Six Months in "2 in 1."

A Consulting Chemist Makes a Novel Experiment. An Unsolicited Letter that Explains Itself. "I write to state that on account of your '2 in 1' Shoe Polish being criticized, and the charge made that it injured leather, I made this test as follows: I mixed the contents of a box of '2 in 1' Shoe Polish, bought at a retail store from regular stock, with four ounces of water and into this mixture put a kid glove, and left the said glove in the mixture in a bottle from June 15th to December 15th, 1905—a full six months. I then took the glove out, washed it and examined it. The fine leather of the glove was not affected in the least. It was as pliable and soft as when new, and was not altered in condition, nor were the stitches affected in any way. This test, I consider, proves that '2 in 1' does not injure the finest leather. I hereby state that these facts are correct and true. J. M. WILKINS, Consulting Chemist, Hamilton, Dec. 15th, 1905.

LED A DOUBLE LIFE AN EX-MINISTER ADMITTED OFFENCE.

Two Women Claim Him—Divided His Time Between Them Without Suspicion—Judge Commits Him.

London, July 17.—The matrimonial ventures of an ex-minister were investigated at Aston police court, when David Hesterliff Gardner was committed for trial at the assizes on a charge of bigamy.

Mr. Williams, who prosecuted, said that in September, 1877, the prisoner, who was then a minister at Stantonbury, Bucks, married Annie Newman, the daughter of another minister, the marriage taking place at Salter Hall chapel, Kingston.

He left the ministry and became an accountant, his wife, however, resulting in his becoming bankrupt in 1902. At his public examination in bankruptcy it was stated that he had spent $12,500 on a woman to whom he had promised marriage, this being Miss Kirrage, with whom he is now charged with having committed bigamy.

His double life having been revealed by the bankruptcy court, the prisoner, said counsel, began a series of lies, both to his wife and to Miss Kirrage. To the latter he said that his wife had married another man before him, and he was therefore free. Miss Kirrage went through a form of marriage with him on January 14th of this year.

Mr. Gardner, learning of the second marriage, accused her husband, and he finally agreed to give up Miss Kirrage. He persuaded her to send the woman two sums of money. She Gardner then accompanied him to Gravelly Hill, Birmingham, where they resided, but before long the prisoner persuaded Miss Kirrage to come up to Birmingham and live at Stechford. He told her that his wife had confessed to a former marriage. The prisoner wavered, and divided his attention between the two women. At last he asked his wife to agree to a separation, saying that if he could show the separation deed to Miss Kirrage he could get rid of her. Finally Miss Kirrage agreed to the separation. She told him that she was a widow, and that she was a scene.

At the time prisoner went through the form of marriage, Mr. Williams continued, he was writing most affectionate letters to his wife, telling her he was on his knees before her, and that he was the most devoted husband she could wish for. He told her that he was a scene. The prisoner asked the witness if he had been taken with her sanction, and the witness replied: "No, they have not."

AGGRAVATING ITCHING DURING ECZEMA

Affected Whole System—Could Not Sleep Nights—Lost Flesh and All Run Down—Advised By a Friend to Try Cuticura and Now Gladly Recommends

"I write you to say I am cured of eczema, and can say that I owe it to the Cuticura Remedies, and I gladly recommend them to all suffering with any form of eczema. For four long months I suffered agony and an itching and burning feeling which affected my whole system, so as I could not sleep nights, and I did not care to go into public, as I would have no case. I lost flesh and was all run down. I tried everything I could think of and nothing helped me. I was advised by a friend to try Cuticura, which I did, and can truthfully say I got immediate relief. I would gladly recommend Cuticura to any one suffering as I did with eczema, and can verify my statement by members and also intimate friends of my family. I trust that this testimonial may be of some benefit to persons suffering with any skin disease." Chester A. Bailey, 260A Highland Avenue, Somerville, Mass., Oct. 17, 1905.
