GREAT SHOW AT WARWICK Historical Pageant to Review 19 Cen-

All Warwick is at work in preparation for the great historical pageant which is to take place at the castle

Over 5,000 seats already are booked for the spectacle, in which lords and ladies, rich and poor, great and small will take part. Every mali brings quiries from both home and abroad. Tickets in large numbers have been taken by notable county families. Lord and Lady Warwick will attend with a party, including the Duchess of Suthnd and Lord and Lady Helmsley. One episode, "The Kingmaker," will be in the hands of Lord and Lady Wildistinguished amateurs. More than fifty horsemen will appear in the scene galloping into the arena from hidd
