

Received: ... Stockings at 25c. ... Corsets and Kil Gloves. ... Hats and Drawers. ... Bibby's...

MR. ALFRED PLEAU. PE-RU-NA STRENGTHENS THE ENTIRE SYSTEM.

Mr. Alfred Pleau, an expert machinist, 176 St. John Street, Quebec City, Canada, writes: "Two years ago, an accident necessitated my confinement for several weeks. The good health I had enjoyed was slipping away and there developed a complication of diseases. My physician said my case was one of general debility. Among the many ailments which developed was a serious attack of catarrh, which annoyed me considerably and kept me awake whole nights. I decided to give Peruna a trial and soon found it acting as a wonderful tonic to my system. The catarrh grew less severe and shortly afterward disappeared, as did also the various other maladies. I attribute my prompt relief and ultimate cure entirely to the use of Peruna and gladly recommend it."

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women Make Healthy Women. If You Suffer with Rheumatism. Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy Will Bring the Utmost Relief that Medicine Can.

The one remedy which many physicians rely upon to free the system of the Rheumatic Poisons which are the cause of all Rheumatism, Lumbago, Sciatica, Gout, Dr. Shoop's RHEUMATIC REMEDY. Dr. Shoop spent twenty years in experimenting with the various chemical compounds which make possible the cure of Rheumatism, Gout, Sciatica, Lumbago, etc. Not that Dr. Shoop's RHEUMATIC REMEDY is a new discovery, but that it is a new combination of the old remedies which have been used for centuries. It is a new discovery in that it is a new combination of the old remedies which have been used for centuries. It is a new discovery in that it is a new combination of the old remedies which have been used for centuries.

You don't wash with the box! Both box and wrapper of Baby's Own Soap are plain, business like and cheap. All the money is in the Soap itself, which is as "wholesome" pure and fragrant as money can make it.

Baby's Own Soap is much imitated as to appearance, but delicate skins soon show the difference. "Baby's Own" costs YOU no more than the imitations.

Easy to Dye. Maypole Soap not only gives a fast, brilliant color but makes home dyeing safe, sure, pleasant, easy. It's a cake of soap that washes and dyes at one operation. Made in England but sold everywhere.

With our ABILITY and choice of leather giving you Comfort and Durability. 286 Princess Street. BRITISH-AMERICAN HOTEL. KINGSTON - ONTARIO. Has undergone alterations and is now open to the travelling public. W. TELFER - Proprietor.

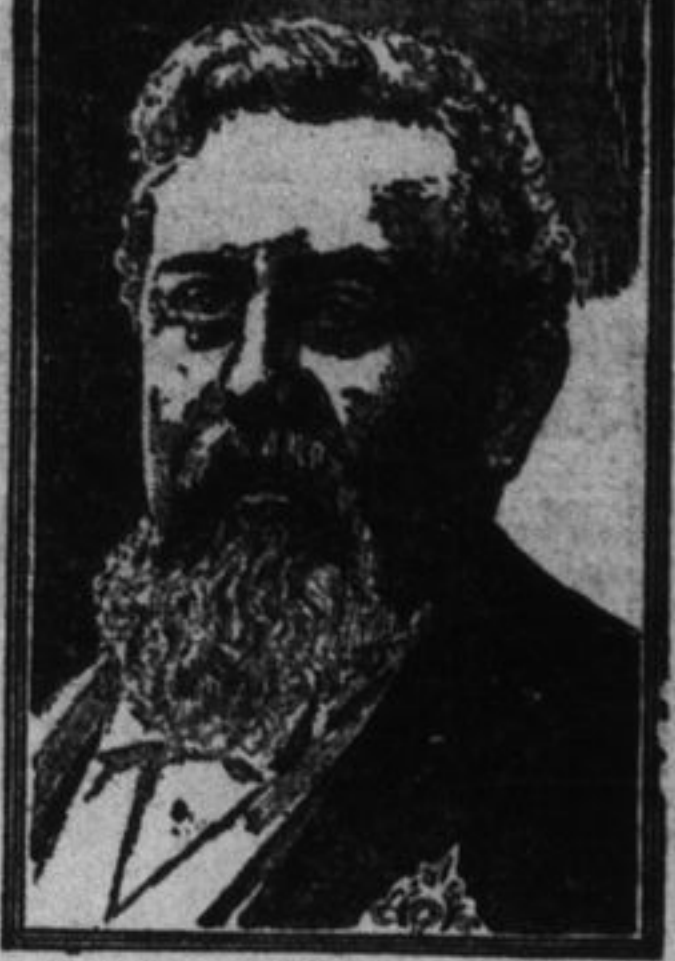

NAPANEENS SAFE

WERE TWELVE ON THE HARVESTER'S EXCURSION.

Bad Accident to Little Boy—Electric Lights in Trimmer—Madden Bros. Still in Business—Several Visitors. Napanea, Sept. 15.—The street electric lights have been in working order for the past week, and are giving universal satisfaction. Miss Florence Fraser, New York, is spending her holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fraser, John street. John and Percy Madden have taken over the grocery and butcher business of their uncle, Stephen and Andrew Madden, John street, and on Monday morning assumed charge of the business. The firm of Madden Bros. has been known in Napanea for the past twenty-three years. Master Wilfrid Frailek, little son of M. H. Frailek, South Napanea, met with a painful accident on Monday. He was riding on a wagon and in attempting to get off he fell, and the wagon passing over his foot and crushed it. Luckily no bones were broken, and a few weeks' confinement to the house will heal the injury. There were many anxious people in town, when the papers came in with an account of the accident to the "harvester" excursion near Sulbury. But through the thoughtfulness of one of the passengers who wired the day before that "all Napaneans on the train were safe," the anxiety subsided. It was a very close call. There were ten or twelve from Napanea but luckily they were in a rear train and escaped all injury.

SOME WILD STORIES

Attempts to Be Made on Life of Fallieres.

PRESIDENT FALLIERES. Paris, Sept. 15.—Some wild stories have been circulated in France recently. The latest one appeared in the conservative newspaper yesterday telling of the attempted assassination of the President of the Republic at the railway station, whence his departure had been announced in the newspapers.

It would seem strange indeed if real plotters would let such specific news of their plans reach the papers as have been published here. Nevertheless, it is announced that not only have fifteen thousand additional troops been assembled at Versailles, but that while the public will be admitted to the presidential enclosure, everybody must enter empty handed. President Fallieres will be in Versailles two days. Many newspapers will take part in the ceremonies attendant upon the reception. With the precautions taken, no anarchist attempt is likely, notwithstanding the fact that the Paris newspapers have been filled with stories of plots to be carried out on this occasion.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of the People—What They Are Saying and Doing. Robson Black of the News staff, left today for Toronto. B. J. Folger returned to Kingston from Toronto last night. Rev. Dr. Tucker is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. Tandy, Johnson street. Mr. A. C. McCallum, representing the Railway and Marine World, Toronto, is in town, today, on a business visit. James E. Jago, of the firm of Jago Bros., plumbers, Chicago, is dead. Mr. Jago was a widow, a sister of James McFarland, of Gananoque, and Michael Westport, are visiting in Kingston this week. Albert Jenkins, Port Arthur, is the guest of Kenneth McCullough, at the armories. Robert Meek left today for Toronto, to attend the Sovereign I.O.O.F. Grand Lodge. Rev. Dr. Macmillan will exchange pulpits on Sunday, with Rev. J. R. R. Crozier, Deseronto. Miss Y. Nicholson, Kingston, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. W. K. Crozier, Deseronto. Rev. F. B. Stratton will occupy the pulpit of the Western Methodist church in Napanea, on Sunday, with Rev. J. R. R. Crozier, Deseronto. Miss Hazel Viles, visiting Mrs. Powers, Montreal street, returned to her home today, to Uxbridge. Dr. Campbell, practising physician of Minneapolis, paid a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Code, Gore street. Miss Mary Gavin and Miss Gertrude Gilman, Stratford, Pa., are visiting at Mrs. D. Walsh's, Wellington street. O. G. Johnson has returned from Montreal, from which port his sister-in-law sailed for England on Wednesday. Mrs. Alfred McArthur, Rollin, and her daughters, Miss May, Lillian and Daisy, are spending a few days in Kingston. W. H. Constock and G. I. Mallory, on business in connection with the cereal works company. Miss Hannah Bell, Cataron, has returned home after having spent a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. B. Hetherington, Deseronto. Mayor F. Hugo, Watertown, N.Y., was in Kingston on Friday, visiting his parents and his brother, Ex-Mayor T. W. Hugo of Duluth, Minn.

Made in Canada.

Patriotic Examination. The trustees of Queen's University do not trouble themselves with the "made-in-Canada" idea. They have appointed William Blair Anderson, a graduate of Aberdeen and Cambridge universities, professor of Latin in Queen's University. Mr. Anderson's nationality is not mentioned, but it is to be presumed that he is not a Canadian. There must be scores of graduates of Canadian universities, capable of filling such a position, and available besides. It would be a strong proof of the confidence Queen's trustees in the efficiency of their university if they should appoint one of their own graduates to the professorship of Latin.

Called to Rome.

Rev. Dr. M. F. Fallon, superior of the O.M.I. in the United States, and son of D. Fallon, Brock street, would present the case of the Irish Catholics in Canada before the capote of the oblate order at its annual meeting in Rome on September 19th. The Irish Catholics of Ottawa, are not in accord with their co-religionists of the French race in the administration of the separate schools. The alleged neglect of English Catholic schools and inability of the Irish to get a fair portion of the expenditure of money on contracts will be some of the issues treated.

Had a Good Run.

Twenty boys took part in the paper chase of the Y.M.C.A. juniors today. They had a good run to Lake Ontario Park. The hares were Legs Meek, William Goodearde and Calvin Day. Goodearde was winded, Meek was located his paper being exhausted. On the run back Calvin Day, beat the bounds to the Y. M. C. A.

Lost Everything.

P. H. Press was in the Gilmore hotel fire in Ottawa, but telegraphs that he is safe, though losing everything in his room. His father and mother, who were visiting him this week, only left his Gilmore house on Friday.

A Precious Vase.

In the ancient cathedral of Genoa a vase of immense value has been preserved for six hundred years. It is cut from a single emerald, its principal diameter is twelve and a half inches and its height five and three-quarter inches. It is kept under several locks, the keys of which are in different hands, and it is rarely exhibited in public, and only by an order of the senate. When exhibited, it is suspended round the neck of a priest by a cord, and no one is allowed to touch it but him. It is claimed that this vase is one of the gifts which was made to Solomon by the Queen of Sheba.

PARKS OF LONDON

$222,000 SPENT ANNUALLY IN LOOKING AFTER THEM.

Lungs of London Controlled By City Council—3,000 Men Employed—City's Gardens Compare With Any in Europe. The lungs of London are controlled in part by the County Council and in part by the Office of Works. In the last official year Spring Gardens was responsible for 405 open spaces, having a total extent of nearly 5,000 acres, and a permanent staff of 3,000 men. Upon this department the annual expenditure has reached about £125,000, and since the County Council was formed, fifteen years ago, it has spent rather more than a million sterling upon this public service. In addition to this there is the City Council's expenditure of £100,000 a year towards the maintenance of Epping Forest, Burnham Beeches, and elsewhere. It will thus be seen that the maintenance of London's open spaces means an aggregate expense every year of at least a quarter of a million, while employment is given to nearly three thousand men.

Some of the showiest effects are produced at a trifling cost. Thus the London County Council spends £500 on bulbs, and for the same obtains no fewer than 320,000 spring flowers. The bulbs are delivered by the contractors at the end of September, and the task of planting them is at once proceeded towards the maintenance of Epping Forest, Burnham Beeches, and elsewhere. It will thus be seen that the maintenance of London's open spaces means an aggregate expense every year of at least a quarter of a million, while employment is given to nearly three thousand men.

WILL BUILD BRITANNIA II.

His Majesty Again to Take Up Yacht Racing.

For ten years past, remarks The London edition of the Times, the practice of those directly interested in the high developments of yacht racing in British waters to refer to the seasons in which the famous old Britannia sailed the racing fleet round the coasts as typical of the high-water mark of the sport in Britain. There is little doubt that this magnificent sport, which during these seasons owed much to the direct interest and participation of the then Prince of Wales, and there have been those who still stubbornly to the opinion that the same keen interest and enthusiasm would never be reached again unless the King returned to his first love among the sports, and renewed himself again among the racing owners.

Whether the revival initiated so successfully by the late Prince of Wales, Mr. Young of the Nyrta and Mr. Myles B. Kennedy of the White Heather, would have developed far enough in another season to have fully satisfied this opinion remains an open question. In the meantime, the universal feeling in yacht racing circles is one of absolute satisfaction that the matter has been put beyond doubt by the decision of His Majesty to hoist racing colors again to the truck of a first-class cutter. This decision, or rather, the negotiations which preceded it, gave rise to a variety of rumors, mainly concerning, and wholly premature, and the result is that those who have followed the matter with the closest interest are most mystified as to the exact position in which the matter now stands. It may now be stated that, although the negotiations have not reached the point at which the proposal to build becomes an actual contract, they have advanced so far as to put it beyond all reasonable doubt that there will be a new royal cutter of the class which will lead the racing fleet through the regatta of next year. In the lifetime of the late Mr. Geo. L. Watson, the most eminent of British yacht designers, he was the authority to whom the King turned for expert advice on all matters pertaining to yachting, and the cutter Britannia, which he designed for the King when Prince of Wales, was easily the most consistently successful racer ever built in the first class. On the death of Mr. Watson, the business passed—under the provisions of his will—to Mr. J. T. Barnett, his chief draughtsman and assistant. It is with the same firm, therefore, Messrs. Geo. L. Watson & Co., that His Majesty has been in negotiation for the building of the new racer, and whether the new craft repeats all the successes of her predecessor or not, there are circumstances which will mark her an epoch-making vessel. The keenest desire of the framers of the new international rule of racing was that the change might do something for the encouragement of international sport among the yachting countries of Europe, and the fact that the first important racer to be built under that rule will be for the use of King Edward gives the best reason which can be advanced for the hope which is being entertained that this hope will be fulfilled. In the sketch plans which have been made the definitions of the framers of the new rule find definite expression.

London's Infant Slaughter.

John Burns, the English Labor member and Cabinet Minister, the sixteenth member of a family of eight children, nine of whom survived, said to the national conference on infant mortality in London: "I believe I am well within the mark when I say that there are roughly 100,000 lives sacrificed in some form or other every year, not to man's inhumanity to man, but to neglect, carelessness and ignorance. It is pathetic to know that in some districts from 30 to 60 per cent of the total children born die under five years. Wealth has increased, but the infant has not shared it. Physical comforts have increased, and yet the weakest and the smallest bear an undue share of the burden of death. It seems as though material progress is hitting the child too hard."

A Bit of Spiritualism.

Archdeacon Colley, speaking at the Spiritualists' Convention at South-place, told some strange stories of a guardian spirit which had many times befriended his son, an army officer. The spirit occasionally materialized itself in the shape of a white dove. On one occasion the officer found himself "televated" in an hour of special need over a wall 8 feet high. Recently, the archdeacon added, he received a letter from his son, now in India, in which he said that on a certain Sunday he had "a strange sensation of the presence of a dove." "I wonder if you preached that sermon?" the archdeacon searched his catalogue of sermons, and found that on that particular Sunday he had preached sermon "No. 27; Wings like a dove."

Only Four Unwed.

Of Queen Victoria's 21 granddaughters only four now remain unmarried. These are Princess Victoria of Eng-land, Princess Beatrice of Sax-Coburg, Princess Patricia of Connaught, and Princess Victoria of Sleswick-Holstein.

An Anti-Climax.

One of the best judicial utterances is that ascribed to a rural justice of the peace: "Prisoner, a beautiful Providence has engaged you this evening and attended to your case, and now you are here instead of you go about the country stealing hens."

WILL BUILD BRITANNIA II.

His Majesty Again to Take Up Yacht Racing.

For ten years past, remarks The London edition of the Times, the practice of those directly interested in the high developments of yacht racing in British waters to refer to the seasons in which the famous old Britannia sailed the racing fleet round the coasts as typical of the high-water mark of the sport in Britain. There is little doubt that this magnificent sport, which during these seasons owed much to the direct interest and participation of the then Prince of Wales, and there have been those who still stubbornly to the opinion that the same keen interest and enthusiasm would never be reached again unless the King returned to his first love among the sports, and renewed himself again among the racing owners.

Whether the revival initiated so successfully by the late Prince of Wales, Mr. Young of the Nyrta and Mr. Myles B. Kennedy of the White Heather, would have developed far enough in another season to have fully satisfied this opinion remains an open question. In the meantime, the universal feeling in yacht racing circles is one of absolute satisfaction that the matter has been put beyond doubt by the decision of His Majesty to hoist racing colors again to the truck of a first-class cutter. This decision, or rather, the negotiations which preceded it, gave rise to a variety of rumors, mainly concerning, and wholly premature, and the result is that those who have followed the matter with the closest interest are most mystified as to the exact position in which the matter now stands. It may now be stated that, although the negotiations have not reached the point at which the proposal to build becomes an actual contract, they have advanced so far as to put it beyond all reasonable doubt that there will be a new royal cutter of the class which will lead the racing fleet through the regatta of next year. In the lifetime of the late Mr. Geo. L. Watson, the most eminent of British yacht designers, he was the authority to whom the King turned for expert advice on all matters pertaining to yachting, and the cutter Britannia, which he designed for the King when Prince of Wales, was easily the most consistently successful racer ever built in the first class. On the death of Mr. Watson, the business passed—under the provisions of his will—to Mr. J. T. Barnett, his chief draughtsman and assistant. It is with the same firm, therefore, Messrs. Geo. L. Watson & Co., that His Majesty has been in negotiation for the building of the new racer, and whether the new craft repeats all the successes of her predecessor or not, there are circumstances which will mark her an epoch-making vessel. The keenest desire of the framers of the new international rule of racing was that the change might do something for the encouragement of international sport among the yachting countries of Europe, and the fact that the first important racer to be built under that rule will be for the use of King Edward gives the best reason which can be advanced for the hope which is being entertained that this hope will be fulfilled. In the sketch plans which have been made the definitions of the framers of the new rule find definite expression.

London's Infant Slaughter.

John Burns, the English Labor member and Cabinet Minister, the sixteenth member of a family of eight children, nine of whom survived, said to the national conference on infant mortality in London: "I believe I am well within the mark when I say that there are roughly 100,000 lives sacrificed in some form or other every year, not to man's inhumanity to man, but to neglect, carelessness and ignorance. It is pathetic to know that in some districts from 30 to 60 per cent of the total children born die under five years. Wealth has increased, but the infant has not shared it. Physical comforts have increased, and yet the weakest and the smallest bear an undue share of the burden of death. It seems as though material progress is hitting the child too hard."

A Bit of Spiritualism.

Archdeacon Colley, speaking at the Spiritualists' Convention at South-place, told some strange stories of a guardian spirit which had many times befriended his son, an army officer. The spirit occasionally materialized itself in the shape of a white dove. On one occasion the officer found himself "televated" in an hour of special need over a wall 8 feet high. Recently, the archdeacon added, he received a letter from his son, now in India, in which he said that on a certain Sunday he had "a strange sensation of the presence of a dove." "I wonder if you preached that sermon?" the archdeacon searched his catalogue of sermons, and found that on that particular Sunday he had preached sermon "No. 27; Wings like a dove."

Only Four Unwed.

Of Queen Victoria's 21 granddaughters only four now remain unmarried. These are Princess Victoria of Eng-land, Princess Beatrice of Sax-Coburg, Princess Patricia of Connaught, and Princess Victoria of Sleswick-Holstein.

An Anti-Climax.

One of the best judicial utterances is that ascribed to a rural justice of the peace: "Prisoner, a beautiful Providence has engaged you this evening and attended to your case, and now you are here instead of you go about the country stealing hens."

"Tiger Brand" Underwear

Perfectly Sanitary: Unshrinkable. A little cup or two in the middle of the afternoon will rest and invigorate.

Blue Ribbon Tea

Black, green, mixed—25c. to $1 a lb.—All grocers.

Choose Your Coat Now

SPENCE'S The Leading Millinery and Mantle Store.

Our Upholstering

Is a great feature, as we do nothing but high-class work; as we do all our own Upholstering in Parlor Suits, Couches and Mattresses. We keep a large staff, which is at your service.

JAMES REID, The Leading Undertaker

Phone 147 for the White Ambulance.

FINANCE AND INSURANCE

CUSTOMS BROKER - If You Want a Home Or Insurance, have a talk with George Zeigler, REAL ESTATE & INSURANCE, 57 Brock Street.

Money to Loan - McIntyre & McIntyre, BARRISTERS, King Street :: Kingston.

WHAT IS THE REASON? DR. McMULLEN TO RETIRE. Resigns After Half a Century of Service.

Russia Will Not Open North Manchuria Ports. London, Sept. 15.—The Times correspondent at Tokyo cables: The Japanese press comments strongly on the fact that, whereas six places in the occupation of Japan in South Manchuria have been opened, according to the China-Japan treaty, not one of the places occupied by Russia in North Manchuria has been opened, though designated in the same treaty. These places are all on or near the rivers Amur and Sungaria and are important trading centres, yet no Japanese subject has been allowed to set foot there.

Another Consignment. Of our popular $2 derbies have just been received and will be opened up ready for to-night's selling at Currier Bros., the store of big values in men's hats. New sweaters at Bibby's.

Prevost, Brock street, has received all his fall and winter imports for order work in his tailoring department, consisting of Scotch, blue and black serge, great variety of black cheviot and Vicenza, all a splendid stock of overcoating. Any one trusting him with an order may rest assured they will be well pleased in getting a good fit at his prices.