A Difference Of Opinion. The Toronto World does not surprise any one by its misrepresentation of the minister of justice.

There were many proposed amendments, but they were voted down, because it became apparent that they were advanced for mischievous purposes.

The discussion was on the proposal that Manitoba appropriate the business of the Bell Telephone company in the province.

Notes Not in Demand. The organs of the W.C.T.U. in constant with hope over the early possession by the women of the franchise.

But what have the women in mind and what can they reform in Canada, that they want the franchise?

Candidates for public places, and men interested in public movements, tell us that many women voters cannot be induced to use the franchise.

Does it not indicate to the advocates of full franchise the importance of doing some missionary work among the members of their sex?

Very Suggestive Cartoon. The cartoonist hits it pithily when he draws a picture in which the ex-ministers of the federal government are represented as scholars and public opinion as a stern master.

By the way some of the beneficiaries have not been at all grateful for their favours, Sir Hilbert Tupper led in bitter attacks upon the government.

Coal is stored on hand from the Sun-so of royal descent. Proud of its progeny, we place in the hands of our customers the greatest best value for the money paid.

the position of the pensioners. The money was granted in order that the ex-minister might be compensated in larger measure for his long and self-sacrificing public labors.

Parliament is to be congratulated upon its passage of the Sunday observance bill. It caused acrimonious discussion, because it touched people in different provinces in different ways.

WAS NO NEGLECT IN CONNECTION WITH THE RIDEAU CANAL REPAIRS.

The Accident at Washburn Could Not Have Been Foreseen—How the Mishap Occurred—Sailors Are in Demand.

Superintendent Phillips, of the Rideau Canal system, returned to Kingston, after completion of the repairs on Washburn lock and the resumption of navigation. It is not unusual for reports to be mistaken in regard to breaks about the locks, and on this occasion it was not a case of neglect of repairs.

Government supply boat Scout was in port today. The yacht Ramona left the dry-dock yesterday. Steamer Toronto and Caspian made the trip today.

St. Peter's, July 10.—The testimony in the case of Vice-Admiral Rojstevsky, who is being tried by court martial for the surrender of the destroyer Bedovi in the battle of the Sea of Japan, has been submitted and the addresses of counsel heard.

There is a scarcity of good sailors this summer. Scarcely a vessel comes into port but what the officers are on the lookout for men.
