Who Made The Find?

When Mr. McDougall ceased to act as auditor general, when he resigned in a post because he could not have the audit act construed to suit him, it was intimated that the government would be happy.

No Ground For Protest.

A writer in Human Life discusses the experience of Torrey and Alexander in Philadelphia, and regards it as a failure. The famous evangelists had gone to the Quaker City from Toronto, and entered on a mission for which there had been months of preparation.

Labour Men Disgruntled.

The labour men, as represented in the Toronto District Labour Council, embracing some of the most active and useful men, have held before the local government their grievances.

Was The Mission Misjudged

There is a loud cry from the conservative press because, in the provision of railway subsidies, aiding old lines or projecting new ones, there are no federal funds for the Temiscaming railway.

IN OPEN REVOLT.

King's Portrait and Royal Emblems Removed. Rome, July 7.—The people of Trepani, in Sicily, have pulled down the portrait of King Victor Emmanuel, which stood in the municipal chamber and supplanted it by a marble bust of Signor Nuncio Nasi.

JUDGE SHOT STUDENT.

Used Gun on Rival for Woman's Affections. Knoxville, Tenn., July 7.—Samuel Parker, a college athlete of Helena, Tenn., was shot and fatally wounded when he alighted from a Cincinnati Southern train at Helena, Thursday night by Judge S. J. B. Fulton, a prominent attorney and politician of Scott county. The cause of the tragedy is reported to be jealousy over a woman. Fulton used a shot gun in firing at Parker, and a dangerous wound was inflicted. Fulton is under arrest. Parker is one of the best known college athletes of the south, having played for three years on the University of Tennessee baseball and football teams.

HAIR GONE?

Suppose your hair should all leave you! Then what? Weak hair is the kind that falls out; not strong hair! Just learn a lesson from this. If your hair is falling out, strengthen it. Give it food, hair-food—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It checks falling hair, cures dandruff, and makes the hair soft and smooth.

Why doesn't he act? What is restraining him?

Mr. Roosevelt advises the young men to stick to the farm. Where does he suppose the leader in art, science, commerce and industry are to come from? The farm has supplied the most of them.

What a slaughter of the innocents there was on the 4th of July?

The American papers teem with records of the casualties. There will have to be legislation against the prodigal use of gunpowder in patriotic demonstrations.

Winston Churchill, the phenomenon, was sought by the manager of the Toronto fair as a drawing card, and declined the honor. He may be a better man than Li Hiang Chang, Prince Battenberg, and Earl Grey, but he has to prove it.

The people of Kingston are reminded, sadly, that the city gets a normal school though it is represented in the legislature by a liberal. That's nothing. Kingston got many a favour from the liberals while a conservative represented it in the local house.

Some retail men have been swarming at Ottawa and practically asking for permission to tickle the people through the aid of a combine. It will be in order for the pea and shell men to next ask for an amendment in the criminal code so far as they are concerned.

Elsewhere in this issue appears a report of the annual statement of the Standard Bank of Canada, at the close of its 31st financial year, ending 31st of May last.

The local branch of this enterprising institution is splendidly situated at the corner of Princess and Bagot streets, in the heart of the business district of Kingston, J. S. Turner, the local manager, is building up an excellent business for his bank. The savings department in connection therewith is showing a rapid growth, and the Standard is looked upon as one of Kingston's foremost banking institutions.

The members of the Group of Ten in parliament, are secretly elaborating a plan to force matters to a head. As the first step they propose that the lower house adopt a resolution declaring the country is not bound to pay its obligations to the government so long as the emperor refuses to yield to the demands of parliament. If the constitutional democrats decline to join them in the programme of repudiation, the group of ten propose to issue a manifesto to the country. Their purpose plainly is to compel the government to attempt to dissolve parliament and thus force a rupture.

There was a big row in the lower house of parliament to-day, over the arrest of Sidelnikoff, a radical Co-operative member, by the police. Alladin and other radicals made fiery speeches. Sidelnikoff, who had a revolver in his possession when arrested, has been released.

All government emblems, and arms have been effaced from the municipal buildings, and the council has changed the names of street and called them after Nasi and his family.

An attempt was also made to board a torpedo-boat to haul down the national flag, but the boat left the coast in haste to prevent trouble. The French flag was, however, hoisted on the council buildings, and a post-warrior was wrecked and thrown into the sea.

Troops were hurried to the spot, but it is difficult to ascertain what has happened, and at present all telegrams on the subject are stopped by the censor.
