

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN
Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick
Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful periods—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the female organs. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me."
Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D.C.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your little son, Rev. G. S. White, without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you do for them. Mrs. Mary Dimmick 10th and East Capitol Sts., Washington, D.C."

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—"I saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers aiding women helpful advice."

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

THE DRUNKS WERE OFFERED THEIR CHOICE.

A Mohawk Excursionist Did Not Go Back With Party—A Woman Who Could Not Locate Her Son.

In police court, this morning, Ald. W. F. Nicke, Hugh Brant advised he had been drunk. He came from Deseronto on the Mohawk excursion yesterday.
"Have you a job?"
"Yes."
"Well, go ahead to it."
Two citizens arrested yesterday for being drunk, pleaded guilty.
"I will let you off on suspended sentence, but you must take your choice of two weeks in jail to get straightened up, or at the hospital."
The two men were in favor of the hospital and friends in court took them there.
After her week's removal, Lucy Jenman, on charge of vagrancy was again in evidence. The court had failed to locate any friends willing to take care of her. She claimed she had a son in Watertown, to whom she would go, but she could give no address. She was committed to jail for two weeks, during which time, she was instructed to write her son, and see if he would care for her.
It is understood in the event of not locating the son, the woman will be sent to Rockwood hospital for treatment.

THE POLO MATCH.
The Visiting Rochesterers Are Very Strong.
The Rochester Polo Club arrived on the steamer Kingston, this morning. The team is an exceptionally strong one, and comprises some of the best players participating in the game in America to-day. When the umpire throws the ball on the field at Lake Ontario Park, to-morrow afternoon, the teams will face each other as follows:
Rochester—No. 1, Oehenheimer; No. 2, Van Voorhis; No. 3, Lindsay; back, Seachard.
Kingston—No. 1, McParland; No. 2, Hart; No. 3, Straubenzick; back, Williams.
It will be noted from this that the strength of the Rochester team is considerably improved by the addition of Straubenzick, who was unable to participate in the game against Montreal, owing to absence from the city, the position of the several players has been changed considerably. Lieut.-Col. Williams playing back. It is anticipated that this will add to the strength of the Rochester team. At any rate the game to-morrow promises to be the fastest and keenest likely to be seen here this season, and will be attended, no doubt, by even a larger and more enthusiastic gathering of spectators than the previous match.

The financial position of the society was discussed and found to be most satisfactory. The secretaries reported on the result of their canvass, stating they had met with good success, and encouragement, having obtained over 100 members. On motion of R. E. Kent and W. H. Macneil, it was decided that the president, G. Nicol, M. E. Flannigan and R. J. Bailen be a committee to revise the price list. They will meet at Mr. Oldrieve's residence, Tuesday evening next.
It was moved by W. H. Macneil, seconded by R. J. Bailen, that a public meeting of the members and those interested in the work of the Horticultural Society be held, on Thursday evening, in the city buildings. Carried. At this meeting, the question of exhibits, etc., will be considered, and on the encouragement received will depend the question as to whether Kingstons will have a flower show this year or not.

A CAPTAIN'S TROUBLE.
Thought Hatch Was Stolen, But Was Not.
Capt. Pike of the sloop Ariadne, was arising some trouble this morning. At conclusion of police court, he wanted to get out a search warrant for the schooner W. J. Sufel, for a hatch, which he claims as his property, but which was aboard the other schooner. Before seeking legal methods he was advised to ask for his property.
Matters were soon set right. It seems some three weeks ago Pike left his hatch on Crawford's wharf in care of the wharfinger, who later loaned it to Capt. Dix, of the Sufel. When Pike returned to port and saw his property on the other boat he was ready to sue, but when asked Capt. Dix readily gave up the hatch and Pike was sent smiling away.

While leisurely examining the curiosity he was accosted by an irate military-looking man, who demanded in unintelligible language what he meant by trespassing on private property. "What," said the Yankee, "I was told I should make a point of seeing 'Satan's Stool,' but I never guessed I should have the pleasure of meeting the owner."

A THRILLING ADVENTURE.
Hunt For Panther in Sleeping-Room—A Desperate Chase.
A recent despatch to The London Express from Allahabad says, an extraordinary adventure in a bedroom with a panther is told by Lieut.-Col. Rundle, of the Royal Field Artillery at Jabalpur, in The Pioneer.
One afternoon Mrs. Rundle came out of a portion of the bungalow that was seldom used, and said she had seen the tail of a panther protruding from behind a large coil of matting in one of the rooms of Col. Rundle's brigade, and the animal was a tame panther, which he knew one of his non-com's owned, and sent for a brother officer to assist in despatching it.
Opening the door opened to inner his rifle barrel, he fired and wounded the beast. The door swung open as the wounded beast bounded against it. Then he sprang at Col. Rundle, mistaking him by a foot and bolted.
Col. Rundle, with Lieut. Mascara, treacherously snatched room in turn. Eventually the panther was found in a spare room hiding behind a coil of matting.
There was a window to this room about fourteen feet from the ground, and Col. Rundle procured a misting net before he could get his rifle up through the doorway.
Lieut. Mascara fired two shots, but neither proved fatal, and the panther bolted out of the house and across the tennis court into the R. A. mess compound.
Here it gave chase to an insolvent sweeper, but was too badly wounded to do more than make a clutch or two at the sweeper's clothes.
Finally it darted into an outhouse, where it was despatched.
