

MANY PEOPLE HAVE CATARRH OF KIDNEYS AND DON'T KNOW IT.

Backache, a Warning Symptom of Kidney Trouble.

Per-na Is Invaluable in Such Cases.

Prominent Persons Who Have Been Cured.

Mr. J. Blyler, 1506 Ohio street, Des Moines, Ia., writes: "I wish to state my appreciation of your excellent remedy. I have always enjoyed excellent health, except frequent and painful attacks of bladder trouble, which doctors failed to relieve or cure. Upon recommendation I used Per-na to my utter satisfaction, not having had an attack now for four or five years." - J. Blyler.

Catarrh of Kidneys Caused Much Suffering.

Mr. Leopold Brandl, 210 Bleeker street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I was sick three months with catarrh of the kidneys and lungs. I was treated by my home physician and relieved to some extent, but after I had worked again for two weeks, my old suffering—backache and pains in the right lung—returned. The dreadful cough which bothered me day and night lasted six months and no one could help me. I tried three different patent medicines, without avail. I could scarcely eat anything and slept only a few hours each night. A friend told me to take Per-na. I did so and the second day my appetite had improved. I took a teaspoonful of Per-na every hour, day and night, for three weeks. Now I have taken five bottles. I can eat enough for two people and am able to sleep well. Whenever I meet a sick person, I advise him to take Per-na. I thank you a thousand times for your medicine, as it was the only remedy that saved me. We continue to keep it in our family." - Leopold Brandl.

Dangerous Kidney Diseases Cured.

WHEN the kidneys become affected by catarrh, either from colds, overwork, or an extension of catarrh from some other organ, they fail to perform their normal functions.

It is the work of the kidneys to excrete from the blood many of the poisons which accumulate in the body.

If the kidneys fail in their work, the poisons accumulate to such an extent as to cause convulsions, which often prove fatal.

Per-na, by relieving the kidneys of their congested and catarrhal conditions, leaves them free to act in a normal manner.

It also strengthens the action of the heart, equalizing the circulation of the blood in all parts of the system.

A Remedy that Relieves Catarrhal Deplacements of the Kidneys.

Per-na is such a remedy. It is the work of the kidneys to excrete from the blood many of the poisons which accumulate in the body.

If the kidneys fail in their work, the poisons accumulate to such an extent as to cause convulsions, which often prove fatal.

High Commendation For Per-na. Mr. C. B. Fizer, Mt. Sterling, Ky., writes: "I have suffered with kidney and bladder trouble for ten years past. Last March I commenced using your Per-na and continued for three months. I have not used it since, nor have I felt a pain. I believe that I am well and I therefore give my highest commendation to the curative qualities of Per-na. Neglected catarrh of the kidneys is apt to develop into Bright's Disease or diabetes, when a cure is almost an impossibility."

ROD LICENSE FEE

GOVERNMENT'S ATTITUDE IS SUPPORTED.

By Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association—A Call Upon Sportsmen to Protect Fish and Game.

There has been more or less discussion and controversy of late in regard to the rod license fee charged for anglers non-residents in this province. Some fishing clubs, composed of gentlemen from the United States, have declared that they would no longer fish in this country. Recently A. Kelly Evans, secretary of the Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association, received a letter from Stephen Stone, secretary of the Yan-Kan-Tek Fishing Club, which has a privilege at Moon Run, Ont., asking after I had worked again for two weeks, my old suffering—backache and pains in the right lung—returned. The dreadful cough which bothered me day and night lasted six months and no one could help me. I tried three different patent medicines, without avail. I could scarcely eat anything and slept only a few hours each night.

"I send you copy of the constitution and by-laws of the Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association, together with pamphlet containing the subjects for discussion at our convention, to be held August 31st and September 1st, in Toronto, as among questions is that of a rod license fee being charged non-residents. I believe it likely that the convention will endorse the action of the government in charging a rod license fee, and in restricting the quantity of fish that can be exported by any one person. One of the arguments this association advances is the importance to the province, financially, of its fish and game, as an attraction to visitors from your country. Our game fishing has been much injured by illegal netting and game wardens in the hands of persons coming each year to our country to fish, and thereby show the importance of maintaining good sport; (2) such fees will form an anti-trust revenue gradually increasing in size, which can be devoted toward the expenses of forming and keeping up an efficient corps of fishery overseers and game wardens in the hands of grateful improver of the fishing throughout the province.

"Our citizens welcome you to the province, although many complaints have been made as to a class of sportsmen (?) who entirely disregard our fishery regulations as to the number of fish to be caught, and the limit of size. Of course, the percentage of such sportsmen is very small, but among our own citizens as among yours, and we all know that the real sportsman from your country is just as averse to this sort of thing as is the sportsman from your country. In your letter that your club has invested $10,000 near the Moon River. Does it not occur to you that if the fishing in your neighborhood is greatly improved, your buildings and real estate values (assuming you have such) must increase in value, and also that your members will enjoy better sport?

"If by better protection of our fish and game, the magnificent sport now existing and yet possible to produce in a few years, is in the possession of the authorities, it would attract to our country the richer classes of your citizens, who would insist upon very high hotel accommodations than now is provided. This demand would, in the course of time, be met by supply, and we would have built up the highest class of summer and winter hotels. I appeal to you to help this association to improve the sport you prize, and come to this country for, and cheerfully pay the small rod-license fee fixed by your club, and, not only should your club observe, as you do, the fishery regulations, but as far as possible you should influence your countrymen to do the same."

An Old Stage Trick. Shakespeare was reading "Macbeth" to a friend, and had just finished the lines: "Lay on, Macduff! I am damned he who first cries 'Hold! I enough!'" "But why do you work in that profanity?" asks the friend. "Why?" Shakespeare explains, with a patient consideration of the other's look of prophetic insight, "the day is coming when the only way to get a laugh from the audience will be to have one of the characters swear, and surely I want this play to have a few comedy touches in it."

BOERS SEEK CONTROL

Virtually Send Ultimatum to British Authorities.

Johannesburg, Aug. 11.—Boers all over the Transvaal are congratulating themselves that Sir J. West Ridgeway's committee will report to the British government in their favor. They are convinced the committee will outline a scheme by which the voting power will rest more Boer hands. Britons to the proposed parliament.

The British in the Transvaal were not approached directly by the committee, who sent them a letter in which the phrase occurred: "These are the lower terms to which the Boers will accede."

The Boers are talking of what they will do when they become the predominant partners in the Transvaal. Mr. Smuts, in a recent speech stated that the Boers are determined to get rid of British officials, whom they will turn out to provide situations for the old burgher civil servants.

The question of responsibility government to the Orange River Colony means the handing over of the government to a large Boer majority. It is argued here that if the imperial government does not see the danger of such a course, it is hopeless for the few and scattered British inhabitants of the colony to hope to be able to use any arguments to convince them.

PASSING OF CAPE VINCENT. Town Was One Gateway to St. Lawrence. The Rochester Democrat and Chronicle has discovered that Cape Vincent is fatally ill. In fact it considers the "Cape" so far gone that it proposes to "close" the town.

"Cape Vincent, at the gateway to the St. Lawrence, was for many years the point to which passengers who sought the beauties of the mighty river of more than a thousand islands were taken from all parts of the country by the railroads.

"From Cape Vincent travellers went by boat to various points on the river. Cape Vincent grew and prospered until a few years ago when a railroad employee discovered that Clayton was the actual gateway to the river. Clayton is some miles nearer the excursion centres among the islands. He also discovered that his company would get about forty cents more fare if passengers were taken to Clayton instead of to Cape Vincent.

"The discovery has led to the abandonment of Cape Vincent as a railroad centre and, in consequence, the dying out of the steamboat traffic. The big boats now rarely stop at Cape Vincent, but plow along to Clayton. Only the smaller boats touch at Cape Vincent and in a few years it will be nothing but a hamlet known to a few as a fine bass fishing point. Within the past year or two Cape Vincent has lost 400 people and these have taken up homes in Clayton. The doom of the town is sealed and it was sealed by a railroad employee."
