EMPLOYEES' PICNIC AT SUMMER HOME OF THEIR EMPLOYERS.

Crumley Bros', Store Closed Yesterday Afternoon—A Fine Time Spent on the Shores of Dead Man's Bay.

Yesterday afternoon one of the leading dry goods stores of the city was closed and a card at the entrance announced that the employees of the establishment were having their annual picnic. The picturesque Crumley cottage on the shore of Dead Man's Bay, was the spot chosen for this year's outing, and hither the delightful picnickers drove shortly after the noon hour.

The house party included Mr. and Mrs. E. Crumley, Mr. and Mrs. H. Crumley, Mrs. Galloway, Miss Davidson, Miss Eva Walker from New York, and Mrs. W. Crumley of Rochester, N.Y., and it is unnecessary to say that they spared no efforts in an endeavor to give the picnickers a good time.

Everyone was more than successful, and the outing proving enjoyable beyond measure. The programme which constituted the afternoon's fun was as long as it was varied, and such as could only be carried out at a spot ideally situated as was the Crumley cottage. With baseball, croquet, quoits, target-shooting, boating, fishing and swimming, the afternoon had soon flown and the supper hour had arrived.

Everyone was happy and everyone was hungry and the spread would have brought delight to the face of an epicurean. Little time was lost in disposing of the good things and then began an evening rivalled only by the afternoon which had preceded. Cards, dancing, singing, made it pass all too quickly and the picnickers were loathe to leave when the hour of eleven came. However, they departed happily in mind and tired in body, with the best of wishes for hosts and hostesses who had done so much to add to their enjoyment. May our next year's outing be as good, was their one wish, and if it is they will be perfectly content to forget the days which must elapse before the year passes.
