BEER BARREL RAFT

TERRIBLE VOYAGE OF 2,000 MILES BY CONVICTS.

Six Discovered on Island of New Britain in Deplorable Condition—Escaped From Noumea Twelve Months Ago.

Sydney, May 29.—A sensational story of the sea is related by the officers of the German steamer Wilhelm, which has arrived at Sydney from the island of the Bismark Archipelago.

A few weeks ago six French convicts from New Caledonia were discovered on a remote portion of the island of New Britain in a deplorable condition, and on being questioned it was ascertained that they, with ten others, had escaped from Noumea nearly twelve months ago.

They constructed several rude rafts from staves of best barked, and rigged their frail craft with sails of the most primitive description.

John Laidlaw & Son Colored Summer Wash Fabrics, Wednesday

It's a question if you can get an adequate of the loveliness woven into wash materials this season, in any other way than by coming here and taking time to examine them.

There's a perfect revelry of delicate colors in them now, which will infect the observer with the very spirit of summer sunshine and gladness.

In some materials we have all colors at all prices; in others, several colors at several prices; and in others, a few colors at low prices.

Crum's Famous English Galateas, Chambrys, Gingham, —"English," Too!

English Galateas, in pretty new stripes and checks of red and blue, per yard, 10, 12 1/2, 15, 18, 20 and 25c.

English Chambrys, for waists and shirt-waists, in light and dark blues, pinks, hollis, grey and cardinals (not all colors at each price), though, per yard, 12 1/2, 15, and 20c.

English Ginchams, of splendid standard quality, per yard, 12 1/2, 15 and 20c.

No other materials seem to take the place of these, for making children's little tulle dresses, boys' blouses, etc. We now have the genuine English Oxford Shirts, in fancy new checks and stripes of pretty blues and greys, per yard, 12 1/2, 15, 18 and 20c.

Also the Canadian Oxford Shirts, in about the same range of colors, per yard, 10c, 12c and 15c.

Black for the Summer White Swiss Spot Muslins

The necessity for mourning wear need by no means cause an uncommon demand for these lovely fabrics for some time past, but now—well, now we have a very large assortment which, though here for no other purpose than to be sold, we hope and believe will have a very general and to a greater extent satisfy the existing popular wishes.

For to-morrow, these— Black India Linens, of fine pure qualities which have become so popular for waists especially, per yard, 20, 25, 25 and 30c. And Black Organzas, of very fine even qualities, per yard, 25 and 30c.
