Devil Dancers at a Dress Ball in Ceylon

Visitors who have been in Orizaba, Mexico, at the time of the Corpus Christi procession, are always deeply interested in the floral carpets that are spread along the streets over which those in the procession pass.

These processions usually march a distance of several squares, the participants walking on flowers for the greater part if not all the distance.

Men, women and children help weave these beautiful carpets, for which purpose they use thousands of flowers.

Those at work upon one section will endeavor to excel, in beauty of their handwork, the designs of the others.

With remarkable skill handmaiden tapestry designs are worked out, so that when the fresh blooms are laid upon the streets the effect is strikingly beautiful.

As the scores of moving feet in the procession crush the blooms and leaves the atmosphere of almost the entire city becomes heavy with the perfume.

The inventor of rose-leaf salad has so far eluded fame by keeping his or her name a mystery, but the new culinary triumph is said to be enjoying quite an extensive vogue in Europe.

CONCERNING CORPULENCE.

Not a Sign of Gluttony, Starving - No Cure.

Youth's Companion. It is a mistake and an injustice to many abstemious folk to assume that all fat persons are gluttons or large eaters.

Another prevalent error in regard to fat people is that they are inert or lazy and never exercise.

Obesity, indeed, is usually a disease, and not merely the result of laziness or gluttony.

Children Who Are Never Kissed. It is always a surprise to people to learn that there are millions of human beings who do not know what it is to kiss.

It is a milliner who works in a large city says that one day a woman came into her shop very much excited.

Chinese children clasp their hands in front of their breasts, then raise them to their faces, and inclining their heads, inquire of the others.

Left-handed ball players are a very familiar sight; piano players use the left hand with as much ease as the right.

NOTHING NEW UNDER SUN. Massage, Lightning Rods and Glass Houses Are Ancient.

According to an examiner in the patent office at Washington discovery, like history, repeats itself.

The Romans, too, seem to have known the lightning rod.

In 1892, France was already in possession of the lightning rod.

Massage is an ancient practice and was known to the Romans.
