GERMAN NEWSPAPERS AS-SAIL THE KAISER.

His Habit of All-Round Interference in Public Affairs Bitterly Resented.

Berlin, Aug. 4.-One of the boldest and most remarkable personal attacks upon the kaiser which a German newspaper has ever had the courage to print was published, this week, by the National Zeitung, of Berlin. The attack is all the more remarkable because it emanates from a journal which is generally understood to be highly "semi-official."

Apropos of the kaiser's failure, up "I suffered with humour for about to the present time, to dignify the three years, off and on.
