Revelstoke, B.C., Machinists Get 36jc, an Hour-Conditions of This Labor Not as Good as in the East.

Calgary, Alta., Aug. 9 .- (To the ditor) : Having been a resident Kingston and an employee of the notive Works for over eighteen nonths prior to my leaving Toronto last March for British Columbia, have often thought a letter relating west, might prove of interest to read ers of the Whig. I left Toronto March 15th, for Revelstoke, B.C., to the C.P.R. and arrived in Winnipeg two days later. I noted with interest helpful social and re-ligious influences, and the best facilities for William, which, though of large dimensions, will soon be quite inadequate to cope with the ever-increasing traffie in grain. I was much impressed with Winnipeg, the future metropolis, of Western Canada; its wide, airy Undoubtedly the best of its kind in Canada: —Lord Aberdeen Will reopen Sept. 10. Send for Calendar to Rev. J. J. HARE, Ph.D., Principal.—— of Western Canada; its wide, airy streets and avenues seem to have been laid out with a view to promoting health and cleanliness. I learned, though there is trouble at times with the water, and great care has to exercised in its use. After a stay the journey westward, Brandon, our next stopping place. I was disappointed at not viewing by daylight. Pt in there. Regina, Moosejaw, Swift Current, Medicine Hat are all rapidly growing towns and adding to their populations monthly from the great tide of immigration, always moving west. At the latter town the C.P.R. is erecting machinery to bore for oil, should this enterprise prove profitable and there is every likelihood it will. the "Hat" from this industry alone will rapidly develop as a business centre. It is also stated on good authority that Medicine Hat will be the western headquarters of the Great

In the distance away on the horizon, can be seen the white peaks of the Cascades and Rockies, stretching from north to south, as far as the eye can reach. As one's mind wanders ered since leaving Winnipeg, one cannot but feel elated at the great progress made in populating the country, since the days when the pioneers of civilization first entered "the great lone land."
