Gamey party is reported to the alimist language in their references to the judges who looked into and reported upon the case.

When the insurance commission was named some fault was found. It was pointed out that the New York legislative committee had performed a splendid work, and that it should have been imitated in Canada and so far as the Canadian companies are concerned. Why go to the judges and the laymen outside of the house when there are in it so many who are fitted for the special service which the circumstances call for!

There is a peculiar vacillation in the plans of the party and it is not remarkable that the vote on the Arctic case should be in keeping with it. The opposition raved against the Laurier resolution, because it did not suit them, and then showed their fatuity by voting for it in a body. They shouted "nay" when the question was put, but they voted "yea" when the division was registered.

Now let us hope there will be a searching examination of all the records. If there has been grating the country wants to know it.

A Discovery.

A Denver physician says that more persons go insane during the strawberry season than at any other time. That's where the faculty's season lasts longer. Some of the faculty have wheels in their heads all the year round.

Here's A Pointer.

Hamilton Herald.

If it can be established as a fact, as Mr. Preston says, the North Atlantic Trading company sent to Canada 125,000 emigrants who would not otherwise have come here, the fact will go far to excuse the peculiar methods of the company.

Sir Mac's Wants.

Ottawa Free Press.

The conservative members of the senate have presented Sir Mackenzie Bowell with a magnificent hat clock. A stop watch would perhaps have been more serviceable to enable the ex-premier to take time at the senatorial foot-race which is yet due.

A New Model.

Editorial Notes.

The conservative executive have reason to kick against the manner in which the party patronage is being handed out. It ought to be recognized.

In the west there is lighting of houses and factories and hotels by private plants. They are run by gas engines, and have pronounced a great success.

Winston Churchill is saying some really nice things about the self-governing colonies. When he forgets for the time being his greatness he becomes really sensible. And he's yet so young.

The bill posters have decided to suppress the lurid thing called show bills. These men have dared to do what the law and the crown failed to do. Henceforth there will be pictorial decency on the outer walls.

Mr. Barker, M.P., is becoming discouraged. He is not making as much out of Preston, chief immigration commissioner, as he expected. But Mr. Barker has never been distinguished as a cross-examiner.

Mr. Hearst is again pursuing Mayor McClelland. He alleges a miscount of votes. Hearst was so far behind, however, that he could not possibly be counted in. He should, therefore, go away back and sit down.

Here's something very remarkable. Whitelaw Reid, American ambassador at the court of St. James, protests against the adulteration of the English language with American slang. My countrymen, what do you think of that?

Governor Higgins of New York, has vetoed, or blotted out, some of the legislature's finest work. One was the act against the undue use of water from the Niagara river. Strange that one man's judgment should be better than that of many men.

The douma and the czar are becoming reconciled. Or rather the douma has discovered that its dignity and usefulness have not been hurt by the czar's refusal to receive its reply to his address by a deputation. If he acts upon its advice, it is a matter of no moment how he receives it.

Seed Samples.

Ottawa, May 23.—The distribution of seed samples from the experimental farm has been completed for the season, and no less than eighty tons of these samples were given out. This is the largest distribution in the history of the farm. There were 12,000 applications for seed potatoes alone, which meant eighteen tons, to be given out as each sample package contained one and one-half pounds.
