Vigorous Health is the Great Source of Power to Inspire and Encourage - All Women Should Seek It

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article has said, 'Whatever I am and whatever success I have obtained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life.'

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman. If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

ROAD WORK GOOD. For the Money Expended, Says Writer.

Kepler, July 16.—(To the Editor): In a recent issue of your paper, I notice an article headed, "Road Grant Useless." This is very unfortunate and in justice to K. Joye, who is expending the money, should be contradicted. The criticism was premature. We generally pass judgment on a finished job instead of soon after the work is begun. I do not know the name of your Forest correspondent, but I fear the criticism was offered for political or personal reasons, and if that worthy scribbler will take the trouble to drive over the road he cannot fail to see the justice of his remarks.
