NO PROVISION MADE.

For Pay of the Artillery Auxiliary Transport. When the R.C.H.A. went to camp at Petewawa, an auxiliary transport of twelve men and nine horses was directed to be supplied by Lieut.-Col.
Biggar, director of transport and supplies. When camp broke up there was no provision made for the pay of these men, most of whom belong to the city. The men appealed to Capt. Morgan, of the 8th field battery, who had enpaged them as transport ingaged them as transport, and he wrote to Ottawa for instructions. An immediate reply was received to have the pay sheet made out and put through the O.C's, office here.
