REV. DR. SALMON

Removal to Morrisburg Greatly Regretted Here.

Canadian Freeman. The Catholics of Kingston learned Ends in Police Court Appearwith deep regret the removal of Rev. Dr. Salmon, to Morrisburg. It may be truly said of the good priest that what is Kingston's loss will be Morrisburg's gain." In the few years Carpets sewed and laid FREE, amongst us he has proved himself to shepherd of the most fatherly kind-his always smiling countenance bringing sunshine to many who could see nothing but gloom ahead of them. From everywhere Dr. Salmon has la of the carnest, devout and hard-workng priest, his native city of Montant priestly offices, keeping pleasant memories of him as though he had botal in question swore that De never left that Catholic city. Beloved y the children of Kingston, the little tructive sermons and witty stories to his valuable advice in time of need ann his priestly sympathy when afliction had crossed their threshold While all regret Dr. Salmon's removal from Kingston, still there is a relief in the knowledge that his grace has stationed him in the beautifully situ ated parish of Morrisburg, on the banks of the St. Lawrence, where he will be free for the time being from is many friends in Kingston, who the city would keep the roadway love him so well, as a priest and

MARRIED AT MERRICKVILLE.

Old Friend of the Family Performs the Ceremony. Tuesday afternoon the marriage THE FLEETWING IS OWNED took place in Merrickville of two wellknown young people of that town, Miss Mildred Amy Berenice Merrick, and John Herbert Cranston. The ceremony, which was a very quiet one, took place at the residence of the bride's parents at half-past five in the afternoon by Rev. W. M. McFee, of its coal men than Kingston. A LIVELY FIGHT

Last evening about a quarter eleven o'clock, when the police were patrolling Ontario street, their attention was attracted by a row in progress in one of the hotels. On entering the bar-room they discovered James Tyo and Patrick Dec sprawling That is how the pair came to spend the night in the police station, and face Ald. T. J. Rigney, this morning. Tyo pleaded guilty, and was senpleaded not guilty. The police testi-fied to his being drunk and fighting. hotel in question, swore that Dec was sober. He came in and called to seltzer and salt. Tyo was present and picked a fight. The court, in al lowing the prisoner the benefit of the doubt and his freedom, warned him to be more careful in his associates
