Prince Edward Cheesemen Gave Dr. Puhlow a Feast.
On Wednesday night Prince Edward county dairymen gave what was voted by everyone the finest banquet ever held in Picton, in honor of U.A. Puh-low, M.D., of this city, who has lately resigned as cheese instructor of the syndicate. All the prominent men of the county, numbering about two hundred, were present. The speakers included: J. A. Sprague, James Anderson, G. N. Rose, W. McCallan, S.
Gearing, E. A. Wilson, E. M. Young, W. Bouter, R. Dobson and Warden Malloy.
Dr. Puhlow was in town, this morning, en route to Montreal, where, on Friday, he will enter upon his work as chief inspector for Frederick Fowler & Co., the large wholesale exporters.
Dr. Puhlow told the Whig he expected to try the council the coming fall in Toronto, and if successful, he will practice medicine, giving up the cheese business.

Told in the Twilight

Mrs. James Cappon gave her house, yesterday, for Miss Alice Macnee's bride. The great and was hence the lovely presiding genius of it all. Play resulted in the first prize being won by Miss Carrie Waldron. This was a beautiful card case of green leather.
The second prize fell to Miss Mabel Brownfield, and was a gold brooch, enamelled in green, with a pendant baroque pearl. The tea table was very lovely with street peas, and here were Miss Mabel Brownfield and Miss Kathleen Kirkpatrick, pouring coffee and cutting ices. Helping in the tea-room were Miss Bessie Gordon, Miss Nora Gordon, Miss Dorothy Brownfield, Miss Nora Macnee, and Miss Doris Kent. There were four tables in play, and afterwards a number of people came in for tea. Among those present were Mrs. Walter Macnee, Mrs.
Francis Macnee, Mrs. Walter Mac-ne, Miss Edith Folger, Miss Nan Skinner, Miss Florence Cunningham, Miss Katie Gordon, Miss Gertrude and Miss Kathleen McFarland, the Misses Stranzenmeyer, Miss Knight, Miss Constance and Miss Mildred Cooke, Miss Bessie and Miss May Smythe, Miss Sjostedt, Miss Ethel Waldron, Miss Alice King, Miss Mildred Macmorris, Miss Corretta Swift, Miss Marion Calvin, Miss Marion Lesslie, Miss Lettice Tandy, Miss Mabel King, Miss Lillian Kent, Miss Lorraine Dalton, Miss Adelaide Ritchie, and Miss Madelon Carter.

People always accept an invitation to Mrs. John Fairlie's pretty, cosy house with great pleasure, sure of a rural welcome from the hospitable hos-tes. The tea given by Mrs. Fairlie, yesterday, was no exception to former entertainments at her house. Miss Regina Fairlie received with her mother, and Miss Anna, Miss Margaret, and Miss Catharine Fairlie were about constantly in drawing-room and dining-room, helping to make people enjoy themselves. Miss Nina Ferguson was in charge of the tea table, and helping the daughters of the house in distributing refreshments.
Miss Gertrude Craig, and Miss Mabel King. It might very readily have been called an apple blossom tea. Large bunches of the lovely flowers were in large bowls in the drawing-room, and the arrangement of the tea table spoke of very artistic fingers. A bowl, in the centre, held apple blossoms, and strawberries, and from it, on the cloth, were hung away the white blossoms with lovely wood violet. Violets were also in small vases about the table. The whole effect, simple as it was, was particularly lovely. Among the guests were:
Miss Lyman, Miss Annie and Miss Jean Scott, Miss Jean and Miss Katie Craig, Miss Belle Craig, Miss Mona Knight, Miss Eleanor Macdonnell, Miss Winifred and Miss Alice Hague, Miss Katie Fowler, Miss Katie Murray, Miss Jean Taylor, Miss Emily Sears, Miss Margaret King, Miss F.
Smith, Miss Hilda Jordan, Miss G.
Oldrieve and others.

The last meeting of the Bridge Club was held at Miss Bessie Shytle's, on Wednesday evening, when it was found that the aggregate prizes for the season were won by Miss Mabel Brownfield and Mr. P. C. Campbell. These prizes, which are given by the men belonging to the club, will be presented at the first meeting in the autumn.
The prizes last night were won by Miss Adelaide Ritchie and Mr. James Mills.

Miss Milly Ferris has issued invitations for a tea on Wednesday next at "The Willows."
Miss Beatrice Cannon, a daughter of Mr. George Cannon, who formerly lived in Kingston, and who, last summer, visited her aunt, Mrs. R. J.
Vair, was married on May 7th to Mr.
J. Albert Scour, of Rochester, N.Y.
Many Kingston friends will wish her long life and happiness. The bride and groom have gone south for a couple of months.

Mrs. Edward A. Rees will not receive again until the autumn, when she will receive, as usual, on the first and second Fridays of each month.
Mrs. Hiram Calvin has been spending a few days with Mrs. John Mac-ne, at "The Ramparts," and will return to Smith's Falls on Saturday for a visit, and on her return will be with her mother, Mrs. W. Lesslie, on Cartwright street.

wright are spending a few weeks in town at 352 Johnson street.

few days.
Mrs. W. J. B. White's friends are glad to see her about again, after her long confinement to the house with her ailing little people.
Mrs. Henry Book has returned to town, from "The Ramparts." Mr. G. F. Joy has returned from the North-West, and will remain for a short time with Mrs. Henry Percival, Queen street, before sailing for his home in England.

Rates.
Toronto, May 31.—In the board of trade case before the railway commission, this morning, the evidence being the bare statement of the board was submitted for that side. The railways called witnesses further to substantiate the contention that water competition settled rates between Montreal and Toronto. In the argument which commenced, R. A. Steele brought out the fact that rates from Montreal and from Toronto to places west, such as Winnipeg, were the same. It was intimated that the board might make an appeal on this morning. Peley Howland, Hugh Blain and Hon. A. G. Blair spoke.
