I have been instructed to sell a block of land bounded by King, Livingston and Pembroke streets, en the standard of leading a domestic life has pleased by King, Livingston and Pembroke streets, en there of Oddfellowship:

F. R. Blewett, of Listowel, is grand master of Ontario. He is a lawyer, and formerly lived in Napanee. His only fault is that he isn't married. Instead of leading a domestic life he spends his spare time in the Listowel Club. His comrades cannot understand why such a fine looking man as the Ontario grand master should not be the father of a family, but as Mr. Blewett is still in middle life, he has plenty of time to redeem himself. Mr. Blewett is active and energetic and a most genial man.
