THE OPIUM YOKE

BRITAIN TO FREE CHINA OF INCUBUS.

A Hundred-Year Monopoly—Last Year England Derived a Revenue of $25,000,000—Labor Parliament Move.

London, June 18.—After many years it appears that England will consent to renounce the opium yoke which she imposed upon China more than a hundred years ago.

England's annual revenue from the tax on opium produced in India and sold to China, is enormous. Last year it was over $25,000,000. It was to secure this revenue that England secured more than a hundred years has denied China the right to prohibit the import of opium.

The present labor-liberal parliament, however, has consented to put an end to England's traffic in opium, and awaits word from China.

Opium, the dried juice of the poppy, is grown in certain parts of India under strict regulations. The amount of opium cultivation is limited by law, the present limit being 627,300 acres. The cultivation of opium is carried on by the government, which fixes the price at which the grower must sell his crop to government opium agents, who ship the stuff to the government factories.

Only a small proportion of the prepared opium is consumed in India, being handled by the excise department, while the bulk is sold monthly by auctions at Calcutta for export to China. Thus a huge revenue is derived by British from its opium monopoly.

THE ARBITRATION

In Regard to the Kingston and Perth Road.

The arbitration proceeding in connection with the proposed expropriation of the Kingston and Perth toll road by the county of Frontenac began in the police court chamber at two o'clock Monday afternoon. In attendance were the three arbitrators, J. M. Farrell (chairman); Dr. Ryan, representing the county council; Corndius Barmingham, representing the Kingston and Perth Road company; T. L. Snook, W. County Councillor Stinson, chairman of the county toll road committee, County Clerk Edwards, and J. D. Thompson, county registrar, with the road deeds, etc., were also in attendance.

The chairman asked the county representatives what they were prepared to pay for the road.

"Three thousand dollars," replied Mr. Snook.

The company prepared to accept that amount? asked the chairman.

"We certainly are not," replied Mr. Whiting. "We spurn the offer."

The mode of procedure agreed upon was that the company should give evidence as to what they considered the road was worth, then the county would give its evidence as to what it considered should be paid for the road, and finally the company should have the right of reply.

As Mr. Whiting understood that the meeting was to be on Tuesday afternoon, and members of the company were not present, it was agreed to first take evidence from Mr. Thompson, first take evidence from Mr. Thompson, as to registration of certain deeds, concerning road in question.

On August 30th, 1897, there was a deed to George H. Macdonald, of one sixth interest for $150. On February 10th, 1898, George H. Macdonald decided one-third interest to R. H. Fair for $700. On February 10th, 1899, the executors of J. A. Macdonald divided one-third interest to Robert McLeod for $700. On March 1st, 1899, R. V. Rogers, executor, decided one-twelfth interest to Robert McLeod for $325. On October 21st, 1899, Robert McLeod sold one-half interest in the road to H. Fair for $1,950. Then on March 25th, 1901, R. H. Fair, R. H. Smythe and E. Aldridge, conveyed the whole road to the Kingston and Perth Road company for $13,000.
