

The Watch-Dog in your Vest Pocket

YOU can buy Health Insurance now.

Several good "Accident" Companies will it.

Sixty dollars per year will bring you $25.00 per week, for every week you are Sick.

But, your time alone may be worth far more than that.

And $200 per week might not pay for your suffering.

That's why "Cascaet" Insurance which prevents Sickness, is worth ten times as much money as other "Health" Insurance.

Yet "Cascaet Insurance" will cost you less than Ten Cents a week.

That gives you a "Vest Pocket" Box to carry constantly.

"Indigestion" means food eaten but only partially digested.

"Constipation" means food retained in the body undigested too long, till it decays. It then supplies the poisons of decay to the system, in place of the nourishment it might have supplied.

Isn't that a tremendous handicap worth insuring against?

What does it cost to Cure Constipation or Indigestion, with their train of small and great ills, and to insure against a return of them?

Not a very much.

One 10 cent box of Cascaet per week, at most, perhaps half that.

One candy-tablet night and morning, taken regularly for a short time, is warranted to cure the worst case of Constipation or Indigestion that walks the earth.

One tablet taken whenever you suspect you need it will insure you against 90 per cent of all other ills likely to attack you. Because 90 per cent of these ills begin in the Bowels, or exist through poor Nutrition.

Cascaet's don't purge, don't weaken, don't irritate, nor upset your stomach.

No—they act like Exercise on the Bowels, instead.

They stimulate the Bowel-Muscles to contract and propel the Food naturally past the little valves that mix Digestive Juices with Food.

They strengthen these Bowel-Muscles by exercising them.

The Bowel-Muscles can thus, in a short time, dispense with any Drug assistance whatever.

The time to take a Cascaet is the very minute you suspect you need one.

—When your Tongue is coated a little.

—When your breath is not above suspicion.

—When your head feels dull, dizzy, or achy.

—When you have eaten too heartily, or too rapidly.

—When you have drunk more than was good for your digestion.

—When you have a touch of Heart-burn, Gas-belching, Acid-rising-in-throat, or a Coming-on-Cold.

Carry the "Vest Pocket" Box where it belongs, just as you would your Watch, Pocket-knife or Lead-pencil.

It costs only 10 cents. At any drug-gist.

Be sure you get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company, and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."

A sample and the famous booklet "Curse of Constipation." Free for the asking. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago or New York. 700

TOUR WITHOUT TIP A WEALTHY MAN SUFFERS FROM EXPERIMENT.

Mysterious Hieroglyphics and Secret Signs Announced the Arrival of the Grainers—Hotels Were Always Full.

London, Sept. 22.—Herr Gruner, a wealthy German hotel proprietor, has carried out an experiment with amusing results on the tipping custom. He has a theory that all hotel employees should be paid a living wage, and that tipping should be abolished in hotels.

So he started, accompanied by his wife and daughter, the anxious correspondent of the Daily Mail writing on a three weeks' tour of the chief German and Swiss hotels, determined not to spend a sou on tips, in order to test his opinion.

One week's experience of the consequences was enough for his wife and daughter, who returned home disappointed and indignant with Herr Gruner for the discomfort and insults to which he had led them.

Mysterious hieroglyphics and secret signs—known only to hotel employees—"the non-tippers"—at the various resorts they visited. The result was always the same—nobody seemed to want them.

At the stations they were told that the particular hotel they wished to stay at was full; the hotel omnibus was merely "waiting for a few old clients to depart." When they insisted on entering the omnibus there was nobody to carry their luggage and railway porters had to be employed and paid. Arriving at the hotel, their heavy baggage was unceremoniously thrown on the ground, and the boxes were damaged.

The maid took half an hour to answer the bell, and the "hot water" when it did arrive, was cold. At table d'hôte the Grainers were always served "did not know" of any interesting trips in the neighborhood, and was generally "busy" when they descended to the hall. Compliments to the manager were futile.

Herr Gruner, who persevered with his three weeks' tour to his unpleasant end, sums up his experience as including the following:

Had four pairs of boots, two being new, ruined; "cause unknown."

Two suits of clothes, one dress, three dresses mysteriously contracted ink stains.

Herr Gruner now believes that tipping is a necessary evil, with still a long life.

MORE SHIPS OF WAR Is Germany's Need—An Optimistic View.

Berlin, Sept. 22.—Count Von Evertlow, the German naval authority, speaking at the annual meeting of the Pan-German League, held at Dresden yesterday, said Germans must smile at English disarmament speeches.

"As we are building our fleet solely to bring ourselves out of a position of defencelessness," said the count, "we could at the most only propose to Great Britain that she should reduce her rate of building in order that our fleet, might attain to the strength of hers. As soon as this is the case, we will bind ourselves not to increase our fleet further."

The disarmament question will certainly be brought forward at the next Hague conference, and Germany will probably be described there as the universal disturber of peace. We can, however, look forward to everything not only with calmness, but with equanimity.

In the discussion which followed, Lieutenant General Liebert, formerly governor of German East Africa, said: "In the whole of German history Bismarck is the only great German diplomatist. A lack of diplomatists must be replaced by brutal power, by force; almost the power is the army and navy."

"When my one asks me whether we should disarm, I say, 'For heaven's sake, keep up your army and build ships!'" This speech was received by the audience with tumultuous applause.

BATTLE BETWEEN JAGUARS. Bloody Fight in Cage at Zoological Garden.

London, Sept. 22.—The facts of a fierce and sordid battle between jaguars at the Zoological Gardens have just come to light.

For some time the jaguars have been kept apart owing to the warlike disposition of the male; but recently the experiment was tried of putting them together again. The door between the dens in which were the male and the female was opened, but almost immediately the male passed the barrier the younger, the female flew at him and tried to tear his eyes out.

The keepers, by using whips and iron bars, managed to part the combatants.

But the battle was not over, for the second female set upon the male and drove him back to his own quarters, badly mauled and scratched.

The authorities have given up hope of reconciling the three.

GALLANT RESCUER KILLED. Tries to Aid Unfortunate Tourists.

Paris, Sept. 22.—A telegram from Interlaken states that two Liechtenstein traders who started from Gosschen on a mountain excursion without guides broke through the treacherous snow and fell into a crevasse.

A peasant named Joseph Gehrig, who saw the accident, heroically let himself down the crevasse with the aid of his two small sons, and rescued both tourists, but at the last moment he himself was dashed down by the breaking of the ice and killed.

A Gosschen committee sends an appeal for donations, saying: "He had nothing but his life to give, and gave it for strangers. Let some strangers give for his family, a widow and eight children, of whom three are blind, and all utterly destitute."

TERRORIZES BY A BEAR. Foreign Tamer Threatens to Let Animal Loose.

London, Sept. 22.—Some farm hands employed on Elms farm, Dover, had a terrifying encounter with a foreigner and a bear.

It was noticed that a large hole had been cut in a stack of fodder, and one of the farm hands kept watch.

He discovered a foreigner, with a big bear, ensconced in the stack late at night. The bear had also been feeding on the fodder.

The foreigner threatened to let the unmuzzled bear loose on them, and succeeded in escaping toward Folkestone.

A GOOD ADVERTISEMENT. Free Entrance Given to Store's Customers.

Berlin, Sept. 22.—A large general store in the north of Berlin has hit on a happy method of advertising itself. It informed the public that on a certain day, whoever bought goods exceeding one mark in value would, on a fixed day, receive a free entrance to a well-known beer garden in the neighborhood, where fireworks, music and other entertainments and shows would be provided gratis. Needless to say the store was stormed with intending purchasers, and that the beer garden was packed all day with throngs of pleasure seekers.

Enterprise of this character evidently pays, as other general stores announce their intention of following the example.

ALPINE MYSTERY SOLVED. Skeleton of Woman Who Disappeared Year Ago.

Lucerne, Sept. 22.—Just a year ago a woman tourist, Mme. Talvine, set out alone from Lucerne to ascend the Saavergarde, and never returned. Her skeleton has now been found at the foot of a precipice, and has been identified by the rings and watch which Mme. Talvine wore.

Foul play was suspected for a long time after Mme. Talvine's disappearance, and a shepherd was arrested. The finding of the skeleton, however, with its jewelry, has, of course, caused the abandonment of all charges against him.

DO YOU EVER FIGURE THE COST of a single day's baking—the material, fuel, time and labour—and consider that it is all wasted if the baking is a failure?

AWFUL PSORIASIS
35 YEARS

Terrible Scaly Humour in Patches All Over the Body—Skin Cracked and Bleeding—Itching Unbearable—Cured by CUTICURA in Thirty Days at Small Expense.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"I was afflicted with psoriasis for thirty-five years. It was in patches all over my body. I tried the various cures of Soap, six boxes of Cuticura Ointment, and six bottles of Cuticura Resolvent. I bathed with the Soap, applied the Ointment once a day, and took the Resolvent as directed. In thirty days I was completely cured, and I think permanently, as it was above five years ago."

"The psoriasis first made its appearance in red spots, generally forming a circle, leaving in the center a spot about the size of a silver dollar of sound flesh. In a short time the affected circle would form a heavy dry scale of a white silvery appearance and would gradually drop off. To remove the entire scales by bathing or using oil to soften them the flesh would be perfectly raw, and a light discharge of bloody substance would come out. That scaly crust would form again in twenty-four hours. It was worse on my arms and limbs, although it was in spots all over my body, also on my scalp. If I let the scales remain too long without removing by bath or otherwise, the skin would crack and bleed. I suffered intense itching, worse at nights after getting warm in bed, or blood warm by exercise, when it would be almost unbearable."

"To sum it all up, I would not go through such another ordeal of affliction for thirty-five years for the State of Kansas. (Signed) W. M. Childster, Hutchinson, Kan., April 29, 1902."

The Oxford Warm Air Furnace

Here's the furnace that heats more house with the same fuel, because it gets all the heat out of hard coal before the chimney gets a chance to waste any. One way fire travel means quick use of the heat, and means the use of ALL the heat that any fuel gives. There's no furnace so easy and simple to manage as the Oxford Warm Air Furnace. Ash pit is extra deep, so you needn't fear the draft being choked by accumulated ashes. Because the grate-bars are hollow and triangular, this furnace gets more good from the fuel it does burn,—those bars make the fire use a lot of air,—perfect combustion. Everything about the furnace is built for service and to save trouble and money to the man who buys it. Will you come in and let us talk it over with you?
