PART WITH TRESES. Annual Hair Fair Held at Limgoes, France.

Paris, June 25.—The market place at Limgoes was filled yesterday with girls bargaining for the sale of their hair. It was the periodical hair fair, where dealers find the best tresses in the world. The girls stood demurely while dealers in fancy hats, hats, hats, Moscow and elsewhere critically examined their hair, and a price being agreed upon, they accompanied the buyers to appointed places to have their tresses cut off. The price varied from forty-three to fifty-three francs a pound. One family unitedly parted with eighty-six pounds of hair, realizing for it over 4,500 francs ($900).

Strides in Thirty Years. Thirty years ago on Monday the telephone was placed before the public at the centennial exposition, Philadelphia. The managers, regarding it as rather more interesting than useful, gave the telephone an inconspicuous place. As a matter of fact, but for the interest taken in it by Don Pedro, the emperor of Brazil, the telephone might not have attracted much popular attention during the centennial. Don Pedro's interest in it made it one of the features of the show, and the inventor, Alexander Graham Bell, recited over it Hamlet's soliloquy, greatly to the emperor's delight. Electric light was at that time a curiosity. There have been great strides in thirty years.

A Public Caution. The caretaker of the dairy school has been given instructions to take the names of all parties trespassing on the lawn. Boys, especially of late, have been using it for a playground, racing across it, etc. If continued, prosecutions will take place.

No pains have been spared to beautify the grounds and it certainly is one of the best kept lawns in the city and in keeping with the dairy school.

WOULD NOT WED UNITARIANS.

Decided That it Would Be Hypocrisy.

London, June 29.—The Right Rev. Arthur Ingram, Bishop of London, said in an address yesterday that nothing in his diocese gave him more trouble than the marriage question. He was lately asked to sanction the marriage of two American Unitarians, one of the churches of the diocese. He unhesitatingly decided it would be hypocrisy on the part of the celebrating clergyman and hypocrisy on the part of the persons wanting to be wedded. The service was permitted by the Unitarian doctrine and must only be used by those baptized into the Christian church.
