Moore, aged thirty, pastor of the Paptist church of Prospect Must Be Sold To Close Up Estate prayed Sunday morning for the re moval of "obstacles to church work even by death, if necessary," the trustees held a meeting immediately after the service and decided to request his resignation. For some time the pastor and portion of his people have been sword points and his prayer was regarded as a thrust at those who op posed him. An attempt was made to keep the church closed that evening but friends of the pastor secured the keys and opened the building. The Rev. Mr. Moore is still in charge, It's Now Up To The Sultan.
