He Had An Arrangement With the Authorities By Which He Was to Pay Calls-The Chief Justice's Remark.

Toronto, June 23.—That the keeper of a house of ill-fame had an agreement with a township council, that he was not to be prosecuted if he paid sums into the township coffers, is the astounding tale which comes from the neighborhood of Sturgeon Falls. Affidavits to this effect were produced before the control of the market have taken great the pains to have the forestalling laws kept, with marked results.
