A WARM SUBJECT

There's nothing in the world we're so much interested in as Coal at this time of the year. It may sound queer to speak of coal buying and selling as a science, but that's what we've made it. Two important discoveries we have made are that complete satisfaction to our customers pays best, and that the way to win business is to deserve it.

The Signs of Heart Trouble

You can Surely Secure Heart Health and Strength through Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

Heart weakness which can be dealt with at all is nerve weakness. Just as your hand trembles when its nerves are weak, when your heart nerves are weak your heart flutters and palpitates. Other signs are shortness of breath after slight exercise; fainting spells; pain or tenderness about the heart caused by irregular heart action; smoking sensation as if the heart was in the throat; uneasy sensation in the chest, showing that the heart isn't working right; pain when you lie on your right side, but frequently the left side, painful and difficult breathing; smothered feeling. There is absolutely only one way to treat a weak heart. That is to bring back natural and permanent strength to its nerves. Can you imagine how anything else can be done? Dr. Shoop's Restorative will bring back the strength to the heart nerves always. There is nothing in this remedy to stimulate; nothing that leads to reaction. The strength that it gives is natural and permanent. It is just the same strength as Nature gives to those who are well. Dr. Shoop's Restorative creates strength which extends over the whole inside nerve system—it overcomes the cause of the trouble as well as the result. For sale and recommended by

HOW HILL LEFT CANADA.

At St. Paul He Did Not Have a Dollar.

J. J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railroad company, a former Canadian, writes:

When I was nineteen years old I concluded to leave my home at Rockwood, Canada, and go to the United States. Perhaps I might have done just as well in Canada but I did not think so. Others remained there and prospered. I have many relations today around Guelph. I had not saved sufficient money to make the trip west, so I went over to Syracuse, N.Y., and worked a few months on a farm. That was the spring of 1858. It was July 4th of that year I started west. I can never forget that day, for it was a big day in my life and also a big day in the life of the American republic—their Independence day.

When I reached St. Paul, a week later, I practically had not a dollar to my name and knew not a single individual there. My progress was mighty slow for ten years. It consisted of some rough experience. I was without what is known as a "trade," and this was against me. I was forced to do manual labor. Still, I mingled with rough-and-ready people, and it sharpened my wits. When I was handling baggage as a railroad employee in those days, I cannot say that I ever expected to own a railroad. I did intend, however, not to work for another man all my life, though I believe I work harder today than I did then. They, at least, I had no cares if my wages were small. With increased income came additional burdens. I became a shipbuilder in a small way. This was my introduction into the transportation world.

But Canadian boys should make up their minds that they have as fine opportunities at home to-day for getting rich as anywhere in the world. I have some thirty Canadians here in my general offices, and young Canada is spreading out a good deal, but it is usually easier to acquire fortune in a new country than an old, and, in a sense, Western Canada is a new country. That is the centre of great enterprises at present. Great fortunes are to be made there in the next decade.
